Do You Believe in Something that is Contrary to Scripture?

In this week's study from Tehillim / Psalms 119:1-176. Tehillim / Psalm 119 shows us that the Word of God should take top priority in our lives and the importance of praise. Looking at the Masoretic Text, Tehillim / Psalm 119 is divided in the sections based upon the 22 letters in the Hebrew alef-bet. The first eight verses are grouped under the letter א (alef) the next eight verses under the letter ב (bet), etc. The overall scheme found throughout Tehillim / Psalms 119 seems to be determined mostly by the alef-bet organization of the text. Throughout Tehillim / Psalms 119, the word Torah (תורה) is used 25 times and is a reference to both the books of Moshe and to teaching or instruction. The basic conclusion is that the Torah is not just for academic interest, but for obedience. The word Testimonies (עֲדוּתָיו) is used 10 times meaning “to bear witness (testimonies).” This directs us to obey God’s Word as bearing God’s testimonies in our lives. The word Way (בְּדַרְכָּיו) is used 7 times referring to the way the Lord wants us to walk in His was as opposed to our own ways. (see 119:5, 26, 29, 59, 168). The word Precepts (פְּקֻדָּיִךְ) is used 21 times meaning to inspect or enumerate directing us to pay particular attention to the instruction of the Lord as one who cares about the details. The word Statutes (חֻקֵּיֶיךָ) is used 22 times meaning to “the binding force and permanence of God’s commands.” The word Commandments (מִצְוֹתֶיךָ) is used 22 times meaning “the authority of God’s Word” providing us with the written explanation of the righteousness of God for our lives. The word Judgments (מִשְׁפָּטֶיךָ) is used 23 times giving us the idea of justice as a part of the character of God and His people. The Lord will bring justice to our lives and repay those who hurt us. The Word (פְּדֻבְרֶיךָ) is used 23 times and is a reference to the spoken word of God to His people. This word is derived from the verb “to say” and has the nuance of of the promises of God for His people. The word Faithfulness (אֱמוּנָתְךָ) is cited in Tehillim / Psalms as faithfulness (119:90), righteousness (119:40), and as name (119:132). Summarizing these terms in the Psalm speaks of God’s authority, faithfulness, and love for His people. The reference to these words are not as a suggestion to live but that obedience to the Lord is not optional for us as believers. We study the Scriptures not simply for academic purposes, and we do not study to simply learn and follow what it says. We study the Scriptures in order to draw nearer to and seek the Lord God of Israel and His Messiah Yeshua. The word of God draws us to live a spiritual life (John 3:5; James 1:18; 1 Peter 1:23). The Word of God sustains us in this life, especially when our hearts grow cold due to living in this world. The Lord God of Israel is the author of life itself, His Word has life-giving power, both to bring the spiritually dead person to life and to renew the life of the faithful believer. These are the reason why we study God’s Word each Day!

Tehillim Psalms 119

119:21 You rebuke the arrogant, the cursed, Who wander from Your commandments. 119:22 Take away reproach and contempt from me, For I observe Your testimonies. 119:23 Even though princes sit and talk against me, Your servant meditates on Your statutes. 119:24 Your testimonies also are my delight; They are my counselors. 119:25 My soul cleaves to the dust; Revive me according to Your word. 119:26 I have told of my ways, and You have answered me; Teach me Your statutes. 119:27 Make me understand the way of Your precepts, So I will meditate on Your wonders. 119:28 My soul weeps because of grief; Strengthen me according to Your word. 119:29 Remove the false way from me, And graciously grant me Your law. 119:30 I have chosen the faithful way; I have placed Your ordinances before me. 119:31 I cling to Your testimonies; O Lord, do not put me to shame! 119:32 I shall run the way of Your commandments, For You will enlarge my heart. 119:33 Teach me, O Lord, the way of Your statutes, And I shall observe it to the end. 119:34 Give me understanding, that I may observe Your law And keep it with all my heart. 119:35 Make me walk in the path of Your commandments, For I delight in it. 119:36 Incline my heart to Your testimonies And not to dishonest gain. 119:37 Turn away my eyes from looking at vanity, And revive me in Your ways. 119:38 Establish Your word to Your servant, As that which produces reverence for You. 119:39 Turn away my reproach which I dread, For Your ordinances are good. 119:40 Behold, I long for Your precepts; Revive me through Your righteousness. Toviyah Psalms 119

119:21. You have rebuked the malicious; cursed are all who stray from your commandments. 119:22. Remove from me humiliation and shame; for I have kept your testimonies. 119:23. For leaders sit speaking against me; your servant is engaged in instruction of your decrees. 119:24. Also your testimonies are my delight, the source of my counsel. 119:25. My soul is joined to the dust; heal me according to your word. 119:26. I numbered my ways and you received my prayer; teach me your decrees. 119:27. Give me insight into the way of your commandments, and I will speak of your wonders. 119:28. My soul is grieved by weariness; sustain me according to your word. 119:29. Remove from me the path of lies; and [by] your Torah have compassion on me. 119:30. I have chosen the faithful path; I have placed your judgments [with me]. 119:31. I have joined myself to your testimonies, O Lord; do not make me ashamed. 119:32. I will run in the path of your commandments, for you will expand my heart. 119:33. Teach me, O Lord, the way of your decrees, and I will keep it totally. 119:34. Give me insight, and I will keep your Torah, O Lord; and I will keep it with a whole heart. 119:35. Make me walk in the course of your commandments, for I desire it. 119:36. Incline my heart to your testimonies, and not to money. 119:37. Turn my eyes away from the sight of deceit; by your words heal me. 119:38. Confirm your word to your servant, which [leads] to your worship. 119:39. Take away my reproach, which I fear, for your judgments are good. 119:40. Behold, I have yearned for your commandments; in your generosity heal me. (EMC)

Psalmoi Psalms 119

119:21 Thou has rebuked the proud; cursed are they that turn aside from thy commandments. 119:22 Remove from me reproach and contempt; for I have sought out thy testimonies. 119:23 For princes sat and spoke against me: but thy servant was meditating on thine ordinances. 119:24 For thy testimonies are my meditation, and thine ordinances are my counselors. 119:25 My soul has cleaved to the ground; quicken thou me according to thy word. 119:26 I declared my ways, and thou didst hear me: teach me thine ordinances. 119:27 Instruct me in the way of thine ordinances; and I will meditate on thy wondrous works. 119:28 My soul has slumbered for sorrow; strengthen thou me with thy words. 119:29 Remove from me the way of iniquity; and be merciful to me by thy law. 119:30 I have chosen the way of truth; and have not forgotten thy judgments. 119:31 I have cleaved to thy testimonies, O Lord; put me not to shame. 119:32 I ran the way of thy commandments, when thou didst enlarge my heart. 119:33 Teach me, O Lord, the way of thine ordinances, and I will seek it out continually. 119:34 Instruct me, and I will search out thy law, and will keep it with my whole heart. 119:35 Guide me in the path of thy commandments; for I have delighted in it. 119:36 Incline mine heart to thy testimonies, and not to covetousness. 119:37 Turn away mine eyes that I may not behold vanity: quicken thou me in thy way. 119:38 Confirm thine oracle to thy servant, that he may fear thee. 119:39 Take away my reproach which I have feared: for thy judgments are good. 119:40 Behold, I have desired thy commandments: quicken me in thy righteousness. (LXX)

Tehillim Psalms 119 119:41 May Your lovingkindnesses also come to me, O Lord, Your salvation according to Your word; 119:42 So I will have an answer for him who reproaches me, For I trust in Your word. 119:43 And do not take the word of truth utterly out of my mouth, For I wait for Your ordinances. 119:44 So I will keep Your law continually, Forever and ever. 119:45 And I will walk at liberty, For I seek Your precepts. 119:46 I will also speak of Your testimonies before kings And shall not be ashamed. 119:47 I shall delight in Your commandments, Which I love. 119:48 And I shall lift up my hands to Your commandments, Which I love; And I will meditate on Your statutes. 119:49 Remember the word to Your servant, In which You have made me hope. 119:50 This is my comfort in my affliction, That Your word has revived me. 119:51 The arrogant utterly deride me, Yet I do not turn aside from Your law. 119:52 I have remembered Your ordinances from of old, O Lord, And comfort myself. 119:53 Burning indignation has seized me because of the wicked, Who forsake Your law. 119:54 Your statutes are my songs In the house of my pilgrimage. 119:55 O Lord, I remember Your name in the night, And keep Your law. 119:56 This has become mine, That I observe Your precepts. 119:57 The Lord is my portion; I have promised to keep Your words. 119:58 I sought Your favor with all my heart; Be gracious to me according to Your word. 119:59 I considered my ways And turned my feet to Your testimonies. 119:60 I hastened and did not delay To keep Your commandments. (NASB)	Toviyah Psalms 119 119:41. And let your kindness come upon me, O Lord, your redemption in accordance with your word. 119:42. And I will give answer to those who mock me, for I have trusted in your word. 119:43. And do not remove the word of truth from my mouth utterly, for I have waited long for your judgments. 119:44. And I will keep your Torah always, for ages upon ages. 119:45. And I will walk in the wideness of the Torah, for I have sought your commandments. 119:46. I have prayed in your presence with a whole heart; have pity on me according to your word. 119:59. I have thought to improve my way, and I will turn my feet to your testimonies. 119:60. I was eager, and did not delay to keep your commandments. (EMC)	Psalmoi Psalms 119 119:41 And let thy mercy come upon me, O Lord; even thy salvation, according to thy word. 119:42 And so I shall render an answer to them that reproach me: for I have trusted in thy words. 119:43 And take not the word of truth utterly out of my mouth; for I have hoped in thy judgments. So shall I keep thy law continually, for ever and ever. 119:45 I walked also at large: for I sought out thy commandments. 119:46 And I spoke of thy testimonies before kings, and was not ashamed. 119:47 And I meditated on thy commandments, which I loved exceedingly. 119:48 And I lifted up my hands to thy commandments which I loved; and I meditated in thine ordinances. 119:49 Remember thy words to thy servant, wherein thou hast made me hope. 119:50 This has comforted me in mine affliction: for thine oracle has quickened me. 119:51 The proud have transgressed exceedingly; but I swerved not from thy law. 119:52 I remembered thy judgments of old, O Lord; and was comforted. 119:53 Despair took hold upon me, because of the sinners who forsake thy law. 119:54 Thine ordinances were my songs in the place of my sojourning. 119:55 I remembered thy name, O Lord, in the night, and kept thy law. 119:56 This I had, because I diligently sought thine ordinances. 119:57 Thou art my portion, O Lord: I said that I would keep thy law. 119:58 I besought thy favour with my whole heart: have mercy upon me according to thy word. 119:59 I thought on thy ways, and turned my feet to thy testimonies. 119:60 I prepared myself, (and was not terrified,) to keep thy commandments. Tehillim Psalms 119

119:61 The cords of the wicked have encircled me, But I have not forgotten Your law. 119:62 At midnight I shall rise to give thanks to You Because of Your righteous ordinances. 119:63 I am a companion of all those who fear You, And of those who keep Your precepts. 119:64 The earth is full of Your lovingkindness, O Lord; Teach me Your statutes. 119:65 You have dealt well with Your servant, O Lord, according to Your word. 119:66 Teach me good discernment and knowledge, For I believe in Your commandments. 119:67 Before I was afflicted I went astray, But now I keep Your word. 119:68 You are good and do good; Teach me Your statutes. 119:69 The arrogant have forged a lie against me; With all my heart I will observe Your precepts. 119:70 Their heart is covered with fat, But I delight in Your law. 119:71 It is good for me that I was afflicted, That I may learn Your statutes. 119:72 The law of Your mouth is better to me Than thousands of gold and silver pieces. 119:73 Your hands made me and fashioned me; Give me understanding, that I may learn Your commandments. 119:74 May those who fear You see me and be glad, Because I wait for Your word. 119:75 I know, O Lord, that Your judgments are righteous, And that in faithfulness You have afflicted me. 119:76 O may Your lovingkindness comfort me, According to Your word to Your servant. 119:77 May Your compassion come to me that I may live, For Your law is my delight. 119:78 May the arrogant be ashamed, for they subvert me with a lie; But I shall meditate on Your precepts. 119:79 May those who fear You turn to me, Even those who know Your testimonies. 119:80 May my heart be blameless in Your statutes, So that I will not be ashamed. (NASB)

Toviyah Psalms 119

119:61. The band of wicked men has gathered against me; I have not forgotten your Torah. 119:62. In the middle of the night I will rise to sing praise in your presence, for the sake of your righteous judgments. 119:63. I am a companion to all who revere you, and to those who keep your commandments. 119:64. Your goodness, O Lord, fills the earth; teach me your decrees. 119:65. You have shown goodness to your servant, O Lord, according to your words. 119:66. Teach me good sense and knowledge, for I have believed in your commandments. 119:67. Before I was afflicted, I was in error, but now I have kept your word. 119:68. You are good, and do good; teach me your decrees. 119:69. The malicious have shouted me down with lies; I will keep your commandments with a whole heart. 119:70. The impulse of their heart is dulled as with fat; as for me, my delight is your Torah. 119:71. It is good for me, for I was humbled, so that I might learn your decrees. 119:72. Better for me is the Torah of your mouth, than a thousand talents of gold and silver. 119:73. Your hands made me and established me; give me insight and I will learn your commandments. 119:74. Those who fear you will see me and be glad; for I have waited long for your word. 119:75. I know, O Lord, for your judgments are righteous and you have afflicted me in truth. 119:76. Now let your kindness be for my comfort, according to your word to your servant. 119:77. Let your mercies come to me and I will live; for your Torah is my delight. 119:78. The arrogant will be ashamed, for they twisted a lie against me; I will speak of your commandments. 119:79. Those who fear you will turn to my teaching, and those who know your testimonies. 119:80. Let my heart be without blemish in your decrees, so that I may not be ashamed. (EMC)

Psalmoi Psalms 119

119:61 The snares of sinners entangled me: but I forgot not thy law. 119:62 At midnight I arose, to give thanks to thee for the judgments of thy righteousness. 119:63 I am a companion of all them that fear thee, and of them that keep thy commandments. 119:64 O Lord, the earth is full of thy mercy: teach me thine ordinances. 119:65 Thou hast wrought kindly with thy servant, o Lord, according to thy word. 119:66 Teach me kindness, and instruction, and knowledge: for I have believed thy commandments. 119:67 Before I was afflicted, I transgressed; therefore have I kept thy word. 119:68 Good art thou, O Lord; therefore in thy goodness teach me thine ordinances. 119:69 The injustice of the proud has been multiplied against me: but I will search out thy commandments with all my heart. 119:70 Their heart has been curdled like milk; but I have meditated on thy law. 119:71 It is good for me that thou hast afflicted me; that I might learn thine ordinances. 119:72 The law of thy mouth is better to me than thousands of gold and silver. 119:73 Thy hands have made me, and fashioned me: instruct me, that I may learn thy commandments. 119:74 They that fear thee will see me and rejoice: for I have hoped in thy words. 119:75 I know, O Lord, that thy judgments are righteousness, and that thou in truthfulness hast afflicted me. 119:76 Let, I pray thee, thy mercy be to comfort me, according to thy word to thy servant. 119:77 Let thy compassions come to me, that I may live: for thy law is my meditation. 119:78 Let the proud be ashamed; for they transgressed against me unjustly: but I will meditate in thy commandments. 119:79 Let those that fear thee, and those that know thy testimonies, turn to me. 119:80 Let mine heart be blameless in thine ordinances, that I may not be ashamed. Tehillim Psalms 119

119:81 My soul languishes for Your salvation; I wait for Your word. 119:82 My eyes fail with longing for Your word, While I say, ‘When will You comfort me?’ 119:83 Though I have become like a wineskin in the smoke, I do not forget Your statutes. 119:84 How many are the days of Your servant? When will You execute judgment on those who persecute me? 119:85 The arrogant have dug pits for me, Men who are not in accord with Your law. 119:86 All Your commandments are faithful; They have persecuted me with a lie; help me! 119:87 They almost destroyed me on earth, But as for me, I did not forsake Your precepts. 119:88 Revive me according to Your lovingkindness, So that I may keep the testimony of Your mouth. 119:89 Forever, O Lord, Your word is settled in heaven. 119:90 Your faithfulness continues throughout all generations; You established the earth, and it stands. 119:91 They stand this day according to Your ordinances, For all things are Your servants. 119:92 If Your law had not been my delight, Then I would have perished in my affliction. 119:93 I will never forget Your precepts, For by them You have revived me. 119:94 I am Yours, save me; For I have sought Your precepts. 119:95 The wicked wait for me to destroy me; I shall diligently consider Your testimonies. 119:96 I have seen a limit to all perfection; Your commandment is exceedingly broad. 119:97 O how I love Your law! It is my meditation all the day. 119:98 Your commandments make me wiser than my enemies, For they are ever mine. 119:99 I have more insight than all my teachers, For Your testimonies are my meditation. 119:100 I understand more than the aged, Because I have observed Your precepts. (NASB)

Toviyah Psalms 119

119:81. My soul has yearned for your redemption; I have waited long for your word. 119:82. My eyes are spent for your word, saying, “When will you comfort me?” 119:83. For I have become like a water-skin that hangs in the smoke; your decrees I have not forgotten. 119:84. How many are the days of your servant? When will you pass judgment on my persecutors? 119:85. The malicious have dug pits for me, that you have not commanded them in your Torah. 119:86. All your commandments are truth; for a lie they persecuted me, help me! 119:87. They almost destroyed me in the land; but I have not forsaken your commandments. 119:88. Sustain me according to your kindness, and I will keep the testimony of your mouth. 119:89. Forever, O Lord, your word endures in heaven. 119:90. Your faithfulness is to every generation; you established the earth and it endures. 119:91. This day have they risen for your judgments, for all of them are your servants. 119:92. Had your Torah not been my delight, then I would have perished in my affliction. 119:93. I will never forget your commandments, for you have sustained me by them. 119:94. For I am yours, redeem me; for I have sought after your commandments. 119:95. The wicked waited for me to annihilate me; I will contemplate your commandments. 119:96. To everything that began and ended I have seen an end; your commands are very spacious. 119:97. How I have loved your Torah! It is my conversation all day. 119:98. Your commandments make me wiser than my enemies; because it is always mine. 119:99. I have understood more than all my teachers; for your testimonies are my conversation. 119:100. I will have greater insight than the wise, for I have kept your commandments. (EMC)

Psalmoi Psalms 119

119:81 My soul faints for thy salvation: I have hoped in thy words. 119:82 Mine eyes failed in waiting for thy word, saying, When wilt thou comfort me? 119:83 For I am become as a bottle in the frost: yet I have not forgotten thine ordinances. 119:84 How many are the days of thy servant? when wilt thou execute judgment for me on them that persecute me? 119:85 Transgressors told me idle tales; but not according to thy law, O Lord. 119:86 All thy commandments are truth; they persecuted me unjustly; help thou me. 119:87 They nearly made an end of me in the earth; but I forsook not thy commandments. 119:88 Quicken me according to thy mercy; so shall I keep the testimonies of thy mouth. 119:89 Thy word, O Lord, abides in heaven for ever. 119:90 Thy truth endures to all generations; thou hast founded the earth, and it abides. 119:91 The day continues by thy arrangement; for all things are thy servants. 119:92 Were it not that thy law is my meditation, then I should have perished in mine affliction. 119:93 I will never forget thine ordinances; for with them thou hast quickened me. 119:94 I am thine, save me; for I have sought out thine ordinances. 119:95 Sinners laid wait for me to destroy me; but I understood thy testimonies. 119:96 I have seen an end of all perfection; but thy commandment is very broad. 119:97 How I have loved thy law, O Lord! it is my meditation all the day. 119:98 Thou hast made me wiser than mine enemies in thy commandment; for it is mine for ever. 119:99 I have more understanding than all my teachers; for thy testimonies are my medication. 119:100 I understand more than the aged; because I have sought out thy commandments. Tehillim Psalms 119

119:101 I have restrained my feet from every evil way, That I may keep Your word. 119:102 I have not turned aside from Your ordinances, For You Yourself have taught me. 119:103 How sweet are Your words to my taste! Yes, sweeter than honey to my mouth! 119:104 From Your precepts I get understanding; Therefore I hate every false way. 119:105 Your word is a lamp to my feet And a light to my path. 119:106 I have sworn and I will confirm it, That I will keep Your righteous ordinances. 119:107 I am exceedingly afflicted; Revive me, O Lord, according to Your word. 119:108 O accept the freewill offerings of my mouth, O Lord, And teach me Your ordinances. 119:109 My life is continually in my hand, Yet I do not forget Your law. 119:110 The wicked have laid a snare for me, Yet I have not gone astray from Your precepts. 119:111 I have inherited Your testimonies forever, For they are the joy of my heart. 119:112 I have inclined my heart to perform Your statutes Forever, even to the end. 119:113 I hate those who are double-minded, But I love Your law. 119:114 You are my hiding place and my shield; I wait for Your word. 119:115 Depart from me, evildoers, That I may observe the commandments of my God. 119:116 Sustain me according to Your word, that I may live; And do not let me be ashamed of my hope. 119:117 Uphold me that I may be safe, That I may have regard for Your statutes continually. 119:118 You have rejected all those who wander from Your statutes, For their deceitfulness is useless. 119:119 You have removed all the wicked of the earth like dross; Therefore I love Your testimonies. 119:120 My flesh trembles for fear of You, And I am afraid of Your judgments. (NASB)

Toviyah Psalms 119

119:101. I have kept my feet from every evil way, so that I may keep your words. 119:102. I have not gone away from your judgments, for you have taught me. 119:103. How sweet to my palate are your words; sweeter by far than honey to my mouth. 119:104. I will gain insight from your commandments; because of this, I hate every son of man who lies. 119:105. Your words are like a lamp that illuminates my feet, and a light for my path. 119:106. I have sworn and covenanted to keep the commandments of your righteousness. 119:107. I was greatly afflicted, O Lord; heal me according to your words. 119:108. Be pleased now, O Lord, with the offerings of my mouth; and teach me your judgments. 119:109. My soul is always in danger by my own hands; but I have not forgotten your Torah. 119:110. The wicked have arranged a trap for me; but I have not strayed from your commandments. 119:111. I have inherited your testimonies forever; for they are the joy of my heart. 119:112. I have inclined my heart to do your decrees forever, to the very end. 119:113. I hate those who think vain thoughts, but I have loved your Torah. 119:114. You are my hiding place and my shield; I have waited long for your word. 119:115. Turn from me, evildoers; and I will keep the commandments of my God. 119:116. Support me by your word, and I will live; and do not disappoint me because of my trust. 119:117. Help me and I will be redeemed; and I will be happy in your Torah always. 119:118. You have subdued all who went astray from your decrees; for their deceit is a lie. 119:119. You have terminated all the unfit, you have frustrated all the wicked of the earth; because of this, I have loved your testimonies. 119:120. My flesh is blushing for fear of you; and I am afraid of your judgments. (EMC)

Psalmoi Psalms 119

119:101 I have kept back my feet from every evil way, that I might keep thy words. 119:102 I have not declined from thy judgments; for thou hast instructed me. 119:103 How sweet are thine oracles to my throat! more so than honey to my mouth! 119:104 I gain understanding by thy commandments: therefore I have hated every way of unrighteousness. 119:105 Thy law is a lamp to my feet, and a light to my paths. 119:106 I have sworn and determined to keep the judgments of thy righteousness. 119:107 I have been very greatly afflicted, O Lord: quicken me, according to thy word. 119:108 Accept, I pray thee, O Lord, the freewill-offerings of my mouth, and teach me thy judgments. 119:109 My soul is continually in thine hands; and I have not forgotten thy law. 119:110 Sinners spread a snare for me; but I erred not from thy commandments. 111 I have inherited thy testimonies for ever; for they are the joy of my heart. 119:112 I have inclined my heart to perform thine ordinances for ever, in return for thy mercies. 119:113 I have hated transgressors; but I have loved thy law. 119:114 Thou art my helper and my supporter; I have hoped in thy words. 119:115 Depart from me, ye evil-doers; for I will search out the commandments of my God. 119:116 Uphold me according to thy word, and quicken me; and make me not ashamed of my expectation. 119:117 Help me, and I shall be saved; and I will meditate in thine ordinances continually. 119:118 Thou hast brought to nought all that depart from thine ordinances; for their inward thought is unrighteous. 119:119 I have reckoned all the sinners of the earth as transgressors; therefore have I loved thy testimonies. 119:120 Penetrate my flesh with thy fear; for I am afraid of thy judgments. Tehillim Psalms 119

119:141 I am small and despised, Yet I do not forget Your precepts. 119:142 Your righteousness is an everlasting righteousness, And Your law is truth. 119:143 Trouble and anguish have come upon me, Yet Your commandments are my delight. 119:144 Your testimonies are righteous forever; Give me understanding that I may live. 119:145 I cried with all my heart; answer me, O Lord! I will observe Your statutes. 119:146 I cried to You; save me And I shall keep Your testimonies. 119:147 I rise before dawn and cry for help; I wait for Your words. 119:148 My eyes anticipate the night watches, That I may meditate on Your word. 119:149 Hear my voice according to Your lovingkindness; Revive me, O Lord, according to Your ordinances. 119:150 Those who follow after wickedness draw near; They are far from Your law. 119:151 You are near, O Lord, And all Your commandments are truth. 119:152 Of old I have known from Your testimonies That You have founded them forever. 119:153 Look upon my affliction and rescue me, For I do not forget Your law. 119:154 Plead my cause and redeem me; Revive me according to Your word. 119:155 Salvation is far from the wicked, For they do not seek Your statutes. 119:156 Great are Your mercies, O Lord; Revive me according to Your ordinances. 119:157 Many are my persecutors and my adversaries, Yet I do not turn aside from Your testimonies. 119:158 I behold the treacherous and loathe them, Because they do not keep Your word. 119:159 Consider how I love Your precepts; Revive me, O Lord, according to Your lovingkindness. 119:160 The sum of Your word is truth, And every one of Your righteous ordinances is everlasting. Toviyah Psalms 119

119:141. I am small and despised; I have not forgotten your commandments. 119:142. Your generosity is righteousness forever, and your Torah is truth. 119:143. Trouble and the oppressor have befallen me; your commandments are my delight. 119:144. Your testimonies are righteousness forever; give me insight and I will endure. 119:145. I have called with a whole heart; answer me, O Lord! I will keep your decrees. 119:146. I have called you, redeem me; and I will keep your testimonies. 119:147. I have risen early at dawn, and prayed; I have waited long for your word. 119:148. My eyes have preceded the watches of morning and evening to speak of your word. 119:149. Hear my voice in accordance with your kindness, O Lord; sustain me according to your judgments. 119:150. Those who pursue fornication have drawn near; they have gone far from your Torah. 119:151. You are near, O Lord, and all your commandments are truth. 119:152. Long ago I grew wise from your testimonies, for you founded them forever. 119:153. See my affliction and deliver me; for I have not forgotten your Torah. 119:154. Argue my case and redeem me; heal me for your word. 119:155. Redemption is far from the wicked; for they have not sought your decrees. 119:156. Your mercies are many, O Lord; heal me according to your judgments. 119:157. Those who pursue me and oppress me are many; I have not turned away from your testimonies. 119:158. I saw despoilers and I contended with them, who have not kept your word. 119:159. See [this], for I have loved your commandments; O Lord, according to your kindness heal me. 119:160. The beginning of your word is truth; and all the judgments of your righteousness are forever. Psalmoi Psalms 119

119:141 I am young and despised: yet I have not forgotten thine ordinances. 119:142 Thy righteousness is an everlasting righteousness, and thy law is truth. 119:143 Afflictions and distresses found me: but thy commandments were my meditation. 119:144 Thy testimonies are an everlasting righteousness: instruct me, and I shall live. 119:145 I cried with my whole heart; hear me, O Lord: I will search out thine ordinances. 119:146 I cried to thee; save me, and I will keep thy testimonies. 119:147 I arose before the dawn, and cried: I hoped in thy words. 119:148 Mine eyes prevented the dawn, that I might meditate on thine oracles. 119:149 Hear my voice, O Lord, according to thy mercy; quicken me according to thy judgment. 119:150 They have drawn nigh who persecuted me unlawfully; and they are far removed from thy law. 119:151 Thou art near, O Lord; and all thy ways are truth. 119:152 I have known of old concerning thy testimonies, that thou hast founded them for ever. 119:153 Look upon mine affliction, and rescue me; for I have not forgotten thy law. 119:154 Plead my cause, and ransom me: quicken me because of thy word. 119:155 Salvation is far from sinners: for they have not searched out thine ordinances. 119:156 Thy mercies, O Lord, are many: quicken me according to thy judgment. 119:157 Many are they that persecute me and oppress me: but I have not declined from thy testimonies. 119:158 I beheld men acting foolishly, and I pined away; for they kept not thine oracles. 119:159 Behold, I have loved thy commandments, O Lord: quicken me in thy mercy. 119:160 The beginning of thy words is truth; and all the judgments of thy righteousness endure for ever. א אֲשֶׁרִי תְּמִימֵי-דָרְךָ הֵהֲלָכִים בְּתוֹרַת יְהוָה: ב אֲשֶׁרִי נִצְרִי עֲדֹתָיו, Tehillim / Psalms 119 opens saying, 119:1 How blessed are those whose way is blameless, Who walk in the law of the Lord. 119:2 How blessed are those who observe His testimonies, Who seek Him with all their heart. (NASB) The Aramaic Targum states, א וביהון דשלימי אורחא דמהלכין באוריתא דיהוה: ב טוביהון דנטרי סהידותיה בכל, 19:1 How happy are the perfect of way, who walk in the Torah of the Lord. 119:2 How happy those who keep his testimony; with a whole heart they will seek his instruction. (EMC) The psalmist states the one whose way is blameless is blessed, and says this is the one who walks in the Torah of the Lord. It is interesting how much of a contrast this is to modern day theologies being taught in the Christian church today. The psalmist however claims the Law of God (Torah) is a favorable approach to being blessed of God and living a blessed life. The correct translation of the word Torah is “instruction” or “revelation,” as in “God’s instruction,” or “the revelation from God.” This is how the Torah is presented in Judaism due to the root word יָרָה meaning “to teach.” The Torah is the revelation of the character of God as well as His instruction of what is to come for the life of one who places his faith and trust in Him. The Torah is God’s instruction on how those who place their faith and trust in Him, either Jew or Gentile, are to live so that all will be well with him (Devarim / Deuteronomy 4:40). The Torah says (Shemot / Exodus 12:48-49, Vayikra / Leviticus 24:22, Isaiah 56) that God’s instructions are not just for the Jewish people. The prophetic visions of Isaiah (Isaiah 2) speak of this truth, where the Gentiles who choose to be a part of God’s people will live by His truth. This is a consistent theme throughout the Apostolic Writings. The Lord chose to reveal His ways through the Jewish people, they were to be a light to the world and bring this revelation of God to the nations. Yeshua reminds us of this in the words he spoke in Matthew 5. These things are consistent with Tehillim / Psalms 119:159 which states “Consider how I love your precepts; revive me and give life to me, O Lord, according to your loving kindness.” David’s words in Tehillim / Psalms 119 speak of his asking for salvation, and that the Lord would give him life, so that he could follow in the way of the Lord according to His Torah. The Lord Judged David based upon his faithfulness to the Lord and his desire to walk in His ways. The Lord did not judge David in his ability to keep every point of the Law. Nobody has ever been “saved” (given life) by their ability to keep Torah, nor has that ever been an option for salvation. The idea that the Torah-based Judaism taught that someone may be saved by obeying the Torah is a false teaching. Throughout the church age, it has been taught that Judaism is a works based faith. The error of the Jewish leaders in Yeshua’s time illustrate that not everyone will have faith in Yeshua as the Messiah. One of the arguments from Judaism against Christianity was the absence of the Torah centric teaching that we are to live our lives based upon God’s righteous way of living. Paul wrote “Let God be true but every man be a liar” in Romans 3:4. The only thing that is “right,” is what the Lord God of Israel Himself has established. The conclusion, based upon what David writes in Tehillim / Psalms 119:1-2 is that faith and the desire to follow His Torah are inseparable according to God. This truth is established in God’s Words to Moshe according to Devarim / Deuteronomy 10:12 (“to fear Him, walk in His ways, to love Him and to serve Him with all your heart and soul”) “His ways” were given in the Torah. The author of Hebrews 10:38 writes we cannot walk in His ways (following the Torah) without faith. This is a very important point, that faith and Torah observance go hand in hand. The Lord had given His instruction for us out of His mercy and His love for us. There are several related reasons for His giving us His instructions in this way.

- Provide guidance to man in regards to sin.
- To reveal to man the righteous ways of God. (Romans 7:12)
- To show man how he falls short of God’s holiness and righteousness.
- To direct man to the God of Israel and to His Messiah, the One in whom we trust for salvation א אֲשֶׁרִי תְּמִימֵי-דָרְךָ, 119:1 How blessed are those whose way is blameless, Who walk in the law of the Lord. 119:2 How blessed are those who observe His testimonies, Who seek Him with all their heart. (NASB) is that the Torah was given to show man how to live for God, to walk in the way of God such that one's way is blameless, and to humble our hearts and our lives to take upon His testimonies for His glory. Do you love the Lord enough to humble your life for His glory? This is a topic that is not taught in the church today. The fact that we have faith in Yeshua does not void what the Torah says about how we should be living our lives. Christianity teaches that we do not have to follow the Torah, as Jesus nullified its specifics by summarizing everything in the two commandments that He gave in the book of Matthew. Instead of following God's revelation (the Torah), Christianity says we now have "liberty from the Law," and we now follow something called "the law of love" or "the law of Christ." Christianity says we are now "led by the Spirit" and no longer subject to "the Law." This teaching is contrary to what the Scriptures are saying here in Tehillim / Psalms 119, where being led by the Spirit we will walk in God's ways of righteousness and holiness. The theologies that teach this misrepresentation of God's truth, use various Scriptures from the Apostolic Writings such as what Paul wrote in Philippians 3.

Philippians 3:1-12

3:1 Finally, my brethren, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things again is no trouble to me, and it is a safeguard for you. 3:2 Beware of the dogs, beware of the evil workers, beware of the false circumcision; 3:3 for we are the true circumcision, who worship in the Spirit of God and glory in Christ Jesus and put no confidence in the flesh, 3:4 although I myself might have confidence even in the flesh. If anyone else has a mind to put confidence in the flesh, I far more: 3:5 circumcised the eighth day, of the nation of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; as to the Law, a Pharisee; 3:6 as to zeal, a persecutor of the church; as to the righteousness which is in the Law, found blameless. 3:7 But whatever things were gain to me, those things I have counted as loss for the sake of Christ. 3:8 More than that, I count all things to be loss in view of the surpassing value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord, for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and count them but rubbish so that I may gain Christ, 3:9 and may be found in Him, not having a righteousness of my own derived from the Law, but that which is through faith in Christ, the righteousness which comes from God on the basis of faith, 3:10 that I may know Him and the power of His resurrection and the fellowship of His sufferings, being conformed to His death; 3:11 in order that I may attain to the resurrection from the dead. 3:12 Not that I have already obtained it or have already become perfect, but I press on so that I may lay hold of that for which also I was laid hold of by Christ Jesus. (NASB)

The point Paul is trying to make is in regards to relying upon the flesh as opposed to faith in the spirit. We do not obey God's Torah for the purpose of earning merit towards the Olam Habah (World to Come). We read in Devarim / Deuteronomy 30:11-14, "For this commandment which I command you today is not too mysterious for you, nor is it far off. It is not in heaven, that you should say, 'Who will ascend into heaven for us and bring it to us, that we may hear it and do it?' Nor is it beyond the sea, that you should say, 'Who will go over the sea for us and bring it to us, that we may hear it and do it.' But the word is very near to you, in your mouth and in your heart, that you may do it." The Lord God Himself makes it clear, He told His people that the Law was not too hard for them to follow. However, due to the weakness of man, we all fall short and fail to wholly keep the way of God perfectly. Because of this we do not trust in our deeds, but in the mercy of God by faith. For this reason the Lord brought His Messiah to save us from our sins, to live a perfect life, and to lay his life down for ours. This is what Paul meant saying, 3:8 More than that, I count all things to be loss in view of the surpassing value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord, for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and count them but rubbish so that I may gain Christ, 3:9 and may be found in Him, not having a righteousness of my own derived from the Law, but that which is through faith in Christ, the righteousness which comes from God on the basis of faith (NASB) The faith that Paul speaks of having in Yeshua does not void what the Torah says about how we should be living our lives. Paul is saying we do not live our lives according to the Torah for the purpose of self righteousness. This is why David said what he did in the Psalms, saying, אָף לֹא-פָעַלְנוּ עֹלָה בְּדַרְכֵינוּ הִלְכּוּ: ד אַתָּה צְוִייתָהּ פְּקֻדֶיךָ לְשֹׁמֵר מֵאִד: ה אֲחֵלֵי יִכְנוּ: ח אֶת-חֻקֶיךָ דָּרְכֵי לְשֹׁמֵר חֻקֶיךָ: ו אַז לֹא-אַבּוֹשׁ בְּהִבִּטִי אֶל-כָּל-מִצְוֹתֶיךָ: ז אִוְדָה בְּיֶשֶׁר לִבִּי בְּלִמְדֵי מִשְׁפָּטֶי צְדָקָה: ח אֶת-חֻקֶיךָ: י אֲנִי אֶשְׁמֵר אֶל-תַּעֲזֹבֵנִי עַד-מֵאִד: 119:3 They also do no unrighteousness; They walk in His ways. 119:4 You have ordained Your precepts, That we should keep them diligently. 119:5 Oh that my ways may be established To keep Your statutes! 119:6 Then I shall not be ashamed When I look upon all Your commandments. 119:7 I shall give thanks to You with uprightness of heart, When I learn Your righteous judgments. 119:8 I shall keep Your statutes; Do not forsake me utterly! (NASB) We learn to live righteously by observing how Yeshua lived His life according to the Gospels in the Apostolic Writings. Yeshua lived his life for the Lord according to the Torah and provides us with the example to do the same. Notice how David says those whose way is blameless will do no unrighteousness because they walk in God's ways. The definition of righteousness and unrighteousness is based upon whether one obeys or violates God's Law. The one who walks in the Spirit walks in God's ways. The Apostle Paul wrote in Romans 7:11 for sin, taking an opportunity through the commandment, deceived me and through it killed me. 7:12 So then, the Law is holy, and the commandment is holy and righteous and good. 7:13 Therefore did that which is good become a cause of death for me? May it never be! Rather it was sin, in order that it might be shown to be sin by effecting my death through that which is good, so that through the commandment sin would become utterly sinful. (NASB) Paul states that God's Torah, His mitzvot (commandments) are holy, righteous, and good. In his commentary on the Torah, he states that it was sin that took opportunity against the commandment to deceive him. It was not the Law of God that deceived him. Look closely at Romans 7:13, he says that which is good (the Torah command) did NOT cause him death. The Law is not what caused him to die. It was sin, in order that it might be show to be sin by effecting his death through that which is good so that sin would become utterly sinful through the commandment of God. The idea here is because of sin Paul died, not because of the commandment which is holy, righteous, and good. This is why David calls out to God saying, אֲחֵלֵי יִכְנוּ: ה אֶת-חֻקֶיךָ: ו אֲנִי אֶשְׁמֵר חֻקֶיךָ: ז אִוְדָה בְּיֶשֶׁר לִבִּי בְּלִמְדֵי מִשְׁפָּטֶי צְדָקָה: ח אֶת-חֻקֶיךָ: י אֲנִי אֶשְׁמֵר אֶל-תַּעֲזֹבֵנִי עַד-מֵאִד: 119:5 Oh that my ways may be established To keep Your statutes! 119:6 Then I shall not be ashamed When I look upon all Your commandments. (NASB) David asked the Lord to establish his ways to keep His statutes so that he would not be ashamed to look upon the commands of God. Can you see the parallel in Devarim / Deuteronomy 39:15-17, "See, I have set before you today life and good, death and evil, in that I command you today to love the Lord your God, to walk in His ways, and to keep His commandments, His statutes, and His judgments, that you may live and multiply; and the Lord your God will bless you in the land which you go to possess. But if your hearts turn away so that you do not hear, you shall surely perish ..." The point is faith comes first and is tied to obedience. Here we find the Lord commanding us to love Him, and to have faith and trust in Him, which then is followed by walking in His ways (obeying Torah). Moshe also says if your hearts turn away (lack of faith) you will perish. The Lord God of Israel's view of faith is not void of our responsibility and action. It is a matter of believing by faith and then living out our faith because of our great love for Him.

This is why David asked the question, בְּמָה יִזְכֶּה-נִעֲר אֶת-אַרְחוֹ לְשֹׁמֵר בְּדַרְכֶּךָ: ט 119:9 How can a young man keep his way pure? By keeping it according to Your word. (NASB) This is what faith leads us to do, to seek the Lord God for help to keep our way pure, righteous, holy, and true to His word. This is the struggle that all true believers face, the war that is taking place between the spirit and the flesh. In this struggle we find the duality of the Torah and its multiplicity of purpose. One function of the Torah is to show man how sinful he is and that he stands condemned before a righteous God. This is not all the Torah does however because it leads us to seek the Lord God of Israel, as the Torah describes at His Tabernacle with the atoning sacrifice. Only by trusting in God for His salvation, and purposing our life in Teshuvah (Repentance) to walk in His ways are we able to escape judgment (1 John 2:4). Reading the Apostolic Writings with a Torah centric understanding of where Paul was coming from, eliminates the conflicts caused by the modern theologies which teach contradictory statements about “the Law.” Paul taught against the idea of self righteousness that is found in obeying God’s Torah. The major point is we do not justify ourselves through obedience to the Torah. Our justification comes by faith, were we are called to humble our lives to obedience to the Messiah, which is synonymous to walking in the spirit through obedience to God’s Word so as not to sin before God. The Lord gives us His Spirit to empower us to overcome the flesh and walk in God’s ways.

David said, בְּכָל-לְבַי דָּרָשְׁתִּיךָ אֶל-תִּשְׁגָּנִי מִמִּצְוֹתֶיךָ: יֵא בְּלִבִּי צָפַנְתִּי אִמְרֹתֶיךָ לְמַעַן לֹא אֶחָטָא-לָךְ: יב
 בְּרוּךְ אַתָּה יְהוָה לְמַדְנִי חֻקֶיךָ: יג בְּשִׂפְתַי סִפַּרְתִּי כָּל מִשְׁפָּטֵי-כִיֶּיךָ: יד בְּדַרְךָ יְעֹדְתִיךָ שִׁשְׁתִּי כַּעַל כָּל-הוֹן: טו בְּפִי-
 119:10 With all my heart I have sought You; Do not let me wander from Your commandments. 119:11 Your word I have treasured in my heart, That I may not sin against You. 119:12 Blessed are You, O Lord; Teach me Your statutes. 119:13 With my lips I have told of All the ordinances of Your mouth. 119:14 I have rejoiced in the way of Your testimonies, As much as in all riches. 119:15 I will meditate on Your precepts And regard Your ways. 119:16 I shall delight in Your statutes; I shall not forget Your word. (NASB) David asks the Lord to keep him from wandering from his commandments. What is important to know here is that the Torah itself is not a curse, rather, sin brings the curse through disobedience. When Paul wrote to the Galatians about the curse of the Law, the “curse of the law” and its function of being “a tutor” (Galatians 3:24), apply to those who have not yet placed their faith in the God of Israel. Christianity incorrectly teaches that when Paul spoke of the Law serving as a guardian before Yeshua, he was saying that it held the Jews, under the Law of Moses, in bondage until Yeshua came and died. This is a biased misinterpretation of the Scriptures, as God does not change. (Note this false teaching comes directly from the theology of dispensationalism.) What Paul is saying is that in the life of every living person the Torah functions as a tutor before they come to Messiah. After a person comes to trust in Yeshua, those two particular aspects of the Torah cease, that of being a guardian and a curse. The Torah’s role as God’s revelation to His people as a way of life does not cease. The Lord wants us to continue to live for Him because he has sanctified us, set us apart, and made us holy by faith in the Messiah Yeshua. This being set apart as holy leads us to understand the Torah is a way of living for God, so all will be well with you. This is the other side of the duality of the Torah as a blessing and guide for us to live. If we sin and live in un-repentance the other side of the Torah as a curse will come upon our lives whether one believes in Yeshua or not. This is the revelation of God according to His word and the Church today does not teach this truth. David says, 119:11 Your word I have treasured in my heart, That I may not sin against You. 119:12 Blessed are You, O Lord; Teach me Your statutes. (NASB) speaking of this goodness that is found in God’s Word. We seek to live out this goodness in the Messiah Yeshua. If we choose to live in sin in un-repentance, meaning that we do not seek to turn from sin, there is nothing left but the curse of unfaithfulness.

For the one who loves the Lord to humble his life to obedience to God’s Word, the psalmist states saying the following, טז בְּחַקְתִּיךָ אֲשַׁתְּעֶשְׂע לֹא אֲשַׁכַּח דְּבָרְךָ: יז גָּמַל עַל-עֲבֹדָה אֶחָיָה וְאֲשַׁמְרָה דְּבָרְךָ: יח גַּל-
 עֵינַי וְאֶבְיֹטָה נִפְלְאוֹת מִתּוֹרֹתֶיךָ: יט גַּר אֲנֹכִי בְּאֶרֶץ אֶל-תִּסְתֵּר מִמֶּנִּי מִצְוֹתֶיךָ: כ גָּרְסָה נַפְשִׁי לְתַאֲבָה אֶל-מִשְׁפָּטֶיךָ
 119:17 Deal bountifully with Your servant, That I may live and keep Your word. 119:18 Open my eyes, that I may behold Wonderful things from Your law. 119:19 I am a stranger in the earth; Do not hide Your commandments from me. 119:20 My soul is crushed with longing After Your ordinances at all times. 119:21 You rebuke the arrogant, the cursed, Who wander from Your commandments. 119:22 Take away reproach and contempt from me, For I observe Your testimonies. (NASB) Note how the servant of the Lord who truly desires the Lord’s help to live for Him, will seek the Lord’s help to keep God’s Word in his life. The Psalm speaks of the Hebrew view of faith as not just “believing” in God, as some would teach. Our faith in Yeshua is not just about asking for salvation and that is the end of it. The theology that is found in the church today seems to follow this type of approach to faith and belief in God with little to no emphasis upon what God expects of us as His children. Even demons believe in God (James 2:19) and know who Yeshua is (Matthew 8:29). We are called to repentance (Teshuvah) and to have faith, meaning that we turn from our sin and walk in God’s ways. Upon repenting, we are now to look at the Torah as our “how-to guide” regarding God’s will for our lives. The entire Torah is the “Law of Liberty” that James spoke of saying we are to live it. (James 1:25 and

2:12) We are not to pick and choose which Torah commandments we want to follow either (James 2:10-11). Here lies the problem with the Christian interpretation of the bible. The issue is in the definition of faith, Christianity pays little attention to the Hebrew Bible, including the verse from the Apostolic writings which speak of faith that is coupled to our actions. The Hebrew understanding of faith is what James writes in his book saying, James 2:24 “You see that a person is justified by what he does and not by faith alone.” (NASB) The evangelical Protestant denominations have much difficulty explaining these parts of the book of James.

Throughout history and today, the church interprets Scripture through a anti-Torah bias which results in a confused Christian view of the believer’s relationship to the Torah. As a result, modern theologies teach that Paul is saying we who have “faith in Jesus” we’re no longer “under the Law,” therefore the Law has been done away with. This is a very confused theology as Christianity itself recognizes that some parts of “the Law” remain. This is why we must diligently study God’s Torah and seek His help for what the Psalmist states, גל-עֵינַי וְאֶבִיטָה נִפְלְאוֹת מִתּוֹרַתְךָ: 119:18 Open my eyes, that I may behold Wonderful things from Your Torah (מִתּוֹרַתְךָ, law). (NASB) The psalmist seeks the Lord to open his eyes to see Wonderful things in the Law of God. What is it about the Torah that would be a wonderful thing to see? Could it be the understanding of the Lord who seeks to make known his holiness, righteousness, justice, and truth that is to be lived out in His people? Could it be about man taking on the testimonies of God for God’s Glory? This anti-Torah mindset causes much confusion in the Christian commentaries, such as from James 1:25 But one who looks intently at the perfect law, the law of liberty, and abides by it, not having become a forgetful hearer but an effectual doer, this man will be blessed in what he does. (NASB) It is important to note that James did not have the New Testament Scriptures when he was writing these things to the First Century believers. He had only the Tanach which was read weekly in the synagogue. Here in the book of James, he makes a positive reference to the Law, and modern theological reasoning states that this could not possibly be the Torah (Law of Moshe). Examining a famous Christian teacher and author, James Vernon McGee, he provides the following explanation of the above verse saying, “The perfect law of liberty.’ This is not the Mosaic Law; it is the law of grace. James does not talk about law here in the same sense that Paul does. When Paul talks about the law, he is talking about the Mosaic Law. When James talks about law, it is the law of faith. There is love in law in the Old Testament, and there is law in love in the New Testament.” Note the confusion on the Law in which Paul and James are referring to. James McGee does not offer any evidence to back his interpretation on which Paul is referring to the Torah and James is not. His reasoning is that James’s Law simply cant refer to what Paul is referring to because my theology cannot accept that. His interpretation is based solely upon Christian theological understanding that the Law (Torah) is bad.

The Psalmist continues saying, כג גַּם יָשְׁבוּ שָׁרִים בִּי נִדְבְּרוּ עֲבָדֶיךָ יְשִׁיחַ בְּחֻקֶיךָ: כד גַּם-עֵדוּתֶיךָ שֶׁשִּׁשְׁעֵי אַנְשֵׁי עֲצָתִי: כה דְּבַקָּה לְעֹפֶר נִפְשֵׁי חַיִּנִי כְּדַבְּרֶיךָ: כו דַּרְכֵי סִפְרֹתַי וְתַעֲנִנֵי לְמַדְנֵי חֻקֶיךָ: כז דָּרָךְ-פְּקוּדֵיךָ הֵבִינֵנִי וְאֲשִׁיחָה בְּנִפְלְאוֹתֶיךָ: כח דָּלֶפָה נִפְשֵׁי מִתּוֹגָה קִיַּמְנִי כְּדַבְּרֶיךָ: כט דָּרָךְ שִׁקָּר הָסַר מִמֶּנִּי וְתוֹרַתְךָ חֲנַנִּי: ל דָּרָךְ-אֲמוֹנָה בְּחֻרְתֵי מִשְׁפָּטֶיךָ שְׁוִיתִי: לא דְּבַקְתִּי בְּעֵדוּתֶיךָ יְהוָה אֵל-תְּבַשְׁלֵנִי: 119:23 Even though princes sit and talk against me, Your servant meditates on Your statutes. 119:24 Your testimonies also are my delight; They are my counselors. 119:25 My soul cleaves to the dust; Revive me according to Your word. 119:26 I have told of my ways, and You have answered me; Teach me Your statutes. 19:27 Make me understand the way of Your precepts, So I will meditate on Your wonders. 119:28 My soul weeps because of grief; Strengthen me according to Your word. 119:29 Remove the false way from me, And graciously grant me Your law. 119:30 I have chosen the faithful way; I have placed Your ordinances before me. 119:31 I cling to Your testimonies; O Lord, do not put me to shame! (NASB) Note how David speaks of the testimonies of God being his delight (119:24) and his seeking the Lord’s help to understand God’s precepts for their application to life (119:27). Christianity takes the theological approach of cherry picking Scripture by pointing to certain “New Testament” verses to “prove” the Law has ended. For example in Acts 15, the Jerusalem Council was called upon to address the issue of Gentile inclusion in the covenant and the rapid response of the Gentiles to faith in Yeshua the Messiah. The gentiles were coming directly into the faith of Israel through the Messiah. This method of faithfulness to God through the Messiah was different from the past inclusion through the precepts of Judaism. This may have seemed different and would have led some to doubt the sincerity of the non-Jewish person being accepted as fellow citizens of God's kingdom who had little to no understanding of God's Torah. After having placed their faith in Yeshua, the Council in fact required these Gentiles to follow certain minimal Torah commands (Acts 15:20) in order to have fellowship with Jewish believers and to be able to function within their new found faith. The Jerusalem Council gave these basic Torah commands with the understanding that they would learn more about Moshe and the Torah as they attended Synagogue each week. (Acts 15:21) Peter's comment in Acts 15:10 is pointing out that if God had commanded perfect Torah observance as a prerequisite to faith, then they all were in jeopardy, as none of them could keep it perfectly. This reasoning is consistent with Tehillim / Psalms 119:30 I have chosen the faithful way; I have placed Your ordinances before me. 119:31 I cling to Your testimonies; O Lord, do not put me to shame! (NASB) The Aramaic Targum states, 119:30. I have chosen the faithful path; I have placed your judgments [with me]. 119:31. I have joined myself to your testimonies, O Lord; do not make me ashamed. (EMC) David chose the faithful way clinging His testimonies and His way of life. In a similar way, based upon the example given to us by Yeshua, we too are to cling to God's testimonies, to humble our lives, and submit to God's Word.

The Psalmist continues saying, לב דָּרָה-מְצוֹתֶיךָ אָרוּץ פִּי תִרְחִיב לְבִי: לֵךְ הוֹרֵנִי יְהוָה דְּרָךְ חֻקֶיךָ וְאֶצְרְנָה, עֲקֹב: לֵךְ הִבִּינֵנִי וְאֶצְרְנָה תוֹרָתְךָ וְאֶשְׁמְרָנָה בְּכָל-לֵב: לֵךְ הִדְרִיכֵנִי בְּנִתִיב מְצוֹתֶיךָ פִּי בּוֹ חִפְצָתִי: לוֹ הֵט-לְבִי אֶל-עֲדוֹתֶיךָ וְאֶל-בְּצַע: לוֹ הִעֲבֵר עֵינַי מִרְאוֹת שְׁוֹא בְּדַרְכֶּךָ חֲיִנִי: לֵךְ הִקֵּם לְעִבְדֶּךָ אִמְרָתְךָ אֲשֶׁר לִירְאָתְךָ: לֵט הִעֲבֵר יְהוָה חֻקֶיךָ לְפָנַי וְיִגְדַלְתֵּנִי מִיָּד הַיָּד הַזֹּאת וְיִשְׁפֹּטֵנִי מִיָּד הַיָּד הַזֹּאת: מִיָּד הַיָּד הַזֹּאת תִּפְקֹדֵנִי בְּצִדְקָתְךָ חֲיִנִי: 119:32 I shall run the way of Your commandments, For You will enlarge my heart. 119:33 Teach me, O Lord, the way of Your statutes, And I shall observe it to the end. 119:34 Give me understanding, that I may observe Your law And keep it with all my heart. 119:35 Make me walk in the path of Your commandments, For I delight in it. 119:36 Incline my heart to Your testimonies And not to dishonest gain. 119:37 Turn away my eyes from looking at vanity, And revive me in Your ways. 119:38 Establish Your word to Your servant, As that which produces reverence for You. 119:39 Turn away my reproach which I dread, For Your ordinances are good. 119:40 Behold, I long for Your precepts; Revive me through Your righteousness. (NASB) The Aramaic Targum states the following:

Aramaic Targum

Toviyah Psalms 119:32-40

119:32. I will run in the path of your commandments, for you will expand my heart. 119:33. Teach me, O Lord, the way of your decrees, and I will keep it totally. 119:34. Give me insight, and I will keep your Torah, O Lord; and I will keep it with a whole heart. 119:35. Make me walk in the course of your commandments, for I desire it. 119:36. Incline my heart to your testimonies, and not to money. 119:37. Turn my eyes away from the sight of deceit; by your words heal me. 119:38. Confirm your word to your servant, which [leads] to your worship. 119:39. Take away my reproach, which I fear, for your judgments are good. 119:40. Behold, I have yearned for your commandments; in your generosity heal me. (EMC)

The fact is God does not change (Bamidbar / Numbers 23:19, Hebrews 13:8, James 1:17). A common sentiment heard in churches today is the notion that God does change, that He changed by replacing Torah-observant Israel as His people, with the non-Torah observant gentile Church. This speaks contrary to what we are reading here in the Hebrew Scriptures from Tehillim / Psalms 119. David says, 119:32 I shall run the way of Your commandments, For You will enlarge my heart. (NASB) David says walking in God's ways, running in them, will enlarge/expand the heart. This suggests that our love for others should expand. He asks the Lord to give him insight and then he will keep God's Torah. Is it interesting that insight (understanding) is paralleled to living for the Lord according to His Word. Do you believe this is true? Let's Pray!

The psalmist continues saying, מָא וַיְבֹאֲנִי חֶסֶדְךָ יְהוָה תְּשׁוּעָתְךָ כְּאֶמְרָתְךָ: מִבּ וְאֶעֱנֶה חֶרְפִּי דְבָרְךָ כִּי-בִטְחֹתִי בְּדַבְרֶךָ: מִגּ וְאֶל-תִּצְלַח מִפִּי דְבַר-אֱמֶת עַד-מָאד כִּי לְמִשְׁפָּטֶיךָ יַחֲלֹתִי: מִדּ וְאֶשְׁמְרָה תּוֹרָתְךָ תָּמִיד לְעוֹלָם וָעֶד: מֵה 119:41 May Your lovingkindnesses also come to me, O Lord, Your salvation according to Your word; 119:42 So I will have an answer for him who reproaches me, For I trust in Your word. 119:43 And do not take the word of truth utterly out of my mouth, For I wait for Your ordinances. 119:44 So I will keep Your law continually, Forever and ever. 119:45 And I will walk at liberty, For I seek Your precepts. (NASB) These set of verses are very interesting, because David groups the grace of God (חֶסֶדְךָ) to His salvation (תְּשׁוּעָתְךָ) to trusting in the Word of truth which are His ordinances, His Torah (תּוֹרָתְךָ), to walking in liberty and freedom because he seeks God's precepts (פְּקֻדֹתֶיךָ). As mentioned previously, the Hebrew view of faith is not just "believing" in the God of Israel, as modern theology would teach us today. Even the demons believe in him (James 2:19) and confess who Yeshua is (Matthew 8:29). Having repented (teshuvah) in faith, we are to look to the Torah as our "how-to guide" regarding God's will for our lives. This is why the Apostle James wrote the entire Torah is the "Law of Liberty" we are to live by. We cannot pick and choose which Torah commandments we want to follow either (2:10 For whoever keeps the whole law and yet stumbles in one point, he has become guilty of all. 2:11 For He who said, 'Do not commit adultery,' also said, 'Do not commit murder.' Now if you do not commit adultery, but do commit murder, you have become a transgressor of the law. NASB) James states the following in regards to the Torah:

James 1:19-27

1:19 This you know, my beloved brethren. But everyone must be quick to hear, slow to speak and slow to anger; 1:20 for the anger of man does not achieve the righteousness of God. 1:21 Therefore, putting aside all filthiness and all that remains of wickedness, in humility receive the word implanted, which is able to save your souls. 1:22 But prove yourselves doers of the word, and not merely hearers who delude themselves. 1:23 For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who looks at his natural face in a mirror; 1:24 for once he has looked at himself and gone away, he has immediately forgotten what kind of person he was. 1:25 But one who looks intently at the perfect law, the law of liberty, and abides by it, not having become a forgetful hearer but an effectual doer, this man will be blessed in what he does. 1:26 If anyone thinks himself to be religious, and yet does not bridle his tongue but deceives his own heart, this man's religion is worthless. 1:27 Pure and undefiled religion in the sight of our God and Father is this: to visit orphans and widows in their distress, and to keep oneself unstained by the world. (NASB)

James says that we are to be quick to listen and slow to anger. The reason being this topic causes much anger in the hearts of Christians who rest in the modern theologies of today and reject the Torah of God. James speaks of the Word of God that was implanted into our lives that causes salvation to the soul. The idea here is in being a doer of the word and not merely a hearer. This is the central point of the Torah to be a doer of the word. If we only listen to God's Word and do not put it into practice, we delude ourselves. This is the concept behind seeing our face and then forgetting what we look like, which is paralleled to the one who looks at the Torah and then forgets. James uses this same terminology as we find here in the Psalm, of walking in liberty by the one who abides in God's Torah. This is effected by the one who sees and does according to God's Word. James says such a man is blessed in what he does. James words are consistent with the Psalmist approach by drawing together the grace of God, His salvation, his Torah, walking in liberty, and all of these things are found in His precepts.

The Aramaic Targum states, 119:41. And let your kindness come upon me, O Lord, your redemption in accordance with your word. 119:42. And I will give answer to those who mock me, for I have trusted in your word. 119:43. And do not remove the word of truth from my mouth utterly, for I have waited long for your judgments. 119:44. And I will keep your Torah always, for ages upon ages. 119:45. And I will walk in the wideness of the Torah, for I have sought your commandments. (EMC) The answer the psalmist gives is that he trusts in the Word of the Lord! This is the same answer that we give for the faith that we have, we trust in the Word of the Lord, believing by faith, and living our lives accordingly. Note how the Rabbis translate walking in the wideness of the Torah. What do they mean by the “wideness of the Torah?” The way the Psalm is written, the wideness of the Torah seems to refer to someone who has faithfully studied the Torah, worshiped in the Temple and put into practice his faith. The conclusion is God’s Law is so vital to the life of His people, that we are to keep his precepts for ages upon ages (מד ואטור אורייתך תדירא לעלמי). The English translates לעלמי עלמין as ages upon ages, which is the same as saying something is eternal. This is paralleled to what the Apostle Peter wrote in 1 Peter 1:25 BUT THE WORD OF THE LORD ENDURES FOREVER.” And this is the word which was preached to you. (NASB) In order to understand what this means, we understand that there is inherent power in the Word of God. The Apostle Paul wrote “All Scripture is given by inspiration of God” (2 Timothy 3:16). The word for inspiration is from the Greek text, θεοπνευστος theopneustos. This Greek word is a combination the words Theos “God” + Pepneustai “to breathe.” It means literally that all of Scripture is God breathed. All scripture is the product of God’s breath, it is His Word, it is the Lord God of Israel himself that speaks (or breathed out) the scripture. This is significant because we read in Bereshit / Genesis 2:7, “the LORD God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul” (NASB). There is a connection between the words; breath, inspiration, and life. This is why the author of Hebrews wrote, “The Word of God is living and powerful and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the division of soul and spirit, and of joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart” (Hebrews 4:12) This speaks to the immutability of God and His promises, meaning that the Lord God of Israel is not subject or susceptible to change or variation in form or quality or nature. This is because the Lord God of Israel has no beginning or end, He is eternal, and so is His Word, unchanging, the Lord does not change His mind as the Scripture states (Isaiah 46:9-10 and Bamidbar / Numbers 23:19). The Scriptures state “For I am the LORD, I change not; therefore ye sons of Jacob are not consumed” (Malachi 3:6). The counsel of the LORD stands forever, the plans of His heart to all generations (Tehillim / Psalms 33:11). It is within this context that we read the rabbis translating saying, 119:44. And I will keep your Torah always, for ages upon ages. 119:45. And I will walk in the wideness of the Torah, for I have sought your commandments. (EMC) And David’s words saying in Tehillim / Psalms 19:7-8, The law of the LORD is perfect, converting the soul; the testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple. The statutes of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the LORD is pure, enlightening the eyes.

David then states, מו ואדברה בעדתיך נגד מלכים ולא אבוש: מז ואשתעשע במצותיך אשר אהבתי: מה ואשא כפי אל-מצותיך אשר אהבתי ואשיחה בקהיך: מט זכר-דבר לעבדך על אשר יחלתני: נ זאת נחמתי בעניי: נא ואמרתיך הייתי: 119:46 I will also speak of Your testimonies before kings And shall not be ashamed. 119:47 I shall delight in Your commandments, Which I love. 119:48 And I shall lift up my hands to Your commandments, Which I love; And I will meditate on Your statutes. 119:49 Remember the word to Your servant, In which You have made me hope. 119:50 This is my comfort in my affliction, That Your word has revived me. (NASB) This is the love of God that we keep His mitzvot (commandments). This is the point of what the psalmist is trying to say, I lift up my hands to your commands, I meditate on your statutes, and my hope is in Your Word. This is what it means to have true love, to demonstrate the fruit, the evidence of our love for our Father in heaven. The point of the psalmist is that God’s commandments are not grievous. The Greek word for “heavy” βαρεῖαι bareiai, is a reference to something being difficult or a burden or to difficult to bear. The point is God’s Torah is not unreasonable, the duties which He asks of us as His people are not beyond our ability, and His government is not oppressive. It is easy to obey God when the heart is right. Those who pursue the commands as the psalmist is stating, to be sincere to keep his commandments, such a person does not complain that the commands are hard. All the complaints come from those who are not motivated out of love for the Lord to keep his commandments. The objection is in the developed theologies, which then rejects God's Torah as unreasonable and that God's Law imposes improper restraints upon one's life. These complaints do come from Christians or at least those who think they are such. Note what the Apostle John wrote in his epistle according to 1 John 5:1-4.

1 John 5:1-4

5:1 Whoever believes that Jesus is the Christ is born of God, and whoever loves the Father loves the child born of Him. 5:2 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and observe His commandments. 5:3 For this is the love of God, that we keep His commandments; and His commandments are not burdensome. 5:4 For whatever is born of God overcomes the world; and this is the victory that has overcome the world our faith. (NASB)

John is speaking of being born of God. The phrase "being born of God" is a reference to being filled with His Spirit that enables us to live according to His Word. Our lives are changed from the inside out. This is the thing that demonstrates our having been born of God, and our having love for our Father in heaven. This love is demonstrated in obeying His commandments. 5:3 For this is the love of God, that we keep His commandments; and His commandments are not burdensome. (NASB) John agrees with the psalmist. What is going on with the modern theologies that reject the Torah today as a way of life for God's people? Revelation 22:14 states "Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city." Most of Christianities understanding of Judaism and more importantly of Judaism in Yeshua's day is limited to the few glimpses that are found in the "New Testament." The problem is the interpretation of the NT is taken away from its historical context, and interpreted in a non-Hebrew fashion. If we begin with a skewed view of first century Judaism and its doctrines, there is no level of grammatical scrutiny that can correct for this misrepresentation of Judaism. For example, trying to read the English text, solely "in its immediate grammatical context," is unreliable as this does not lead one to a Hebrew understanding nor to its first century context, this has led to much theological errors as we have been discussing in the previous Psalms.

The ignorance regarding the first century historical and cultural context may be found in the modern commentaries such as from James Vernon McGee (www.blueletterbible.org). In his commentary on James 2:2 he states the following: "The word assembly here means synagogue. Evidently the Jewish Christians were calling the place where they met a synagogue. They had erected no buildings and frequently met in private homes, but the chances are that in many places they rented a synagogue. They met on Sunday rather than on Saturday and therefore did not conflict with the meeting of the Jews." What happens is most Christians will read this statement and say "yes this is true" because this is a famous man and very few questions are asked in regards to the validity (accuracy) of his statements.

Summary of McGee's Mistakes

- McGee makes the statement: "Jewish Christians." It is important to note here that there was no such thing as a "Jewish Christian" in the first century. This is a modern description based upon an erroneous theology. Usage of this term supports the false idea that these first Jewish believers had undergone a conversion from Judaism to Christianity. The earliest reference to the word Christian was given to the believers at Antioch (Acts 11:26) as a derogatory slur. The original Jewish believers in Yeshua remained Torah-observant Jews (see Acts 21:20).
- McGee claimed they "called the place they met a synagogue" for one of two reasons. They either were at a synagogue building, or they were meeting somewhere else under the authority of the synagogue. Note that there was no “Christianity” in existence at this time, and there was no Christian group being organized and meeting either. This would not have been permitted by Rome. The Jews had permission, as an existing group, under Roman law to meet in the synagogues. As a result, the first century believers continued to go to Synagogue, including Gentile converts, as this was the only place the Scriptures were read and where they would or could learn Torah (Acts 15:21)

- McGee claims the early believers were “Renting a synagogue.” This is an example of the height of ignorance when one bases their understanding upon a theology, since it would have been illegal for Jews to rent their buildings out to a new religion that was not sanctioned by Rome. Jewish believers in Yeshua had full rights as Jews to continue going to normal synagogue services on the Shabbat.
- McGee claimed “They met on Sunday ...” This has no basis in fact. Jewish believers in Yeshua continued meeting at synagogue (or the Temple) during Shabbat. A common practice that is described in the Scriptures is havdallah where believers would meet in homes after sundown on Saturday to continue discussions and praise from the Shabbat Services. This provides us with a good explanation why Paul was “preaching until midnight” in Acts 20:7. The first day of the week for Jews (like Paul) began at Sundown at the end of the Sabbath on Saturday, not on the “Sunday” as we know it today.

Make a note how far off J Vernon McGee is in his assessment of only one verse. This is why it is so important to have a second critical look at Christian commentaries and understand the underlying theology that go into their statements. Notice how far we have come from what was taking place in the first century and the early body of believers according to the following Scriptures.

Matthew 5:18-19

5:18 ‘For truly I say to you, until heaven and earth pass away, not the smallest letter or stroke shall pass from the Law until all is accomplished. 5:19 ‘Whoever then annuls one of the least of these commandments, and teaches others to do the same, shall be called least in the kingdom of heaven; but whoever keeps and teaches them, he shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven. (NASB)

Acts 21:20

21:20 And when they heard it they began glorifying God; and they said to him, ‘You see, brother, how many thousands there are among the Jews of those who have believed, and they are all zealous for the Law; (NASB)

Acts 22:3

22:3 ‘I am a Jew, born in Tarsus of Cilicia, but brought up in this city, educated under Gamaliel, strictly according to the law of our fathers, being zealous for God just as you all are today. (NASB)

Note that the common interpretation today is that “until all is accomplished” is the work Christ performed upon the cross. This is not what Yeshua was teaching, that in a few short years this will all be different after he goes to the cross, raises from the dead, and ascends into heaven. The facts are the people of God continue to walk in God’s ways and were zealous for God’s Torah according to the NT Scriptures. What we read here in the NT is something that speaks differently from what we see and hear being taught in the modern theologies today. If we go in with guns blazing in regards to the way of God as was taught in the first century, and how differently we are being taught from the pulpits today, there is much animosity and derision that comes because of the Torah speaks against the established theologies of today. This is the way the psalmist describes those who surround him saying, נָא זְדִים הֶלִיצְנִי עַד-מְאֹד מִתּוֹרַתְךָ לֹא נִטִיתִי: נִב זְכַרְתִּי, בְּאֵימֵנוּ מְשַׁפְּטֶיךָ מֵעוֹלָם | יְהוָה וְאַתְנַחֲם: נִג וְלַעֲפָה אֶחְזַתְנִי מִרְשָׁעִים עֲזָבִי תוֹרַתְךָ: נִד זְמֵרוֹת הָיוּ-לִי חֲקִיךָ בְּבֵית מְגוּרָי: מִשְׁפָּטֶיךָ וְאֶשְׁמָרָה תּוֹרַתְךָ: 119:51 The arrogant utterly deride me, Yet I do not turn aside from Your law. 119:52 I have remembered Your ordinances from of old, O Lord, And comfort myself. 119:53 Burning indignation has seized me because of the wicked, Who forsake Your law. 119:54 Your statutes are my songs In the house of my pilgrimage. 119:55 O Lord, I remember Your name in the night, And keep Your law. (NASB) The psalmist speaks of those who surround him and are arrogant, and deride him (express contempt for; ridicule) because he follows in God’s ways. David says that he did not turn aside from His Law and remembered the ordinances from of old and comforted himself in God’s commands. David claims the statutes of God are the songs of his pilgrimage. This reckless abandon of God’s Law is a serious error in the modern theologies today. The prophet Zephaniah speaks of this in his time when he wrote what he did in Zephaniah 3:1-9.

Zephaniah 3:1-9

3:1 Woe to her who is rebellious and defiled, The tyrannical city! 3:2 She heeded no voice, She accepted no instruction. She did not trust in the Lord, She did not draw near to her God. 3:3 Her princes within her are roaring lions, Her judges are wolves at evening; They leave nothing for the morning. 3:4 Her prophets are reckless, treacherous men; Her priests have profaned the sanctuary. They have done violence to the law. 3:5 The Lord is righteous within her; He will do no injustice. Every morning He brings His justice to light; He does not fail. But the unjust knows no shame. 3:6 ‘I have cut off nations; Their corner towers are in ruins. I have made their streets desolate, With no one passing by; Their cities are laid waste, Without a man, without an inhabitant. 3:7 ‘I said, ‘Surely you will revere Me, Accept instruction.’ So her dwelling will not be cut off According to all that I have appointed concerning her. But they were eager to corrupt all their deeds. 3:8 ‘Therefore wait for Me,’ declares the Lord, ‘For the day when I rise up as a witness. Indeed, My decision is to gather nations, To assemble kingdoms, To pour out on them My indignation, All My burning anger; For all the earth will be devoured By the fire of My zeal. 3:9 ‘For then I will give to the peoples purified lips, That all of them may call on the name of the Lord, To serve Him shoulder to shoulder. (NASB)

Zephaniah speaks of those who would not accept instruction from the Lord, would not heed God’s voice, and would not draw near to the Lord God of Israel. This follows through to those who are supposed to be leaders of the people, they corrupt God’s ways, do violence, are reckless, and profane the sanctuary. It is said the Lord however will do justice within His people by bringing upon them foreign nations to inflict pain and judgment on those who corrupted all their ways. The Lord calls out to His people saying, 3:8 ‘Therefore wait for Me,’ declares the Lord, ‘For the day when I rise up as a witness... The earth will be devoured because of her sins, and the Lord will give to His people purified lips to call upon the name of the Lord and walk in His ways. What we see today is a fraction of peoples who are coming out of the theologies that stand against God’s Torah, to listen to the voice of God, to heed His instruction, and to walk in His ways. It is in these things the Lord is pleased, not because we try to earn merit before Him, but because of our love for Him, our motivation is to serve Him, to listen to his voice, and seek His instruction for our lives.

The psalmist continues saying the following, נִז הַלְקִי יְהוָה אֶמְרָתִי, הַלְקִי יְהוָה אֶמְרָתִי: נִז הַלְקִי יְהוָה אֶמְרָתִי, נִז הַלְקִי יְהוָה אֶמְרָתִי: נִז הַלְקִי יְהוָה אֶמְרָתִי: נִז הַלְקִי יְהוָה אֶמְרָתִי: נִז הַלְקִי יְהוָה אֶמְרָתִי: נִז הַלְקִי יְהוָה אֶמְרָתִי: נִז הַלְקִי יְהוָה אֶמְרָתִי: 119:56 This has become mine, That I observe Your precepts. 119:57 The Lord is my portion; I have promised to keep Your words. 119:58 I sought Your favor with all my heart; Be gracious to me according to Your word. 119:59 I considered my ways And turned my feet to Your testimonies. 119:60 I hastened and did not delay To keep Your commandments. 119:61 The cords of the wicked have encircled me, But I have not forgotten Your law. 119:62 At midnight I shall rise to give thanks to You Because of Your righteous ordinances. 119:63 I am a companion of all those who fear You, And of those who keep Your precepts. (NASB) There is a fellowship as brothers for those who walk in God's ways, keep his ordinances, and hold tight to his statutes. The Aramaic Targum states, נו דא הוה לי לזכותא ארום פיקודיך נטרית: גז חולקי יהוה אמרית למיטר דבריך: נח צליתי קדמך בכל לבא חוס עלי היך מימרך: נט חשיבית לאוטבא אורחי ואתיב ריגלי לסהידותך: ס זרזית ולא אתעכבית למיטר פקודיך: סא סיעת רשיעיא אתכנשו עלי אוריתך לא אתנשיתי נשיתי: סב בפלגות ליליא אקום לשבחה קדמך מטול דיני צדקך 119:56. This became merit for me, for I kept your commandments. 119:57. My portion is the Lord, I have promised to keep your words. 119:58. I have prayed in your presence with a whole heart; have pity on me according to your word. 119:59. I have thought to improve my way, and I will turn my feet to your testimonies. 119:60. I was eager, and did not delay to keep your commandments. 119:61. The band of wicked men has gathered against me; I have not forgotten your Torah. 119:62. In the middle of the night I will rise to sing praise in your presence, for the sake of your righteous judgments. 119:63. I am a companion to all who revere you, and to those who keep your commandments. (EMC) What we have to understand is the Latin term for “merit” was introduced as a synonym for the Greek word for “reward” when studying the various translations of the bible. Therefore, merit and reward are two sides of the same coin. When the rabbis speak of meriting something for keeping God's Torah, this is consistent with the blessings and the curses as detailed in Devarim / Deuteronomy 30-32. In Romans 11:6 Paul says, “But if it is by grace, it is no longer on the basis of works; otherwise grace would no longer be grace.” Whenever Paul writes that works are not salvific, it is those works done outside of God's mercy (grace). When a man attempts to approach the Lord God outside of His mercy, he attempts to make the Lord God owe him salvation. This is different from obeying God's commands and meriting a blessing. This is related to the covenant relationship we have in Him and in His Messiah Yeshua. Paul condemns obeying the Torah for the purpose of meriting salvation. Paul also promotes the idea of obeying God's Torah because we are in the Messiah and made to be a holy and righteous people, we obey the commands because of our love for the Lord. The command is holy, righteous, and good (Romans 7:12) and God's people are called to live by His Word.

David continues in his Psalm to say the following, סד חסדך יהוה מלאה הארץ חקיה למדני: סה טוב עשית עם-עבדך יהוה פדברך: סו טוב טעם ודעת למדני פי במצותיה האמנותי: סז טרם אענה אני שגג ועתה אמרתך שמרתי: סח טוב-אתה ומטיב למדני חקיה: סט טפלו עלי שקר ודים אני בכל-לב | אצר פקודיך: ע טפש כחלב לבם אני תורתך שעשעתי: עא טוב-לי כי-עניתי למען אלמד חקיה: עב טוב-לי תורת פיך מאלפי: 119:64 The earth is full of Your lovingkindness, O Lord; Teach me Your statutes. 119:65 You have dealt well with Your servant, O Lord, according to Your word. 119:66 Teach me good discernment and knowledge, For I believe in Your commandments. 119:67 Before I was afflicted I went astray, But now I keep Your word. 119:68 You are good and do good; Teach me Your statutes. 119:69 The arrogant have forged a lie against me; With all my heart I will observe Your precepts. 119:70 Their heart is covered with fat, But I delight in Your law. 119:71 It is good for me that I was afflicted, That I may learn Your statutes. 119:72 The law of Your mouth is better to me Than thousands of gold and silver pieces. (NASB) David says that before he was afflicted, he went astray. The example that he gives us is the lovingkindness (grace) of God that teaches us His statutes, and how this is in contrast to the enemy who seeks to afflict through lies and untruths. David believes that keeping the commandments of God will cause the Lord to teach him discernment and knowledge which will cause him to observe the precepts. The heart is fat and desires its own way, and the Torah is designed for us to humble our hearts and to submit our hearts to the will of our Father in heaven. The verb for afflicted (אָפְּנָה) is in reference to any difficult or painful circumstance. Our afflictions come in many forms, shapes, and sizes, it can be as small as a headache, or as large as a major illness, the loss of a job, public persecution, or rumors (lies) spread by our enemies (119:69). David wrote in his psalm saying, “Many are the afflictions of the righteous, but the Lord delivers him out of them all” (Tehillim / Psalm 34:19). To go astray (שָׁגַג) means “to go astray, err, commit sin or error” and simply means to go our own way. Based upon this psalm, the purpose of affliction is to teach us things we would not otherwise know. David is pointing out that until hard times come, our knowledge of God and his Word tends to be rather theoretical. It is only when we are forced to apply God's Word regardless of the circumstance that our sufferings become our schoolmaster. This is a very hard reality for many Christians to face because this is what the Torah teaches, where modern theologies direct people away from this truth. The central Torah based truth is that it is not what happens to us that matters. It's how we respond to what happens to us that makes all the difference. The troubles that we go through are no mistake. The Torah reveals to us in a deep and profound sense, that we do not fully understand until we persevere in our faith to live God's Ways in the midst of our troubles. Regardless of our circumstances we persevere for the glory of God. It is in this way that our troubles are a gift from God, to draw us back to repentance, to humble our lives, and to live for His glory by bearing His testimonies according to His word. Our troubles humble us, kill our pride, force us to admit our weakness, and drive us to pursue the Lord God of Israel and His Messiah Yeshua.

The psalmist continues saying the following, עַד יִרְאֶיךָ עֲשׂוּנִי וְיִכּוֹנְנוּנִי הִבִּינִי וְאֶלְמְדָה מִצְוֹתֶיךָ: עַד יִרְאֶיךָ יִרְאוּנִי וְיִשְׂמְחוּ כִּי לְדַבְרֶךָ יִחְלְתִי: עַה יִדְעֵתִי יְהוָה כִּי-צָדֵק מְשַׁפְּטֶיךָ וְאֲמוּנָה עֲנִיתַנִּי: עו יְהִי-נָא חֶסֶדְךָ לְנַחְמֵנִי כְּאֶ-מֶרְתְּךָ לְעִבְדְּךָ: עז יְבֹאוּנִי רַחֲמֶיךָ וְאֶחְיֶה כִּי תוֹרָתְךָ שְׁעֵשְׂעָי: עח יִבְשׂוּ זָדִים כִּי-שָׁקַר עֲוֹתוֹנִי אֲנִי אֲשִׁיחַ בְּפִקּוּדֶיךָ: עט יְשׁוּבוּ-לִי יִרְאֶיךָ וְיִדְעוּ [וְיִדְעִי] עֲדוֹתֶיךָ: פ יְהִי-לְבִי תַמִּים בְּחֻקֶיךָ לְמַעַן לֹא אִבּוֹשׁ: 119:73 Your hands made me and fashioned me; Give me understanding, that I may learn Your commandments. 119:74 May those who fear You see me and be glad, Because I wait for Your word. 119:75 I know, O Lord, that Your judgments are righteous, And that in faithfulness You have afflicted me. 119:76 O may Your lovingkindness comfort me, According to Your word to Your servant. 119:77 May Your compassion come to me that I may live, For Your law is my delight. 119:78 May the arrogant be ashamed, for they subvert me with a lie; But I shall meditate on Your precepts. 119:79 May those who fear You turn to me, Even those who know Your testimonies. 119:80 May my heart be blameless in Your statutes, So that I will not be ashamed. (NASB) David is requesting the Lord to “learn” His commands. This brings the perspective the only way to “learn” is to practically apply God's Word to live. The only way we learn is by hands on practice. The Aramaic Tagrum states the following, עַד יִדְעֵת יְהוָה וְאִתְּקִינוּ יְתִי תְּבִינִי וְאִילָף פִּיקוּדֶיךָ: עַד דְּחַלִּיךְ יַחְמוֹן יְתִי וְיַחְדוֹן אַרוֹם לְפַתְגַּמְךָ אוּרִי- כִּית: עה יִדְעִית יְהוָה אַרוֹם זְכַאִין דִּינִךְ וּבְקוּשְׁטָא סַגְפַתְנִי: עו יְהִי כְדוֹן חֶסֶדְךָ לְנַחְמוֹתֵי הִיךְ מִימְרֵךְ לְעִבְדְּךָ: עז יִיתוֹן עֲלֵי רַחֲמֵךְ וְאִחֵי אַרוֹם אוּרִיתְךָ פִּירְנוּקֵי: עח יְבַהֲתוֹן זְדוּנִין אַרוֹם עַל שְׁקֵרָא עוּוֹתוֹ יְתִי אֲנָא אַמְלִיל בְּפִיקּוּדֶיךָ: עט יְתוּבוֹן לְאוּלְפְּנֵי דְּחַלִּיךְ וְיִדְעִין סְהִדוּתְךָ: פ יְהִי לְבִי דְּלֹא מוֹם בְּגִזִּירְתְּךָ מִן בְּגַלְל דְּלֹא אֲבַהִית: 119:73. Your hands made me and established me; give me insight and I will learn your commandments. 119:74. Those who fear you will see me and be glad; for I have waited long for your word. 119:75. I know, O Lord, for your judgments are righteous and you have afflicted me in truth. 119:76. Now let your kindness be for my comfort, according to your word to your servant. 119:77. Let your mercies come to me and I will live; for your Torah is my delight. 119:78. The arrogant will be ashamed, for they twisted a lie against me; I will speak of your commandments. 119:79. Those who fear you will turn to my teaching, and those who know your testimonies. 119:80. Let my heart be without blemish in your decrees, so that I may not be ashamed. (EMC) The idea being put forward here is, keep believing, don't quit, and don't give up. Let the God of Israel do his work in you. The greatest tragedy is to miss what the Lord wants to teach us through our troubles. May the Lord God bring us to the place where we can say what David has said, “It was good for me to be afflicted that I might learn your decrees.”*

The apostle Paul did not change the commandments and neither did Yeshua. Both Yeshua and Paul kept the Torah and spoke in favor of it in many places. Paul wrote in favor in the following places, Acts 16:1-3, 18:18, 20:6-16, 21:17-26, 24:17-18, 25:8, 28:17, Romans 3:31, 7:12, 1 Corinthians 5:6-8, 11:17-34, and 16:8. This is because David writes in his Psalm saying, פֹּא כָּלְתָה לְתַשׁוּעָתְךָ נִפְשִׁי לְדַבְרֶךָ יִחְלְתִי: פב כָּלוּ, כִּי-עֵינַי לְאֶמְרֶתְךָ לֹאמַר מָתִי תִנְחַמְנִי: פג כִּי-הִיִּיתִי כְּנֹאד בְּקִיטוֹר חֻקֶיךָ לֹא שְׁכַחְתִּי: *19:81 My soul languishes for Your salvation; I wait for Your word. 119:82 My eyes fail with longing for Your word, While I say, 'When will You comfort me?' 119:83 Though I have become like a wineskin in the smoke, I do not forget Your statutes. (NASB) The Aramaic Targum states, פא רגגת לפורקנך נפשי לפתגמך אוריכית: פב ספו עיני למימרך למימר, פג ארום הויתי היך זרנוקא דתלי בקטרא גזרתך קיימך לא אתנשיתי: 119:81. My soul has yearned for your redemption; I have waited long for your word. 119:82. My eyes are spent for your word, saying, "When will you comfort me?" 119:83. For I have become like a water-skin that hangs in the smoke; your decrees I have not forgotten. (EMC) The psalmist states that His longing is for the salvation (לְתִשׁוּבָה) of our God. Based upon a Torah context, we think upon the Salvation of God within the context of Parashat Beshalach (Shemot / Exodus 13:17-17:16) when Moshe states, “Stand still, and see the salvation of the LORD, which He will accomplish for you today. For the Egyptians whom you see today, you shall see again no more...” The salvation of God delivers and saves one from death, as in the context here from the invading Egyptian army that wants to take the people back into slavery. When we think about the concept of Salvation, today the Christian influences based upon the theologies that have been developed, tends to limit this to getting out of Hell in the afterlife. Most Christian’s insight into the Judaism of Yeshua’s day is limited to the few glimpses found in the Apostolic Writings where He disagreed with the hypocrisy of the prevailing leadership. The understanding is further distanced being taken apart from its historical context, and interpreted in a non-Hebrew fashion. This was accomplished primarily due to the antisemitism of the early Gentile believers and due to the fact that the Apostolic Writings are written in Greek. This skewed view of the culture of the times, results in incorrect conclusions that contribute to and reinforce these false doctrines and theologies. No level of grammatical scrutiny can make up for this, especially when trying to read the English and/or Greek, in its immediate grammatical context (without Torah) is unreliable. The reason being, the text of modern Christian bibles has been altered to suit these Christian theologies. Finding these things within the text takes a certain amount of due diligence on behalf of the bible student. The first important approach is to begin studying the New Testament (NT, Apostolic Writings) using a Hebrew translation of the bible. This helps the bible student to connect the dots by the way the text is written, especially in the connections made to the Tanach in the way the text is written. In my early years of reading the NT in Hebrew, one of the first observations that I made was in John 5:1 and 6:4. In these Scriptures we read the following, John 5:1 (NASB) “Later on, there was another festival of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.” John 6:4 (NASB) “Now the Passover, the festival of the Jews, was near.” What is interesting about these Scriptures is the way the text is written. If John had been the one writing these things down, why did he make a distinction between the Jewish and non-Jewish people? He makes this distinction using the phrase “the festival of the Jews.” What is implied from this text is that this festival was only for a period of time, and is not for the one who is reading the text. Note also in John 6:4 it states “there was another festival of the Jews” and then “Jesus went up to Jerusalem” which seems to imply Yeshua as separate from, as opposed to providing us the example to do the same, to celebrate the Pesach (Passover) festival because the Torah instructs all of God’s people to do so. So when I say the text has been modified, it is in these minor ways that lead to the theologies today and keep people from realizing the truth.

The psalmist continues saying the following, פד כַּמָּה יָמֵי עֲבָדָה מְתִי תַעֲשֶׂה בְרִדְפֵי מִשְׁפָּט: פה כָּרוּ-לִי, זָדִים שִׁיחֹת אֲשֶׁר לֹא כְתוּרְתָהּ: פו כָּל-מִצְוֹתֶיךָ אֱמוּנָה שָׁקֵר רִדְפוּנִי עֲזַרְנִי: פז כַּמַּעַט כְּלוּנִי בְּאֶרֶץ וְאֲנִי לֹא-עֲזֹבְתִי כְּקוֹדֶיךָ: פח כַּחֲסֻדְךָ חֲנִנִי וְאֲשִׁמְרָה עֵדוֹת פִּיךָ: פט לְעוֹלָם יְהוָה דְּבָרְךָ נִצָּב בְּשָׁמַיִם: צ לְדָר וְדָר אֱמוּנָתְךָ כּוֹנֵנֶת: 119:84 How many are the days of Your servant? When will You execute judgment on those who persecute me? 119:85 The arrogant have dug pits for me, Men who are not in accord with Your law. 119:86 All Your commandments are faithful; They have persecuted me with a lie; help me! 119:87 They almost destroyed me on earth, But as for me, I did not forsake Your precepts. 119:88 Revive me according to Your lovingkindness, So that I may keep the testimony of Your mouth. 119:89 Forever, O Lord, Your word is settled in heaven. 119:90 Your faithfulness continues throughout all generations; You established the earth, and it stands. 119:91 They stand this day according to Your ordinances, For all things are Your servants. (NASB) David speaks of seeking the Lord God of Israel for His help to bring driving out the priesthood of God, and setting up a new form of worship (golden idols) saying you will serve the Lord your God with these idols and these new priests. Can you see and understand the significance of the error of this way?

David continues in his psalm saying the following, לְעוֹלָם צָב לֹא־אֶשְׁכַּח פְּקוּדֶיךָ כִּי־בָם חַיִּיתֵנִי: צַד לֵךְ־אֲנִי הוֹשִׁיעֵנִי כִּי פְקוּדֶיךָ דְרָשְׁתִּי: צֶה לִי קוּוּ רְשָׁעִים לְאַבְדָּנִי עֲדוֹתֶיךָ אֲתַבּוּנָן: צו לְכֹל תִּכְלֶה רְאִיתִי קֶזֶז רְחֹבָה מִצְוֹתֶיךָ מְאֹד: צו מִה־אֶהְבֵּתִי תוֹרָתֶךָ כָּל־הַיּוֹם הִיא שִׂיחָתִי: צח מֵאִיבֵי תַחֲכַמְנִי מִצְוֹתֶיךָ כִּי לְעוֹלָם הִיא־לִי: צט מִכָּל־מְלַמְדֵי הַשִּׁפְלָתִי כִּי עֲדוֹתֶיךָ שִׂיחָה לִּי: ק מִזְקֵנִים אֲתַבּוּנָן כִּי פְקוּדֶיךָ נִצְרָתִי: קא מִכָּל־אַרְחָרַע כִּי־לֹא־אֶתִּי רַגְלִי לְמַעַן אֲשַׁמֵּר דְּבָרֶיךָ: קב מִמְשַׁפְּטֶיךָ לֹא־סִרְתִּי כִּי־אַתָּה הוֹרַתְנִי: קג מִה־נִּמְלָצוּ לְחַכֵּי אִמְרֹתֶיךָ מִדְּבַשׁ לְפִי: קד מִפְּקוּדֶיךָ אֲתַבּוּנָן עַל־כֵּן שָׁנְאַתִּי | כָּל־אַרְחָרַע שָׁקַר: קה גַּר־לְרַגְלֵי דְבָרֶיךָ וְאוֹר לְנִתְיָבְתִּי: 119:92 If Your law had not been my delight, Then I would have perished in my affliction. 119:93 I will never forget Your precepts, For by them You have revived me. 119:94 I am Yours, save me; For I have sought Your precepts. 119:95 The wicked wait for me to destroy me; I shall diligently consider Your testimonies. 119:96 I have seen a limit to all perfection; Your commandment is exceedingly broad. 119:97 O how I love Your law! It is my meditation all the day. 119:98 Your commandments make me wiser than my enemies, For they are ever mine. 119:99 I have more insight than all my teachers, For Your testimonies are my meditation. 119:100 I understand more than the aged, Because I have observed Your precepts. 119:101 I have restrained my feet from every evil way, That I may keep Your word. 119:102 I have not turned aside from Your ordinances, For You Yourself have taught me. 119:103 How sweet are Your words to my taste! Yes, sweeter than honey to my mouth! 119:104 From Your precepts I get understanding; Therefore I hate every false way. 119:105 Your word is a lamp to my feet And a light to my path. (NASB) Note how David understands the purpose of God's Torah for His life. Notice how delighting in the Torah is related to either being established or perishing. He says that God's precepts revived (gave life) to him, and how the commandments make him wiser than all his enemies, and even over above his teachers, because God's testimonies are great for giving wisdom to live life. David says that every false way is detestable to him because of the effect God's Law has on his heart and his life. Note how this is the end effect of our faith in Yeshua and the infilling of God's Holy Spirit into our lives to convince us of sin in our lives unto repentance, and to turn back (Teshuvah) in repentance to the ways of God. It is in this way that we can say the same as David did, קה גַּר־לְרַגְלֵי דְבָרֶיךָ וְאוֹר לְנִתְיָבְתִּי: 119:105 Your word is a lamp to my feet And a light to my path. (NASB) The Word of God as it is written in the Torah is established and true, a solid foundation, it is upon this which we stand, this is how David understood the meaning of God's word being a lamp to see, and a light to walk by in this world that is filled with darkness (sin). This darkness of the enemy to God's people and replacement theology was brought into the church as a very early point as we read according to Justin Martyr and Origen of Alexandria.

Justin Martyr - Dialogue with Trypho (Circa 138-161 CE)

We too, would observe your circumcision of the flesh, your Sabbath days, and in a word, all your festivals, if we were not aware of the reason why they were imposed upon you, namely, because of your sins and the hardness of heart. The custom of circumcising the flesh, handed down from Abraham, was given to you as a distinguishing mark, to set you off from other nations and from us Christians. The purpose of this was that you and only you might suffer the afflictions that are now justly yours; that only your land be desolated, and your cities ruined by fire, that the fruits of your land be eaten by strangers before your very eyes; that not one of you be permitted to enter your city of Jerusalem. Your circumcision of the flesh is the only mark by which you can certainly be distinguished from other men\u2026as I stated before it was by reason of your sins and the sins of your fathers that, among other precepts, God imposed upon you the observance of the Sabbath as a mark.

Origen of Alexandria (185-254 CE)

We may thus assert in utter confidence that the Jews will not return to their earlier situation, for they have committed the most abominable of crimes, in forming this conspiracy against the Savior of the human race, hence the city where Jesus suffered was necessarily destroyed, the Jewish nation was driven from its country, and another people was called by God to the blessed election.

Justin Martyr and Origen of Alexandria provide for us a second and third century context of what had taken place and the prevailing theology at the time in relation to Israel. The leadership of this new Gentile “church” was quick to embrace the Roman government’s position regarding “the Jews” and was overtly hostile to anything Jewish, especially the Torah. Numerous false doctrines were established as early as the second century. Among these were the teachings that “the Law” was actually given as a punishment to the Jews, that Jerusalem had been destroyed and taken from the Jews due to their sin, and that the “Church” had replaced Israel as God’s people. The attitude of these two men (Justin Martyr and Origen of Alexandria) were not a random phenomenon. Roman society itself surrounding the time of Yeshua and Paul were very anti-Jewish. There were a lot of Roman rhetoric in those days in regards to the Jews living among them. (Jew and Gentile in the Ancient World, Louis H. Feldman, 1993, Princeton University Press, Princeton, NJ, pp. 123-176) In addition, Roman society was pagan and centered around the worship of many gods. This is understood by examining rabbinic halakhah and by Paul’s words to the Corinthians in relation to food sacrificed to idols (see 1 Corinthians 8). The Jewish people were despised for their peculiar religious practices and failure to worship the gods of Rome as every other conquered people was forced to do. (The Mystery of Romans, Mark Nanos, 1996, Fortress Press, Minneapolis, pp. 64-68) The new “Gentile Christians” came from this background and had no regard for anything in relation to what we read in Acts 15, as the synagogue service in which the Torah was read and to be leaned upon for wisdom in living our lives in righteousness and truth. Once the Jewish leadership had been removed, changes were put into effect via theologies that have held up even until today with little opposition.

צב אלולי אוריתך פרנוקי הידין אדין הובדית בסגופי: צג לעלם לא אתנשי, The Aramaic Targum states, אנשי פיקודיך ארום בהון קיימתני: צד די לך אנא פרוק יתי ארום פיקודיך תבעית: צה לוותי אמתינו רשיעיא להובדא יתי סהידוותך אתביין: צו לכל מה דאשתרי ואשתכלל דאשתדל ואסתכלל חמיית סיפא פתייא תפקדתך לחדא: צז מה כמה רחזימת אוריתך כל יומא היא שותי: צח יתיר מבעלי דבבי מחכמה יתי פיקודיך ארום לעלם היא דילי: צט מכל מאלפי אסכלית ארום סהידוותך שותא לי דילי: ק מן חכימא אתביין ארום פיקודיך נטרית: קא מכל אורח בישא מנעית ריגלי מן בגלל אטור דבריד: קב מן דיניך לא עדית ארום את אליפתני: קג מה כמה חלין למוריגי מימריך בסימן יתיר מן דובשא לפומי: קד מפקודיך אתביין מטול היכנא סניתי כל בר נש דמשקר: Had your Torah not been my delight, then I would have perished in my affliction. 119:92. The wicked waited for me to annihilate me; I will contemplate your commandments. 119:95. To everything that began and ended I have seen an end; your commands are very spacious. 119:96. I will gain insight from your commandments; because of this, I hate every son of man who lies. 119:105. Your words are like a lamp that illuminates my feet, and a light for my path. (EMC) The rabbis translate the text to be very similar to what we read in the Masoretic text without much added expansion for understanding. The point is these words are clear, to the point, and without exception direct the reader to the fact that God’s Torah is a way of life for God’s people. By the end of the 4th century, anything resembling a “pro-Torah” view of “the faith” had become non-existent in what is now called “Christianity.” The Councils of Antioch (341 CE) and Laodicea (360 CE) prohibited Christians from participating in anything that was considered Jewish and further distanced God’s people from following in the footsteps of the Messiah Yeshua. As one modern historian puts it, this was all done to show that Jewish tradition was, “inherently evil, obsolete and irrelevant for practical Christian life.” (Paul and the Jewish Law - Halakha in the Letters of the Apostle to the Gentiles, Peter J. Tomson, 1990, Fortress Press, Minneapolis, p. 3) What we know according to history is that faith in Yeshua went from being 100 percent Jewish to 100 percent anti-Jewish in less than 300 years.

David continues in his psalm to say the following, קו נִשְׁבַּעְתִּי וְאֶקְיָמָהּ לְשֹׁמֵר מִשְׁפָּטֶי צְדָקָה: קז נְעֻנִיתִי, עַד-מְאֹד יְהוָה חֲנִנִי כְדָבָרְךָ: קח נְדָבוֹת פִּי רָצָה-נָא יְהוָה וּמִשְׁפָּטֶיךָ לְמַדְנִי: קט נִפְשִׁי בְכַפִּי תָמִיד וְתוֹרָתְךָ לֹא שָׁכַחְתִּי: קי נָתַנּוּ רַשָּׁעִים פֶּחַח לִי וּמִפְקוּדֶיךָ לֹא תַעֲיִיתִי: קיא נַחֲלָתִי יַעֲדוּתֶיךָ לְעוֹלָם כִּי-שָׁשׂוֹן לְבִי הִמָּה: קיב נָטִיתִי לְבִי לַעֲשׂוֹת חֻקֶיךָ לְעוֹלָם עֵקֶב: קיג סַעֲפִים שָׁנְאַתִּי וְתוֹרָתְךָ אֶהְבֵּתִי: קיד סִתְרִי וּמִגִּנִּי אָתָּה לְדָבָרְךָ יִחַלֵּתִי: קטו סוּרוּ מִמִּנִּי מְרַעִים וְאַצְרָה מִצּוֹת אֱלֹהֶי: קטז סִמְכַנִּי כְּאִמְרָתְךָ וְאַחֲזֶה וְאֶל-תְּבִישָׁנִי מִשְׁכָּרִי: קיז סַעֲדָנִי וְאַשְׁעָה וְאַשְׁעָה בְּחֻקֶיךָ תָּמִיד: קיח סְלִיתָ כָּל-שׂוֹגִים מִחֻקֶיךָ כִּי-שָׁקַר תִּרְמִיתָם: קיט סִמְר מִפְחָדְךָ בְּשָׂרִי וּמִמִּשְׁפָּטֶיךָ יִרְאתִי: 119:106 I have sworn and I will confirm it, That I will keep Your righteous ordinances. 119:107 I am exceedingly afflicted; Revive me, O Lord, according to Your word. 119:108 O accept the freewill offerings of my mouth, O Lord, And teach me Your ordinances. 119:109 My life is continually in my hand, Yet I do not forget Your law. 119:110 The wicked have laid a snare for me, Yet I have not gone astray from Your precepts. 119:111 I have inherited Your testimonies forever, For they are the joy of my heart. 119:112 I have inclined my heart to perform Your statutes Forever, even to the end. 119:113 I hate those who are double-minded, But I love Your law. 119:114 You are my hiding place and my shield; I wait for Your word. 119:115 Depart from me, evildoers, That I may observe the commandments of my God. 119:116 Sustain me according to Your word, that I may live; And do not let me be ashamed of my hope. 119:117 Uphold me that I may be safe, That I may have regard for Your statutes continually. 119:118 You have rejected all those who wander from Your statutes, For their deceitfulness is useless. 119:119 You have removed all the wicked of the earth like dross; Therefore I love Your testimonies. 119:120 My flesh trembles for fear of You, And I am afraid of Your judgments. (NASB) David says that he sworn (נִשְׁבַּעְתִּי) and confirms (raises up, establishes, וְאֶקְיָמָהּ) to keep the righteous judgments of God. This is important for understanding the anti-Semitic and anti-Torah ideologies and theologies of the early Church leaders and the later Protestant “reformers,” based upon the history of the church. These early leaders set the foundation of replacement theology for all Christian opinion, Catholic and Protestant, to this day. All “interpretation” of the Scriptures that have been and are being taught by Christian teachers, authors or institutions, including every Christian Bible translation available and accompanying footnotes and commentary, study course, radio show, and seminary teaching curriculum and movies, has been filtered through the doctrines of these men include these hundreds of years of compounded error and theology on the Torah of God. David states that the Word of the Lord revives him. This Word of God is the Torah, the Law of God. He speaks of inheriting God’s testimonies and has inclined his heart to live his life according to His testimonies until the end, his death. He requests that the wicked depart from his presence so that he can observe the commandments of God. It is by reason that the Lord removes the wicked from the earth and keeps him safe that he chooses to love the testimonies of God and not wander from God’s truth.

Yeshua the Messiah was a rabbi and a Pharisee of his time and his teachings were not much different from the prevailing rabbis of his time. Modern theologies and theologians today believe and teach that the teachings of Yeshua differed completely from those of the Talmud. They believe there were no moral teachings of value as compared to those of Yeshua. They believe the rabbis in the Talmud have little to no value as compared to Yeshua indicating there is very little worth to study the rabbis. A review of the early church fathers makes these points clear, the church has for centuries held this position that the opinion of the rabbis (latter compiled in the Talmud and Mishnah) was of little value, which is the reason they would burn their books and their synagogues. The problem is today this is a common Christian opinion, the reason being few Christians have looked for themselves to see what the Talmud says. This is a task however not for those who would simply gloss over the rabbinic texts. In order to understand the rabbis, one must exercise due diligence to understand the underlying point the rabbis are trying to make through their method of exegesis of the text of the Torah, Neviim, and Cetuvim (Law, Prophets, and Writings). The point is these texts are not written in a western style of literature and so these texts appear to be disjointed comments on many subjects. The rabbis however use a method of explanation that appears disjointed, but in reality it is not! Understanding the Rabbis requires a solid knowledge of the Scriptures to sort out what the Rabbis are trying to say, and to determine the point they are trying to make. Most of the time their point is not explicit. When we compare the words of Yeshua to the rabbis, it is interesting that we find something quite different from what Christian teachers and theologians would have us believe.

Teachings of YESHUA	TALMUDIC Teachings
The Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath. - Mark 2:27	Rabbi Jonathan ben Joseph said: For it is holy unto you; I.e., it [the Sabbath] is committed to your hands, not you to its hands. - Talmud: Yoma 85b
Then shall he answer them, saying, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye did it not to one of the least of these, ye did it not to me. - Matthew 25:45	One who betrays his fellow, it is as if he has betrayed God. - Tosefta Shvuot, ch. 3
Insulting someone is like murder.- Matthew 5:21-22	He who publicly shames his neighbour is as though he shed blood.- Talmud: Bava Mezia 58b
But I say unto you, That whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart. - Matthew 5:28	One who gazes lustfully upon the small finger of a married woman, it is as if he has committed adultery with her.- Kallah, Ch. 1
That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust. - Matthew 5:45	Rabbi Abbahu said: The day when rain fails is greater than [the day of] the Revival of the Dead,- for the Revival of the Dead is for the righteous only whereas rain is both for the righteous and for the wicked - Talmud: Taanit 7a
Take heed that ye do not your alms before men, to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no reward of your Father which is in heaven. - Matthew 6:1	In the case of the recital of the Shema, since everybody else recites, and he also recites, it does not look like showing off on his part; but in the case of the month of Ab, since everybody else does work and he does no work, it looks like showing off.- Talmud: Berachot 17b
But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth. - Matthew 6:3	What kind of charity is that which delivers a man from an unnatural death? When a man gives without knowing to whom he gives. and the beggar receives without knowing from whom he receives. - Talmud: Bava Batra 10a - 10b
But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.- Matthew 6:7	If one draws out his prayer and expects therefore its fulfilment, he will in the end suffer vexation of heart, as it says, Hope deferred maketh the heart sick. - Talmud: Berachot 55a
Do not worry about where your food will come from tomorrow, or your drink. - Matthew 6:25-31	Rabbi Eliezer the Great declares: Whoever has a piece of bread in his basket and Says. "What shall I eat tomorrow?" belongs only to them who are little in faith. - Talmud: Sotah 48b

Take therefore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof. - Matthew 6:34	A parable: [They were] like a man who was kept in prison and people told him: To-morrow, they will release you from the prison and give you plenty of money. And he answered them: I pray of you, let me go free today and I shall ask nothing more! - Talmud: Berachot 9b
Let your Yes be Yes and your No be No. - Matthew 5:34-37	A righteous yes is a Yes; a righteous no is No. - Talmud: Bava Batra 49b
At that time Jesus answered and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes. - Matthew 11:25	Rabbi Johanan said: Since the Temple was destroyed, prophecy has been taken from prophets and given to fools and children. - Talmud: Bava Batra 12b
And if thy right eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell. And if thy right hand offend thee, cut it off, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell. - Matthew 5:29-30	Come and hear what was taught: Rabbi Tarfon said, "If his hand touched the membrum let his hand be cut off upon his belly". "But", they said to him, "would not his belly be split"? "It is preferable", he replied, "that his belly shall be split rather than that he should go down into the pit of destruction". - Talmud: Niddah 13b
But be not ye called Rabbi: for one is your Master, even Christ; and all ye are brethren. - Matthew 23:8	Shemaiah used to say: love work, hate acting the superior, and do not bring thyself to the knowledge of the ruling authority. - Mishnah: Avot 1:10
Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh. - Matthew 24:44	Even as R. Zera, who, whenever he chanced upon scholars engaged thereon [I.e., in calculating the time of the Messiah's coming], would say to them: I beg of you, do not postpone it, for it has been taught: Three come unawares: Messiah, a found article and a scorpion. - Talmud: Sanhedrin 97a
Yeshua taught in a parable that they can please the king (God) by pleasing one another. - Matthew 25:40 And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me. - Matthew 25:40	Rabbi simeon said: if three have eaten at one table and have not spoken thereat words of torah, [it is] as if they had eaten sacrifices [offered] to the dead, for [of such persons] it is said, for all tables are full of filthy vomit, [they are] without the All-Present. But, if three have eaten at one table, and have spoken thereat words of torah, [it is] as if they had eaten at the table of the All-Present, blessed be he, as it is said, this is the table before the LORD. - Mishnah: Avot 3:3
Love your enemy. - Matthew 5:43 Ye have heard that it hath been said, Thou shalt love thy neighbour, and hate thine enemy. But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you; - Matthew 5:43	They who are insulted but insult not back; who hear themselves reproached but answer not; who serve out of love and rejoice in their affliction--of them it is written in Scripture: They that love God are as the going forth of the sun in its might. - Talmud: Yoma 23a, Gitin 36b, Shabat 88b

Therefore if thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath aught against thee; Leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift. - Matthew 5:23-24

If a man said, "I will sin and repent, and sin again and repent", he will be given no chance to repent. [If he said,] "I will sin and the Day of Atonement will effect atonement", then the Day of Atonement effects no atonement. For transgressions that are between man and God the Day of Atonement effects atonement, but for transgressions that are between a man and his fellow the Day of Atonement effects atonement only if he has appeased his fellow - Mishnah: Yoma 8:9

A comparison of these select verses from the Apostolic Writings (note there are more) reveals much of what Yeshua taught and said was not original but come from the teachings of the rabbis. This comparison reveals the errors that are being taught today at the pulpit. As the children of God, we should never get comfortable being fed a theology or whatever comes from the pulpit that supports a theology without solid support from the Scriptures and the rabbinic literature. According to the Apostolic Writings, Yeshua was a Pharisee, we have pointed out previously various references demonstrating this, Yeshua not only quoted and supported Pharisaic teaching, as we see in the comparison above, He also upheld the religious authority of the Pharisees. He told the people to obey the Pharisees, as they "sat in Moses' seat," meaning their authority has come from God. (Matthew 23:1-3) According to the Scriptures, Yeshua criticized the Pharisees for their hypocrisy, for example, making the fence laws greater than the Torah commands themselves. This type of criticism was not outside of what was a common practice between the various factions within the houses of thought (Pharisee, Sadducee, etc) In fact, the Talmud teaches that the Pharisees said there were seven types of Pharisees according to the Talmud Bavli Sotah 22b.

Talmud Bavli Sotah 22b.

ומכות פרושין וכו' ת"ר שבעה פרושין הן פרוש שיכמי פרוש נקפי פרוש קיזאי פרוש מדוכאי פרוש מיראה It states in the mishna: And those who injure themselves out of false abstinence [perushin] are people who erode the world. The Sages taught: There are seven pseudo-righteous people who erode the world: The righteous of Shechem, the self-flagellating righteous, the bloodletting righteous, the pestle-like righteous, the righteous who say: Tell me what my obligation is and I will perform it, those who are righteous due to love, and those who are righteous due to fear.

This section of the Talmud goes on to define these seven types of righteous persons (Pharisees). As we find in the Apostolic Writings, Yeshua called some of them "sons of Satan." This was not an unfamiliar dialogue among religious peoples at that time. The same term was used by the disciples of Rabbi Hillel to describe a disciple of Rabbi Shammai, just before Yeshua's time. When Yeshua spoke he often explained his position based upon the existing interpretation of the Scriptures, where much of the Judaism of his time interpretation had been worked out before Yeshua arrived (i.e. Rabbis Hillel and Shammai). One example may be found in Matthew 7:12 in the golden rule. Yeshua said, "Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets." Rabbi Hillel taught this years previously saying, "What you do not like, do not do to anyone else; this is the whole Torah and everything else is explanation." (Talmud Bavli Shabbat 31a) Yeshua upheld the teachings of Hillel (who was the grandfather of Gamliel, who instructed the Apostle Paul). Hillel's opinions were actually considered more "liberal." On rare occasion, such as His ruling on divorce (Matthew 5:31). Note that Yeshua also upheld the teachings of Shammai, which taught more to what may be called "the letter of the Law." Compare Matthew 23:23 to Ma'asrot 4:5-6, Mark 3:2-4 to Tosefta Shabbat 7:14, Luke, Ch. 15 to Avot D'Rebbe Natan 3:1, and John, 5 to Talmud Bavli Betzah 26b. The evidence is overwhelming when we compare the Talmud to the Apostolic Writings. This supports the idea that Yeshua was a Pharisee, note how John HaMatbil (Baptist) said that one among THEM (the Pharisees) was the Messiah to come (see John 1:26-27). Yeshua lived as a Jew and a rabbi who wore tzitzit (Bamidbar / Numbers 15:37-41), he upheld the Torah, his quotes are found in the Talmud, and he was Orthodox in His practices. Let's Pray!

Heavenly Father,

Thank You Lord for Your mercy and the great work that you are doing in our lives. We believe You are able to overcome all things, from saving us from our enemies, to the deliverance from sin, and even to work in our hearts to deeply, truly, and honestly seek you all the days of our lives. We recognize the weaknesses in our strength and resolve to serve You and to do what is expected, to be humble and to pray and to remain in Your word. Lord help us to have the strength to stand for truth and life, to have the desire to seek You in prayer and in Your Word, to have faith in Yeshua Your Messiah, and to love our neighbor each day. We thank You Lord for Your continued faithfulness to Your promises and to us. Help us to grow in our faith, to walk in the spirit, and apply these truths to our lives. We praise Your Holy Name and give You all of the honor, and the glory, and the praise forever and ever.

In Yeshua's (Jesus') Name we pray! Amen!

Be Blessed in Yeshua, Christ our Messiah!

הללויה לאדוננו מורנו ורבינו ישוע מלך המשיח לעולם ועד:

Hallelujah for our Lord, our Teacher, our Rabbi,
"Yeshua" King Messiah forever and ever
