Living in His Ways by Obeying the Gospel of Christ!

Part a:

This week's study is from Tehillim / Psalms 18:1-50, The Psalm begins saying לְעָבָד לְעָבָד יהוֹה לְדוד אֲשֶׁר דְבֶר | לִיהוֹה אֶת-דְבָרֵי הֵשִׁירָה הֵזֹּאת בִּיוֹם | הציל-יִהוֹה אוֹתוֹ מכַּף כָּל-איִבִיו ומיַד שָׁאוּל: "For the choir director. A Psalm of David the servant of the Lord, who spoke to the Lord the words of this song in the day that the Lord delivered him from the hand of all his enemies and from the hand of Saul." According to this Psalm, these are the words that David spoke to the Lord and the Lord God Almighty delivered him from all of his enemies and from the hand of Saul. Because of the deliverance of the mighty hand of God, ב וַיֹאמַר אֶרְחָמְדָ יְהֹוָה חִזְקִי: ג יְהֹוָה סַלְעִי וּמְצוּדָתִי וּמְפַלְטִי אֵלִי צוּרִי אֶחֱסֶה-בּוֹ מָגִנִי וְקֶרֶן יִשְׁעִי מִשְׂגַבִּי: David sings ד מָהְלָל אָקָרָא יְהוֹה וּמן-איִבִי אוּשׁעַ: 18:1 'I love You, O Lord, my strength.' 18:2 The Lord is my rock and my fortress and my deliverer, My God, my rock, in whom I take refuge; My shield and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold. 18:3 I call upon the Lord, who is worthy to be praised, And I am saved from my enemies. (NASB) David continues describing the way in which he felt when his enemies surrounded him on all sides saving :ה אֲפָפּוּנִי הֶבְלֵי-מֶוֶת וְנַחֵלֵי בִלְיַעֵל יִבַעֵתוּנִי: ו הֵבְלֵי שָׁאוֹל סְבַבוּנִי הָדָמוּנִי מוֹקשׁי מוֵת 18:4 The cords of death encompassed me, And the torrents of ungodliness terrified me. 18:5 The cords of Sheol surrounded me; The snares of death confronted me. (NASB) Because of his grief over the enemies that surround him, David called out to the Lord God Almighty for help (ז בַּצָּר-לי | אָקָרָא יָהוָה וָאָל-אָלהָי אָשׁוּע יִשָּׁמע מהיכַלוֹ קוֹלי ה והגעש והרעש הארץ) and He heard his cry from heaven. David then said that (שועתי לפניו הבוא באזניו: וּמוֹסָדי הרים ירָגזוּ ויתַגעַשוּ כּי חרה לוֹ: ט עלה עשן בָאפּוֹ וָאשׁ מפּיו תֹאכל גחלים בערוּ ממַנוּ: י ויט שמים וירד וערפָל וּתַת רַגְלַיו: יא וַיִּרְכָּב עַל-כָּרוּב וַיֵּעֹף וַיִּדָא עַל-כַּנָפִי-רוּחַ: 18:7 Then the earth shook and quaked; And the foundations of the mountains were trembling And were shaken, because He was angry. 18:8 Smoke went up out of His nostrils, And fire from His mouth devoured; Coals were kindled by it. 18:9 He bowed the heavens also, and came down With thick darkness under His feet. (NASB) Nahum 1:5 states "1:5 The mountains quake at him, and the hills melt, and the earth is burned at his presence, yes, the world, and all that dwell therein." It is a dangerous to come against the children of the Lord God whose presence causes the earth to tremble. The earth is described as burning in His presence, how much more so will the wicked burn on His coming?

Tehillim / Psalms 18

For the choir director. A Psalm of David the servant of the Lord, who spoke to the Lord the words of this song in the day that the Lord delivered him from the hand of all his enemies and from the hand of Saul. And he said, 18:1 'I love You, O Lord, my strength.' 18:2 The Lord is my rock and my fortress and my deliverer, My God, my rock, in whom I take refuge; My shield and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold. 18:3 I call upon the Lord, who is worthy to be praised, And I am saved from my enemies. 18:4 The cords of death encompassed me, And the torrents of ungodliness terrified me. 18:5 The cords of Sheol surrounded me; The snares of death confronted me. 18:6 In my distress I called upon the Lord, And cried to my God for help; He heard my voice out of His temple, And my cry for help before Him came into His ears. 18:7 Then the earth shook and guaked; And the foundations of the mountains were trembling And were shaken, because He was angry. 18:8 Smoke went up out of His nostrils, And fire from His mouth devoured; Coals were kindled by it. 18:9 He bowed the heavens also, and came down With thick darkness under His feet. 18:10 He rode upon a cherub and flew; And He sped upon the wings of the wind. 18:11 He made darkness His hiding place, His canopy around Him, Darkness of waters, thick clouds of the skies. 18:12 From the brightness before Him passed His thick clouds, Hailstones and coals of fire. 18:13 The Lord also thundered in the heavens, And the Most High uttered His voice, Hailstones and coals of fire. 18:14 He sent out His arrows, and scattered them, And lightning flashes in abundance, and routed them. 18:15 Then the channels of water appeared, And the foundations of the world were laid bare At Your rebuke, O Lord, At the blast of the breath of Your nostrils. 18:16 He sent from on high, He took me; He drew me out of many waters. 18:17 He delivered me from my strong enemy, And from those who hated me, for they were too mighty for me. 18:18 They confronted me in the day of my calamity, But the Lord was my stay. (NASB)

Toviyah / Psalms Chapter 18

18:1 For praise. About the miracles that occurred to the servant of the Lord, David, who sang in prophecy in the presence of the Lord the words of this song about all the days that the Lord delivered him from the hand of all his enemies and from the sword of Saul. 18:2 And he said: I will love you. O Lord. my strength. 18:3 O Lord, my strength and my security and the one who delivers me; the God who has chosen me has brought me near to fear him; my shield, from whose presence is given me strength and redemption over my enemies; my security. 18:4 David said in praise: "I pray in the Lord's presence, and from my enemies he redeems me." 18:5 Distress has surrounded me, like a woman who sits on the birthstool and has no strength to give birth and so is in danger of death; a band of abusive men has terrified me. 18:6 Armies of sinners have surrounded me; those armed with deadly weapons have confronted me. 18:7 When I am in distress, I pray in the presence of the Lord: and in the presence of my God I make supplication; and he accepts my prayer from his temple, and my petition in his presence is received by his ears, and is granted. 18:8 The earth trembled and shook and the foundations of the mountains tottered, and split. for he was angry with it. 18:9 The arrogance of Pharaoh went up like smoke: then he sent his anger like a burning fire that consumes before him; his rebuke burns at his utterance like coals of fire. 18:10 And he bent down the heavens, and his glory was manifested, a dark cloud a path before him. 18:11 So he was manifested in his strength over swift cherubs; and he proceeded in might on the wings of the storm-wind, 18:12 And he made his presence dwell in the mist, and surrounded himself with the clouds of his glory as a covering; and he made favorable rains to fall on his people, and mighty waters from the massed clouds of darkness on the wicked from the eternal heights. 18:13 From the splendor of his glory the clouds of heaven passed by in rebuke like the coals of fire and burning hail from his word. 18:14 And the Lord gave a shout from heaven, and the Most High raised up his utterance; he cast hail and coals of fire. 18:15 And he sent his word like arrows, and scattered them; [he sent] many lightning bolts, and confounded them. 18:16 And the depths of the sea became visible, and the pillars of the world were uncovered at the rebuke of the Lord,78 from the utterance of your mighty wrath. 18:17 He sent his prophets, [he who is] a mighty king who reigns in strength; he took me [and] delivered me from many Gentiles. 18:18 He delivered me from my enemies, for they are strong; from my foes, for they prevailed against me. Psalmoi / Psalms 18

For the end, a Psalm of David, the servant of the Lord: the words which he spoke to the Lord, even the words of this Song, in the day in which the Lord delivered him out the hand of all his enemies, and out the hand of Saul: and he said: 18:1 I will love thee, O Lord, my strength. 18:2 The Lord is my firm support, and my refuge, and my deliverer; my God is my helper, I will hope in him; he is my defender, and the horn of my salvation, and my helper. 18:3 I will call upon the Lord with praises, and I shall be saved from mine enemies. 18:4 The pangs of death compassed me, and the torrents of ungodliness troubled me exceedingly. 18:5 The pangs of hell came round about me: the snares of death prevented me. 18:6 And when I was afflicted I called upon the Lord, and cried to my God: he heard my voice out of this holy temple, and my cry shall enter before him, even into his ears. 18:7 Then the earth shook and quaked, and the foundations of the mountains were disturbed, and were shaken, because God was angry with them. 18:8 There went up a smoke in his wrath, and fire burst into a flame at his presence: coals were kindled at it. 18:9 And he bowed the heaven, and came down: and thick darkness was under his feet. 18:10 And he mounted on cherubs and flew: he flew on the wings of winds. 18:11 And he made darkness his secret place: round about him was his tabernacle, even dark water in the clouds of the air. 18:12 At the brightness before him the clouds passed, hail and coals of fire. 18:13 The Lord also thundered from heaven, and the Highest uttered his voice. 18:14 And he sent forth his weapons, and scattered them; and multiplied lightnings, and routed them. 18:15 And the springs of waters appeared, and the foundations of the world were exposed, at thy rebuke, O Lord, at the blasting of the breath of thy wrath. 18:16 He sent from on high and took me, he drew me to himself out of many waters. 18:17 He will deliver me from my mighty enemies, and from them that hate me; for they are stronger than I. 18:18 They prevented me in the day of mine affliction: but the Lord was my stay against them.(LXX)

And who is a rock, except our God, 18:32 The God who girds me with strength And makes my way blameless? (NASB)

18:19 They confronted me in the day of my wandering; but the word of the Lord was my support. 18:20 And he brought me out to a broad place, he delivered me because he was pleased with me. 18:21 The Lord will requite me[86] according to my merit; according to the cleanness of my hands he will answer me. 18:22 For I have kept the proper ways in the Lord's presence; and I have not walked in evil before the Lord. 18:23 For all his judgments are revealed in my sight, to do them; and his covenants I will not remove from me. 18:24 And I was blameless in fear of him; and I kept my soul from sins. 18:25 And the Lord rewarded me according to my merit; according to the cleanness of my hands in the presence of his word. 18:26 With Abraham, who was found pious in your presence, you showed much mercy; with his seed, Isaac, who was complete in fear of you, you completed your favorable word. 18:27 With Jacob, who was pure in your presence, you chose his sons from all the Gentiles, and separated his seed from all that is unfit; but with Pharaoh and his seed, and the Egyptians who thought evil thoughts against your people, you confounded them in their thoughts. 18:28 Because you are going to redeem the people, the house of Israel, who are esteemed among the peoples in exile; and by your word you will abase the mighty nations who prevail over them. 18:29 For you will light the lamp of Israel that was extinguished in the exile, for you are the lord of the light of Israel. The Lord my God will bring me out of darkness into light; he will show me his eternal consolation which is to come to the righteous. 18:30 For by your word I will pass through armies; and by the word of my God I will subdue mighty citadels. 18:31 God [is he] whose ways are true; the Torah of the Lord is pure; he is a shield to all who trust in him. 18:32 For because of the miracle and deliverance that you will perform for your Messiah, and for the remnants of your people who will remain, all the Gentiles, nations, and tongues will confess and say, There is no God but the Lord, for there is none besides you; and your people will say, There is none mighty except our God. (EMC)

18:19 And he brought me out into a wide place: he will deliver me, because he has pleasure in me. 18:20 And the Lord will recompense me according to my righteousness; even according to the purity of my hands will he recompense me. 18:21 For I have kept the way of the Lord and have not wickedly departed from my God. 18:22 For all his judgments were before me, and his ordinances departed not from me. 18:23 And I shall be blameless with hem, and shall keep myself from mine iniquity. 18:24 And the Lord shall recompense me according to my righteousness, and according to the purity of my hands before his eyes. 18:25 With the holy thou wilt be holy; and with the innocent man thou wilt be innocent. 18:26 And with the excellent man thou wilt be excellent; and with the perverse thou wilt shew frowardness. 18:27 For thou wilt save the lowly people, and wilt humble the eyes of the proud. 18:28 For thou, O Lord, wilt light my lamp: my God, thou wilt lighten my darkness. 18:29 For by thee shall I be delivered from a troop; and by my God I will pass over a wall. 18:30 As for my God, his way is perfect: the oracles of the Lord are tried in the fire; he is a protector of all them that hope in him. 18:31 For who is God but the Lord? and who is a God except our God? 18:32 It is God that girds me with strength, and has made my way blameless: (LXX)

18:33 who strengthens my feet as hart's feet, and sets me upon high places. 18:34 He instructs my hands for war: and thou hast made my arms as a brazen bow. 18:35 And thou hast made me secure in my salvation: and thy right hand has helped me, and thy correction has upheld me to the end; yea, thy correction itself shall instruct me. 18:36 Thou has made room for my goings under me, and by footsteps did not fail. 18:37 I will pursue mine enemies, and overtake them; and I will not turn back until they are consumed. 18:38 I will dash them to pieces and they shall not be able to stand: they shall fall under my feet. 18:39 For thou hast girded me with strength for war: thou hast beaten down under me all that rose up against me. 18:40 And thou has made mine enemies turn their backs before me; and thou hast destroyed them that hated me. 18:41 They cried, but there was no deliverer: even to the Lord, but he hearkened not to them. 18:42 I will grind them as the mud of the streets: and I will beat them small as dust before the wind. 18:43 Deliver me from the gain sayings of the people: thou shalt make me head of the Gentiles: a people whom I knew not served me, 18:44 at the hearing of the ear they obeyed me: the strange children lied to me. 18:45 The strange children waxed old, and fell away from their paths through lameness. 18:46 The Lord lives; and blessed be my God; and let the God of my salvation be exalted. 18:47 It is God that avenges me, and has subdued the nations under me; 18:48 my deliverer from angry enemies: thou shalt set me on high above them that rise up against me: thou shalt deliver me from the unrighteous man. 18:49 Therefore will I confess to thee, O Lord, among the Gentiles, and sing to thy name. 18:50 God magnifies the deliverances of his king; and deals mercifully with David his anointed, and his seed, for ever. About the miracles that occurred to the servant of the Lord, David, who sang in prophecy in the presence of the Lord the words of this song about all the days that the Lord delivered him from the hand of all his enemies and from the sword of Saul. (EMC)* The rabbis believed that David spoke in the spirit of prophecy (בנבואה) of the miracles that God had performed for David. What miracles did God provide for David during his life?

Ecause of the deliverance and the miracles of the mighty hand of God, David sings to the Lord ב וַיָּאבִר אָרְחָמְד יְהֹנָה חִזְקִי: ג יְהֹנָה סַלְעִי וּמְצוּדָתִי וּמְפַלְטִי אֵלִי צוּרִי אֶחֱסָה-בּוֹ מָגִנִּי וְקֶרֶן יִשָּׁעִי מִשְׂגַבִּי: ד מְהַלָּל וַיָּאבָר אָרְחָמְד יְהֹנָה חִזְקִי: ג יְהֹנָה סַלְעִי וּמְצוּדָתִי וּמְפַלְטִי אֵלִי צוּרִי אֶחֱסָה-בּוֹ מָגנִי וְקֶרָן יִשָּׁעִי מִשְׂגַבִּי: ד מְהַלָּל וווייז 18:2 The Lord is my rock and my fortress and my deliverer, My God, my rock, in whom I take refuge; My shield and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold. 18:3 I call upon the Lord, who is worthy to be praised, And I am saved from my enemies. (NASB) Tehillim / Psalms 18:2 is referenced in Hebrews 2:13, shown below.

Hebrews 2:11-16

2:11 For both He who sanctifies and those who are sanctified are all from one Father for which reason He is not ashamed to call them brethren, 2:12 saying, 'I will proclaim Your name to My brethren, In the midst of the congregation I will sing Your praise.' 2:13 And again, 'I will put My trust in Him.' And again, 'Behold, I and the children whom God has given Me.' 2:14 Therefore, since the children share in flesh and blood, He Himself likewise also partook of the same, that through death He might render powerless him who had the power of death, that is, the devil, 2:15 and might free those who through fear of death were subject to slavery all their lives. 2:16 For assuredly He does not give help to angels, but He gives help to the descendant of Abraham. (NASB)

¹¹ὁ τε γὰρ ἁγιάζων καὶ οἱ ἁγιαζόμενοι ἐξ ἑνὸς πάντες: δι' ἣν αἰτίαν οὐκ ἐπαισχύνεται ἀδελφοὺς αὐτοὺς καλεῖν, ¹²λέγων, Ἀπαγγελῶ τὸ ὄνομά σου τοῖς ἀδελφοῖς μου, ἐν μέσῷ ἐκκλησίας ὑμνήσω σε: ¹³καὶ πάλιν, Ἐγὼ ἔσομαι πεποιθὼς ἐπ' αὐτῷ: καὶ πάλιν, Ἰδοὺ ἐγὼ καὶ τὰ παιδία ἅ μοι ἔδωκεν ὁ θεός. ¹⁴ἐπεὶ οὖν τὰ παιδία κεκοινώνηκεν αἵματος καὶ σαρκός, καὶ αὐτὸς παραπλησίως μετέσχεν τῶν αὐτῶν, ἵνα διὰ τοῦ θανάτου καταργήσῃ τὸν τὸ κράτος ἔχοντα τοῦ θανάτου, τοῦτ' ἔστιν τὸν διάβολον, ¹⁵καὶ ἀπαλλάξῃ τούτους, ὅσοι φόβῷ θανάτου διὰ παντὸς τοῦ ζῆν ἔνοχοι ἦσαν δουλείας. ¹⁶οὐ γὰρ δήπου ἀγγέλων ἐπιλαμβάνεται, ἀλλὰ σπέρματος Ἀβραὰμ ἐπιλαμβάνεται.

David trusted in the strength of God and gave Him praise. The author of Hebrews states that "I will place my trust in Him" just like David. Trust and faith are in the Lord who has the power to overcome death. In Hebrews 2:16, interestingly the Scripture states that ¹⁶où yàp $\delta\eta\pi$ ou àyy $\epsilon\lambda\omega\nu$ $\epsilon\pi\iota\lambda\alpha\mu\beta$ áv $\epsilon\tau\alpha\iota$, $a\lambda\lambda$ à $\sigma\pi\epsilon\rho\mu\alpha\tau$ oç Àβραൠ $\epsilon\pi\iota\lambda\alpha\mu\beta$ áv $\epsilon\tau\alpha\iota$. 2:16 For assuredly He does not give help to angels, but He gives help to the descendant of Abraham. (NASB) Based upon Hebrews 2:16, it appears all of the previous verses are restricted to those who are descendants of Abraham. Does this mean that only the descendants of Abraham (Israel, the Jews) are saved, that God sent His son only for the descendants of Abraham? What does it mean to be a descendant of Abraham? Can a person of non-Jewish descent be a child of Abraham? (Read John chapter 8)

ב וַיֹּאמַר אֶרְחָמְדְ יְהוָה חִזְקִי: ג יְהוָה סַלְעִי וּמְצוּדָתִי מַאַצּדָיָ בָּ חַמָלָ אָקָרָא יְהוָה חַזְקִי: ג יְהוָה סַלְעִי וּמְצוּדָתִי מָשְצַבִּי: ד מְהַלָּל אָקָרָא יְהוָה וּמִן-איְבַי אָנָשַׁעַ: איַבו מָגִנִּי וְקָרָן יִשְׁעִי מִשְצַבִּי: ד מְהַלָל אָקָרָא יְהוָה וּמִן-איְבַי אָנָשַע: my strength.' 18:2 The Lord is my rock and my fortress and my deliverer, My God, my rock, in whom I take refuge; My shield and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold. (NASB) In verses 1 and 2 David describes God as the following:

Summary of the indirect ways David refers to God

- 1. Strength (הַזְקָי)
- Rock (סַלְעִי, צוּרִי)
- 3. Fortress (וּמְצוּדְהִי)
- Deliverer (יָשֶׁעִי)
- Shield (מֶגְנִי)
- Horn of Salvation (יְקֶרֶן יִשְׁעִי)
- 7. Stronghold (מִשְׂגַרִי)

David refers to the Lord as his strength, his rock, his fortress, his deliverer, his shield, the Horn of his salvation, and his stronghold. The use of these attributes of God, in the security, unmoving nature of God's promises, we are reminded of the Torah portion from Parashat Ha'azinu, "to listen, give ear" Devarim / Deuteronomy 32:1-52. In Parashat Ha'azinu, Moshe writes a song that he spoke to the children of Israel in Devarim Deuteronomy 32:1-52. Previously in the Torah, the Lord God told Moshe that Joshua will lead the people after his death. The Lord told Moshe to write down this song (ועתה כתבו לכם את-השירה הזאת) and the song will be a witness against them -לְמַעַן תִּהְיֵה-לִי הֲשִׁירָה הֲזֹאת לְעֵד בְּבְנֵי יִשְׂרָאֵל וַיִדָבֶר מֹשֵׁה בִּאַזְנֵי כֵּל (Devarim / Deuteronomy 31:29-30). 31:30 Then Moses spoke in the hearing of all the assembly of Israel the words of this song, until they were complete: (NASB.) In the opening verse of Parashat Ha'azinu Moshe calls Heaven (השמים) and Earth (הארץ) as witnesses to the covenant (הָאָזִינוּ הַשְׁמִים וַאָדַבָּרָה וְתִשְׁמֵע הָאָרֶץ אָמְרֵי-פִי). Calling the solid unmoving (unchanging) Heaven and Earth as a witness implies that the unmovable things are watching should the children of Israel break the covenant and disobey God. Moshe proclaims the name of the Lord (כִי שֶׁם יָהוָה אֵקָרָא) saying He is our Rock (הַצוּר), that His work is perfect (הַמִים פַּעֵלוֹ), all of his ways are in truth (הַצוּר), (כִּי כַל-דְרַכֵיו מִשְׁפַט אָל אֱמוּנָה), there is no injustice (אין עַוָל), only righteousness (צדיק) and that He is straight (וְיָשֵׁר) meaning that God is upright and just. It is highly likely that David obtained his understanding on the strength of God, the Rock, the unmovable nature of God from Parashat Ha'azinu. Moshe then says שָׁחֵת לוֹ לֹא בַּנֵיו מוּמֵם דוֹר עָקֵשׁ imeaning "They have acted corruptly toward Him, They are not His children, because of their defect; But are a perverse and crooked generation." In these opening verses, Moshe is contrasting the absolute goodness of God with our impoverished and fallen lives. In these verses, the Lord God is described as our "Rock" (הצור) in Devarim / Deuteronomy 32:4; David also describes God as his rock and fortress. King Solomon describes God as a strong tower in Mishley / Proverbs 18:10 which says, "The name of Adonai is a strong tower; The righteous runs into it and are safe." The reason David describes God as his rock and fortress is because of the Torah principle that the Lord our Father has purchased us (אביך קנך הוא) and that He establishes us (עשר ויכנור). Throughout Scripture the Lord is described using these solid and unmoving characteristics (i.e. Heaven and earth, rocks, etc). In the covenantal song found in Parashat Ha'azinu, the words and phrases are representative providing greater meaning by what they stand for. Thinking hebraically, the words carry meaning beyond what the plane dictionary definition may provide.

The insight the Torah provides for us this week, in regard to Tehillim / Psalms 18:1-2, is on the use of the word "rock" as a circumlocution for the Name of God (Devarim / Deuteronomy 32:4). Devarim / Deuteronomy 32:4, states "The Rock! His work is perfect. For all His ways are just. A God of faithfulness and without injustice, Righteous and upright is He." The context of the verse in Tehillim / Psalms 18 brings us right back to the Torah that "The Rock" is a reference to God. Stones were commonly used for buildings and for memorials of important events (see Genesis 28:18, Joshua 24:26, 27; 1 Samuel 7:12). Note that two words for rock is used in Tehillim / Psalms 18:1-2 Rock (סַלְעָי, צוּרָי) that may be used for a foundation and for building. According to the Scriptures, the word rock or stone is also used figuratively of believers (see 1 Peter 2:4-5), and of the Messiah (see Psalms 118:22, Isaiah 28:16, Matthew 21:42, and Acts 4:11). Note also that in Daniel 2:45 the Messiah is described as being "cut out of the mountain." The use of the "rock" as a circumlocution is well established in the Tanakh and in the Apostolic Writings. One of the oldest of several ancient translations of the Hebrew Bible into Greek is the LXX (Septuagint). The LXX was held in great respect in ancient times as described by Philo and Josephus to having divine inspiration to its authors. This means that, according to historical accounts, the Greek translation of the Tanach was considered the inspired Word of God. Comparing the text of the LXX to that of Ginsburg's Masoretic text it is interesting to note that the Hebrew word צור (Rock) is translated as "Theos" (θεὸς, God). There are a few differences in the translation of the Septuagint from the Masoretic text but it is widely accepted that the Septuagint provides an accurate record of the Semitic textual variants. The textual variant here is that the translators used the word Theos (θεὸς, God) rather than Petra for the word "I'll (Rock). According to Paul's writings in Romans 4:13-5:1 the promises of God are made firm (ϵ lval β $\epsilon\beta$ a(av t $\dot{\eta}$ v $\dot{\epsilon}\pi a\gamma\gamma\epsilon\lambda$ (av) by faith (π (σ t $\epsilon\omega$ c) not only to those who are of the Torah but to all of those who are of the faith of Abraham (Romans 4:16). All of those who have the faith of Abraham in the Lord God Almighty become the children of Abraham; having faith in God, in the Rock (הצור) of our Salvation, in the Name of God and the sure foundation stone in the Name of Yeshua our Savior. To worship the Name is to worship God. The relationship of Yeshua to the Father is that of a foundation stone, cut right out of the mountain of the Lord (Daniel 2:45). It is this foundation stone that God is building His ecclesia ($\varepsilon \kappa \kappa \lambda \eta \sigma (\alpha)$). The use of the name throughout the scriptures and the various ways in which the Name has been described, there is an emphasis God desires for us to see and to receive. The emphasis that is being taught is the Torah principle the Lord our Father has done, to purchased us (אביך קוך הוא) and established us (עשר ויכנוך), and all of Scriptures direct us to Yeshua the Messiah, which is the ultimate and final goal of the revelation of scripture. The love of the Father being demonstrated through the Son (Yeshua) offering redemption in His blood and salvation in His name so that we might have the opportunity to know and experience the abiding presence of the Father in our lives and in our communities. The love of God is then manifest in us by living through Him (Yeshua) 1 John 4:9 By this the love of God was manifested in us, that God has sent His only begotten Son into the world so that we might live through Him. (NASB) Rightly so, as David says in Tehillim / Psalms 18, the Lord is our Strength, our Rock, our Fortress, our Deliverer, our Shield, the Horn of our Salvation, and our Stronghold ב וַיֹּאמַר אָרְחָמָך יָהוָה חַזְקִי: ג יְהֹנָה סַלְעִי וּמְצוּדָתִי וּמְפַלְטִי אֵלִי צוּרִי אֶחֶסֶה-בּוֹ מָגִנִּי וְקֶרֶן יִשְׁעִי מִשְׂגַבִּי: ד מְהַלֶּל אֶקְרָא יְהֹנָה וּמִן-איְבַי אָן שָׁעַ: 18:1 'I love You, O Lord, my strength.' 18:2 The Lord is my rock and my fortress and my deliverer, My God, my rock, in whom I take refuge; My shield and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold. (NASB) Note something else, the Lord described as "the Horn of our Salvation" provides the illustration that the Lord has made a great noise to arouse those who have fallen asleep that He is present and Salvation is at hand. Do our lives proclaim His Salvation in this way to the world around us? Drawing this as an illustration or example for our lives, how might we apply this principle to our lives? How do we proclaim the Salvation of God to others?

David continues describing the way in which he feels his enemies have surrounded him on all sides saying in Tehillim / Psalms 18:5-6:

Hebrew:

ָה אָפָפוּנִי חֶבְלֵי-מֶנֶת וְנַחֲלֵי בְלִיַעַל יְבַעֲתוּנִי: ו חֶבְלֵי שְׁאוֹל סְבָבוּנִי קִדְמוּנִי מוֹקְשֵׁי מֶנֶת:

18:4 The cords of death encompassed me, And the torrents of ungodliness terrified me. 18:5

The cords of Sheol surrounded me; The snares of death confronted me. (NASB)

Aramaic:

ה אקפתני עקא כאיתא דיתבא על מתברא וחיל לית לה למילד והיא מסכנא מסתכנא ליממת וסיעת טלומיא בעתת יתי: ו משריית חייבין אקפוני אקדימו יתי דמזיינין במני בזייני קטול:

18:5 Distress has surrounded me, like a woman who sits on the birthstool and has no strength to give birth and so is in danger of death; a band of abusive men has terrified me. 18:6 Armies of sinners have surrounded me; those armed with deadly weapons have confronted me. (EMC)

David says that death has gotten him bound up and according to the Hebrew text says חָבְלִי-מָוֶת. The word means "rope, cord, line" when used as a noun, and also may have the meaning "throes of (birth or death)." So David is saying that his enemies that surround him has placed him in the throws of death. The rabbis translate this in the Aramaic Targum as "a woman who sits on the birthstool and has no strength to give birth and so is in danger of death." So David is describing the manner in which he feels by his enemies that surround him, his strength is gone from laboring for a long time as if at the moment of death. Because his enemies have surrounded him, he seeks the Lord for help saying אַשָּרא יָהוָה וָאָל-אָלהי אָשׁוּע : יָשָׁמַע מָהֶיכָלוֹ קוֹלִי וְשֵׁוְעָתִי לְפַנֵיו | תַבוֹא בָאָזְנֵיו: 18:6 In my distress I called upon the Lord, And cried to my God for help; He heard my voice out of His temple, And my cry for help before Him came into His ears. (NASB) Crying out to the Lord for help is a form of seeking the Lord God Almighty. In Tehillim / Psalms 14. David said ב יָהוָה משֵׁמים השִׁקיף על-בְּנִי-אדָם לרָאוֹת הֵישׁ משְׂכִיל דֹרשׁ אֶת-אֱלֹהים: 14.2 The Lord has looked down from heaven upon the sons of men To see if there are any who understand, Who seek after God. (NASB) The Lord looks down from heaven upon the sons of men and examines our hearts. Yeshua said in Matthew 6:33, 33ζητεῖτε δὲ πρῶτον τὴν βασιλείαν [τοῦ θεοῦ] καὶ τὴν δικαιοσύνην αὐτοῦ, καὶ ταῦτα πάντα προστεθήσεται ὑμῖν 6:33 'But seek first His kingdom and His righteousness, and all these things will be added to you. (NASB) Therefore we may conclude that the Lord God is looking down from heaven to see who is seeking Him. David also said ג הַכֹּל סַר יַחָדַו נָאֵלַחוּ אָין עֹשָה-טוֹב אָין גַם-אָחָד: 14:3 They have all turned aside, together they have become corrupt; There is no one who does good, not even one. (NASB) The way of mankind is corrupt, and there is none that do good. In David's case, he is seeking the Lord for help and because he seeks the Lord's help and not man's, his cry for help has made it to God's ears. As a result of hearing his cry for help, the Lord's response is הַנְאָנֵשׁוּ כִּי חָרָגוּ וַיִּתְגָעֵשׁוּ כִּי חָרָה וַהְגָעַשׁ וַתִּרְעַשׁ | הָאָרֶשׁ ומִרִים יִרְגָזוּ וַיִּתְגָעַשׁוּ כִּי לו: ט עַלָה עַשָׁן בְאַפּוֹ וְאֵשׁ מִפִּיו תֹאכֵל גֶחָלִים בָּעֲרוּ מִמֶנּוּ: י וַיֵּט שָׁמַיִם וַיֵּרַד וַעֲרָפֶל תַּחַת רַגְלָיו: יא וַיִּרְכַּב עַל-: כְּרוּב וַיֵּלָף וַיְדָא עֵל-כֵּנְפֵי-רוּחַ: 18:7 Then the earth shook and quaked; And the foundations of the mountains were trembling And were shaken, because He was angry. 18:8 Smoke went up out of His nostrils, And fire from His mouth devoured; Coals were kindled by it. 18:9 He bowed the heavens also, and came down With thick darkness under His feet. (NASB) Nahum 1:5 states "1:5 The mountains quake at him, and the hills melt, and the earth is burned at his presence, yes, the world, and all that dwell therein." It is interesting reading through the Scriptures, on the judgment of God, when the Lord comes to earth His holy presence will burn this sinful world. Take for example the Apostle Paul's understanding on that great day of the Lord God Almighty from 2 Thessalonians 1:4-12.

2 Thessalonians 1:4-12

1:4 therefore, we ourselves speak proudly of you among the churches of God for your perseverance and faith in the midst of all your persecutions and afflictions which you endure. 1:5 This is a plain indication of God's righteous judgment so that you will be considered worthy of the kingdom of God, for which indeed you are suffering. 1:6 For after all it is only just for God to repay with affliction those who afflict you, 1:7 and to give relief to you who are afflicted and to us as well when the Lord Jesus will be revealed from heaven with His mighty angels in flaming fire, 1:8 dealing out retribution to those who do not know God and to those who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus. 1:9 These will pay the penalty of eternal destruction, away from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of His power, 1:10 when He comes to be glorified in His saints on that day, and to be marveled at among all who have believed for our testimony to you was believed. 1:11 To this end also we pray for you always, that our God will count you worthy of your calling, and fulfill every desire for goodness and the work of faith with power, 1:12 so that the name of our Lord Jesus will be glorified in you, and you in Him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ. (NASB)

According to 2 Thessalonians 1:7, Yeshua will be revealed from heaven with His mighty angels in flaming fire. This is parallel to Isaiah 66:15 For behold, the Lord will come in fire And His chariots like the whirlwind, To render His anger with fury, And His rebuke with flames of fire. NASB (טו כִּי-הָנָה יָהוֶה בַאֲשׁ יָבוֹא : וְכַסוּפָה מֵרְכָּבֹתִיו לְהָשִׁיב בְּחֵמָה אָפּוֹ וְגַעֵרֵתוֹ בְּלָהֵבֶי-אֵשׁ:) and to Shemot / Exodus 19:18 Now Mount Sinai was all in smoke because the LORD descended upon it in fire; and its smoke ascended like the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mountain quaked violently. NASB (יח וְהַר סִינֵי עֵשׁן כָּלּוֹ מִפְנֵי אֲשֶׁר יֵרֵד עֵלֵיו יָהוֹה בָּאֲשׁ ויעל אַשָׁנוֹ כְּעָשׁו הכּבְשׁן וייחרד כַּל-הַהָר מָאֹד: Scripture also says in Shemot / Exodus 3:2 that God manifest Himself "in a flame of fire from the midst of a bush." We see in Shemot / Exodus 3, a burning bush, a man (Moshe), and God Himself, speaking to Moshe from out of the flame that was in the midst of the bush. Why does God throughout the Scriptures reveal Himself in a flame of fire? The flame is certainly a supernatural phenomenon, since the bush burned without being consumed. On the mountain of Sinai, the Lord descended in a flame and the mountain burned. The flame is more than a supernatural phenomenon, it is a manifestation of God. How do we know this? The Scriptures say that Moshe was afraid to look, not upon the flame, but upon God; yet the flame was the only thing visible in the bush. According to the Scriptures, there are quite a few passages that state that God is invisible (John 1:17, 1 Timothy 1:17, and Hebrews 11:27 to list a few). Yet, the passage from Tehillim / Psalms 18, and in Shemot / Exodus chapters 3 and 19, says that Moshe, realized who he was speaking to and was afraid to look upon God. This is because God had manifest Himself in the flame. In the Tanach, a manifestation of God was any kind of visible appearance of God, for example in the cloud known as the Shekhinah (a word that describes dwelling or settling, and is used to denote the dwelling or settling divine presence of God, especially in the Temple in Jerusalem). Scholars call the manifestation of God a "theophany," according to Concise Oxford English Dictionary meaning "a visible manifestation to humankind of God." In these cases, God appears as a flame of fire in the midst of a burning bush to speak to Moshe. According to Mark 12:26, Yeshua confirmed this when He said, 12:26 'But regarding the fact that the dead rise again, have you not read in the book of Moses, in the passage about the burning bush, how God spoke to him, saying, 'I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'? (NASB) The Apostle Paul states in 2 Thessalonians that Yeshua will be revealed from heaven with His mighty angels in flaming fire. In the Tanach, God was manifested in the flame and therefore we could also say that the flame was an image, a visible representation, of the invisible God. Clearly, God was in the flame; therefore, to see the flame was to see God. Since no one struck a match to ignite this fire, it is clear that the flame came from God in the sense that God originated it. As the originator of the flame, the Lord God brought it forth. The God who was in the flame was the same God Yeshua referred to as His Father. In John 17:3, Yeshua identified His Father as "the only true God." In 1 Corinthians 8:6, Paul affirmed that "for us there is one God, the Father." In Jeremiah 10:10, the prophet declared, "The LORD is the true God." The One in the burning bush called Himself "The LORD God of your fathers" (Shemot / Exodus 3:15). In a sense, when we come before the Lord God Almighty, sin will be burned up, consumed by the very presence of God Himself. If we do not have the Lord's righteousness and the forgiveness of sins in Yeshua the Messiah, standing in the presence of God we would be consumed by the glory of His presence. This is why Paul wrote what he did in 2 Thessalonians 1:7 and to give relief to you who are afflicted and to us as well when the Lord Jesus will be revealed from heaven with His mighty angels in flaming fire, 1:8 dealing out retribution to those who do not know God and to those who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus. 1:9 These will pay the penalty of eternal destruction, away from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of His power, 1:10 when He comes to be glorified in His saints on that day, and to be marveled at among all who have believed for our testimony to you was believed. (NASB) When the Lord returns, judgment will come and utter destruction (eternal destruction) will come to those who do not know God, those who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah. According to the text in 2 Thessalonians, to know the Lord God Almighty is synonymous with obeying the gospel of Yeshua. Have you ever noticed this in the Apostolic Writings before? What does it mean to obey the gospel of Yeshua? How do we do this? Is this nothing less than obeying the Torah of God? As the Scriptures say in Him, in Christ we establish the Torah (Romans 3:31). The earth is described as burning in His presence throughout the Scriptures, how much more so will the wicked burn on His coming? Prevention of utter destruction in the presence of God is reliant upon Yeshua and His teaching, obeying His teaching, and our knowing God.

David said that when the Lord heard his prayer, the earth shook, the mountains trembled, and smoke went up from His nostrils, fire from His mouth, and He bowed down the heavens and thick darkness was under His feet (Tehillim / Psalms 18:7-9). He then states in Tehillim / Psalms 18:10-18.

י וַיֵּט שָׁמַיִם וַיֵּרֵד וַאֲרָפֶל תַּחַת רַגְלָיו: יא וַיִּרְפַב עַל-פְרוּב וַיָּעֹף וַיֵּדָא עַל-פַנְפִי-רוּחַ: יב יָשֶׁת חשָׁד | סִתְרוֹ סְבִיבוֹתִיו סֵפָּתוֹ חֶשְׁכַת-מַיִם עָבֵי שְׁחָקִים: יג מִנּגַה נֶגְדּוֹ עָבְרוּ בָּרָד וְגַחֲלֵי-אֵשׁ: יד וַיַּרְעֵם בַּשָׁמַיִם | יְהוָה וְעֶלְיוֹן יִתֵּן קֹלוֹ בָּרָד וְגַחֲלֵי-אֵשׁ: טו וַיִּשְׁלַח חָצִיו וַיְפִיצֵם וּבְרָקִים רָב יד וַיַּרְעֵם בַּשָׁמַיִם | יְהוָה וְעֶלְיוֹן יִתֵּן קֹלוֹ בָּרָד וְגַחֲלֵי-אֵשׁ: טו וַיִּשְׁלַח חָצִיו וַיְפִיצֵם וּבְרָקִים רָב וַיָּהָמֵם: טז וַיֵּישְׁמַת רוּחַ אַפָּר: יז יִשְׁלַח מַמָּרוֹם יַקָּחַנִי יַמְשׁנִי מַמַּיִם וַיַּגָּלוּ מוֹסְדוֹת תַּבַל מָגַעֲרָתָך יְהוֹה מִנּשְׁמַת רוּחַ אַפָּר: יז יִשְׁלַח מָמָרוֹם יִקָּחַנִי יַמְשׁנִי מַמַּים: יח יַצִּילֵנִי מַאיְבִי עָז וּמִשֹׂנְאַי כִּי-אָמְצוּ מִמָּנִי:

18:10 He rode upon a cherub and flew; And He sped upon the wings of the wind. 18:11 He made darkness His hiding place, His canopy around Him, Darkness of waters, thick clouds of the skies. 18:12 From the brightness before Him passed His thick clouds, Hailstones and coals of fire. 18:13 The Lord also thundered in the heavens, And the Most High uttered His voice, Hailstones and coals of fire. 18:14 He sent out His arrows, and scattered them, And lightning flashes in abundance, and routed them. 18:15 Then the channels of water appeared, And the foundations of the world were laid bare At Your rebuke, O Lord, At the blast of the breath of Your nostrils. 18:16 He sent from on high, He took me; He drew me out of many waters. 18:17 He delivered me from my strong enemy, And from those who hated me, for they were too mighty for me. 18:18 They confronted me in the day of my calamity, But the Lord was my stay.

Tehillim / Psalms 18:10 states that the Lord God rode upon a cherub and flew. Does the Lord God really need to ride upon a cherub for wings to fly? The Psalm describes the Lord making darkness his dwelling place using thick clouds from the sky. The Lord Himself is light (brightness) and the clouds hide His glory. The Lord thunders when He utters His voice and from out of His word comes coals, hailstones, and fire. This description seems to parallel what took place at the mountain of Sinai, and of the construction of the Tabernacle, the Holy of Holies (a dark place), and the cloud that is manifest from burning incense before the priest enters in to make atonement on Yom Kippur. The cherub upon which the Lord rides is a parallel to the construction of the Ark of the covenant in Shemot / Exodus 25. Let's look at select verses from Shemot / Exodus 25 from the Hebrew and Aramaic Targum.

In Shemot / Exodus 25:22, God is describing the construction of the mercy seat upon the Ark of the Covenant saying in Shemot / Exodus 25:21 'You shall put the mercy seat on top of the ark, and in the ark you shall put the testimony which I will give to you. 25:22 'There I will meet with you; and from above the mercy seat, from between the two cherubim which are upon the ark of the testimony, I will speak to you about all that I will give you in commandment for the sons of Israel. (NASB) The phrase "mercy seat" is a translation of the Hebrew text that actually says "kapporet" in the Masoretic text or of the Greek term "hilasterion" from the Septuagint (LXX). The Hebrew text of Shemot / Exodus 25:22 states that the Lord God will meet with Moshe to speak to him (and to the Kohen HaGadol, High Priest) from between the Cherubim. According to the Aramaic Targum, the text says "And I will appoint my Word for you there." And so, it is "the Word" of God (מֵימְרָי) Memra) that will meet with and speak to Moshe from between the Cherubim.

Next, the verses 19-25 from Tehillim / Psalms 18, are outlined in the following way:

- דָאַבַר תָּמִים הַתַּמָּם: 18:25 With the kind You show Yourself kind; With the blameless You show Yourself blameless; (NASB)

According to David, the Lord brought him froth into an open place, this is a form of rescuing and the Lord rescued him because His delight was in him (David). David is obviously in hiding some place in Israel and the Lord taking and moving him to an open place suggests that he would have no enemies to attach him on either side. He continues saying that the Lord rewarded him according to his righteousness and the cleanness of his hands. The reason being that he has kept the ways of the Lord and have not departed from the Lord and His ways. David says all of the Lord's ordinances were before him and he did not put His statues away from him, He says that he is blameless and has kept himself from his own iniquity. Thus The Lord has returned towards him according to the cleanness of his hands. What is interesting about these verses is how David describes his reward, the Lord turning back towards him (ישׁיב) from the Hebrew word "Shuv" (שוב) is a result of his living in righteousness. So according to David, the way that we live effects our walk with the Lord. Let's studying this concept a little further from the Torah text. In Parashat Re'eh (Devarim / Deuteronomy 11:26-12:28) Moshe says רְאָה אַנֹכִי נֹתֵן לִפְנֵיכֵם הֵיּוֹם בְּרַכֵה וּקְלֵלֵה: See, I am setting before you today a blessing and a curse." Moshe says the blessing comes if we "listen and obey." This is exactly what David is saying here in Tehillim / Psalms 18. Whereas, the curse comes to those who turn aside from the way God has commanded. Moshe says that when the Lord brings you into the land, place the blessing (הַבְּרָכָה) on mount Gerizim and the curse (הַקְלָלָה) on mount Ebal. Mount Gerizim and Ebal are two mountains in the vicinity of the West Bank city of Nablus (in Hebrew known as Shechem). These form the southern side of the valley in which Nablus is situated on the north side. This mountain is one of the highest peaks in the West Bank and is the highest peak in all of Israel. The blessing and the curse here represents those who remain "within" the covenant (הַבְּרָכָה) on mount Gerizim with God and those who remain "outside" of the covenant (הַקְלָלָה) on mount Ebal. Those inside the covenant live inside of the Promised Land and enjoy the blessing and protection of God living according to God's ways as detailed according to the Torah. Those outside do not live according to God's ways, do not have regard for the mitzvot, for the precepts or statues of God and therefore have no part in God's promises. Remaining within the covenant is emphasized as Moshe continues to speak to the people stating five times saying that כִּ אָם-אָל-הַמָּקוֹם אֲשֶׁר-יִבְחַר יָהוֹה :בָאָת שָׁמָה: אַלהֵיכֵם מְכָּל-שָׁבָטֵיכֵם לֲשׁוּם אֶת-שָׁמוֹ שֵׁם לְשָׁכְנוֹ תִדְרִשׁוּ וּבָאת שָׁמָה: 12:5 'But you shall seek the LORD at the place which the Lord your God will choose from all your tribes, to establish His name there for His dwelling, and there you shall come. (NASB) (See Devarim / Deuteronomy 12:5, 11, 14, 18, 21). According to the Scriptures, God revealed himself through Israel in order to make His Name known to the World. Today, do we allow the Lord to establish within us a place where He can make His name known in the way we live? This brings us back to the previous question on how do we proclaim the Salvation of God to others?

The opening word of Parashat Reah is the Hebrew word רָאָה which is written in the singular form meaning "see" followed by the phrase האַנֹכִי נֹהֶן לְפָנֵיכֵם הֵיוֹם, a phrase containing the plural pronominal suffix "you." According to the Hebrew text, based on the singular-plural forms written in Parashat Reah, each person, on an individual basis (רָאָה, "see" in the singular form) will be affected by the blessing and the curse. Note the use of the singular and plural forms here in the text are meant to emphasize that the Torah has been given to all "who have ears to hear" and it is the personal responsibility of each individual to choose life, hold onto the Lord God, obey His voice, and walk in God's word (in His ways) in our daily lives as Moshe says in sefer Devarim / Deuteronomy 30:19-20, ספר דברים פרק ליט הַעִדֹתִי בַכֶם הֵיוֹם אֶת-הַשֵּׁמֵים וָאֶת-הַאָרֵץ הַחַיִים וְהַמֶּוֶת נְתַמִּי לְפָגֶיךּ הַבְּרָכָה וְהַקְּלָלֶה וּבָחַרָתָ בַּחַיִים לְמַעַן תִּחְיֶה אַתָּה וְזַרְעָדָ: כ לְאַהָבָה אֶת-יְהוָה אֱלֹהֶידָ לִשְׁמֹעַ בְּקֹלוֹ וּלְדָבְקָה-בוֹ כִּי הוּא חַיֶּידְ וָאֹרֶדְ יָמֶידְ לָשֶׁבֶת עַל-הָאֲדָמָה אֲשֶׁר נִשְׁבַע יְהוָה לַאֲבתֶידְ לְאַבְרָהָם לְיִצְחָק וּלְיַעֵקֹב לָתֵת בהם: Devarim / Deuteronomy 30:19 'I call heaven and earth to witness against you today, that I have set before you life and death, the blessing and the curse. So choose life in order that you may live, you and your descendants, 30:20 by loving the Lord your God, by obeying His voice, and by holding fast to Him; for this is your life and the length of your days, that you may live in the land which the Lord swore to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give them.' (NASB) According to these scriptures, there is no room for compromise in this decision making process to "choose life." The Scriptures say לְאָהַבָה אֶת-יִהוֹה אֵלהֵיך לְשָׁמֹעַ יָמֵיך ואֹרֶך יָמֵיך (love the Lord your God, listen to his voice, holding fast to the Lord " הַקֹלוֹ וּלְדָבְקָה-בוֹ כִּי הוּא חַיֶּיך is your life and the length of your days;" these Scriptures show the absolute necessity of living each day by holding onto and drawing near to the Lord God Almighty in the Messiah. I say in the Messiah because it is because of the Messiah and the indwelling of the Holy Spirit that enables us to do these things in a way that is pleasing to the Lord God Almighty.

The blessing and cursing is contrasted with Devarim / Deuteronomy 12:8 that states הַיָּשָׁר בְּעֵינָיו: 'you shall not do at all what we are doing here today, every man doing whatever is right in his own eyes."

Devarim / Deuteronomy 12:8-11

12:8 'You shall not do at all what we are doing here today, every man doing whatever is right in his own eyes; 12:9 for you have not as yet come to the resting place and the inheritance which the Lord your God is giving you. 12:10 'When you cross the Jordan and live in the land which the Lord your God is giving you to inherit, and He gives you rest from all your enemies around you so that you live in security, 12:11 then it shall come about that the place in which the Lord your God will choose for His name to dwell, there you shall bring all that I command you: your burnt offerings and your sacrifices, your tithes and the contribution of your hand, and all your choice votive offerings which you will vow to the Lord. (NASB)

According to the Modern Hebrew lexicons, the phrase הַיַשָר בְּעֵינֵין appears to be a Hebrew idiom meaning "whatsoever is right in his own eyes." Dissecting this phrase, "Wr means "straight, even, level, smooth" and בעינין means "in his eyes." The straightness of the eye is a way of describing the path one is taking. the choice that one is making in one's life to choose life or to choose death, to walk with God or to walk contrary to what God has commanded. We walk where our eyes tell us to go. What we look at for extended periods of time is the direction our mind and body will proceed into. According to Moshe, before entering into the Promised Land, each was doing what they thought was right in his or her own eyes. Therefore, the straightness of the eye was indicative of the way one walked before God. The warning is given just prior to Devarim / Deuteronomy 12:8 to destroy all of the idols and places of worship and to not do as the nations do when serving the Lord God Almighty. So the "straightness of the eye" is related to whether one is walking in righteousness or in sin. Is part of the gospel message of Yeshua to walk in righteousness and not walk in sin? It is interesting, in the Apostolic Writings, Yeshua warned the people of the kind of treasure one seeks in this world drawing a parallel with whether the eye is good or bad in Matthew 6:20-23 follows prototypical to the teaching here in the Torah and with what David is saying in Tehillim / Psalms 18. Here the Torah tells us to fear (יִרָאָה) the Lord, to walk in all His ways (לְלֵכֵת בְּכֵל-דְּרָכֵיו), to love Him (יְרָאָה), and to serve Him with all our heart (בְּכָל-לְבָבָך) and all our soul (בְּכָל-נַפְשֶׁך). Devarim / Deuteronomy 10:12 summarizes beginning with fearing the Lord God. What does it mean to fear the Lord? Are we to be afraid of God's approval of us or be afraid of the future expectation of judgment? According to King Solomon, "the fear of the Lord is the beginning of Wisdom" (Mishley / Proverbs 9:10) since without fear we would not turn from our sins but would continue to walk in darkness.

The Hebrew word translated as "fear" is אָרָאָה' has a range of meanings throughout the scriptures. The fear of the Lord as described in the Tanakh is a designation for true devoutness to the Lord (see Mishley / Proverbs 1:7, Job 28:28, and Tehilim / Psalms 19:9). Fear is also synonymous with love and hope, not a slavish dread, but rather reverence towards God (Compare: Devarim / Deuteronomy 32:6, Hosea 11:1, and Isaiah 1:2, 63:16, 64:8). The Lord God is also called "the Fear of Yitzchak" in sefer Bereshit / Genesis 31:42 and 31:53 as it is translated as "the God whom Yitzchak feared." Fear is also paralleled in the Apostolic Writings as a way to prevent carelessness in ones faith and as an incentive leading to repentance (see Matthew 10:28, 2 Corinthians 5:11, 7:1, Philippians 2:12, Ephesians 5:21, and Hebrews 12:28-29). Based on these Scriptures, fear can lead to anticipation of danger or as a reference to the reverence of God. Therefore, according to the Scriptures, the fear of the Lord includes an overwhelming sense of glory, worth, and beauty of the Lord God Almighty. It is also interesting that fear (הָרָאָה) appears to be derived from the root word God. Does the fear of the Lord come from a sense of seeing God's power at work in the Scriptures, in this world or in our lives? Should we fear the Lord God in the sense of being threatened by Him for our sins or are we to regard Him in wonder and with respect? These are important questions because the type of fear (יָרְאָה) that we have will reflect upon how we walk in all His ways (יְרָאָה), love Him (לְלֶכֶת בְּכָל-דְרָכָיו), and serve Him with all our heart (בְּכָל-לְבָרָדָ) and all our soul (בְּכָל-גַבִּשְׁהָ).

Yeshua told us that unless one is born new having a spiritual rebirth one cannot see the kingdom of God according to John 3:3 while he was talking to Nicodemus, saying "amein amein" (Ἀμὴν ἀμὴν) "truly truly" I say to you unless one is born from above ($\alpha v \omega \theta \varepsilon v$) he is not able to behold the kingdom ($\beta \alpha \sigma i \lambda \varepsilon (\alpha v)$) of God. The principle of "life from above" is revealed in God's covenant and the process in which God would bless His people. The covenant was to bring the people to God and to teach them to trust Him, to delight in Him, and to be one with Him. Being born from above is God working in our lives to change us from the inside out because of His great love for us. Because it is written לְאַהֲבָה אֶת-יְהוָה אֱלֹהֶיךָ לִשְׁמֹעַ בְּקֹלוֹ וְאָרֶךְ יָאֶיֶךְ וָאֹרֶך יָמֶיךָ ווֹלְדָבְקָה-בוֹ פִי הוּא חַיָּיך וָאֹרֶך יָמֶיך ווֹי... love the Lord your God, by obeying His voice, and by holding fast to Him; for this is your life and the length of your days, ..." The Lord loves His children as it is written in Jeremiah 31:2 says מֵרַחוֹק יָהוֹה נִרָאָה לִי וָאָהַבַת עוֹלָם אָהַבִתִּיך עַל-כֵּן מִשֵׁכְתִיך חָסֵד "I love you with an everlasting love and in chased (TQT, mercy/grace) I draw you to me." According to Jeremiah, God the Father draws us to Himself. Yeshua believed the Scriptures saying in John 6:44 οὐδεὶς δύναται ἐλθεῖν πρός με ἐὰν μὴ ὁ πατὴρ ὁ πέμψας με ἑλκύσῃ αὐτόν, κἀγὼ ἀναστήσω αὐτὸν ἐν τῃ ἐσχάτῃ ἡμέρạ. 'No one can come to Me unless the Father who sent Me draws him; and I will raise him up on the last day. (NASB) God's chased (קס, mercy) takes action, allowing us to come to our senses and turn from our sin and turn to Yeshua the Messiah. Being born from above is an action of creation by the hand of God as it says in John 1:13 אשר לא נולדו: "not of blood, or of the will of the flesh, or of the "not of blood, or of the will of the flesh, or of the will of man, but of God." The Hebrew translation of the Greek says "מאלהים נולדו" meaning "from God he is born," The reference here is to the Word of God (John 1:1) and of being born new. The Lord God makes a place in our hearts through which He works His will in our lives. As a result, rather than fear (יָרָאָה) the Lord in the sense of judgment, we fear the Lord to walk in His ways, and to seek Him for help. It is written יַמֵיך וָאֹרֵך יַמֵיך ווּלְדָבְקָה-בוֹ כִּי הוּא חֵיֵיך ווֹאֹרֵך יַמֵיך (יוֹעָבָקָה-בוֹ כִּי הוּא חַיֵיך ווֹאֹרָך יַמֵיך יַמֵיך יַמֵיך יַיַרָ His voice, and by holding fast to Him; for this is your life and the length of your days, ..." Is this what David meant when he tells us the Lord has rewarded him according to his righteousness and the cleanness of his hands? Is this what is meant when Paul wrote to the believers in Thessalonica in 2 Thessalonians 1:7 and to give relief to you who are afflicted and to us as well when the Lord Jesus will be revealed from heaven with His mighty angels in flaming fire, 1:8 dealing out retribution to those who do not know God and to those who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus. (NASB) those who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah? It says in the Hebrew text "לְשָׁמֹעַ בְּקֹלוֹ" "to hear His voice" and the English translation says "by obeying His voice" and "וּלְדָרְקָה-בוֹ" "to be devoted in Him" and the English translation says "by holding fast to Him." According to Paul, to know the Lord God Almighty is synonymous with obeying the gospel of Yeshua in 2 Thessalonians 1:7-8. In the Torah portion (Parashat Re'eh) to hear His voice is synonymous with obeying His voice. To be devoted to Him is synonymous with holding fast to Him. We hear the Word of God and we believe by faith (Romans 10:17). We hold fast to the Word of God because He is the length of our days, He gives us life. David describes the way of his live is being devoted to following God's Torah (His ways) and the Lord God Almighty turns back (יַשׁיב) to him because he seeks to walk righteously before the Lord. Today, believing in Yeshua the Messiah, the Living Word of God (John 1:14), we are obeying the Torah command for substitutionary atonement. But if our lives do not change to follow God in His ways, are we really holding fast and being devoted to Him according to the gospel of Yeshua? If you listen and obey you have the blessing of God, Scripture says so. If we do not listen and obey, there is nothing more than the expectation of judgment on that great day of the Lord according to the book of Hebrews.

--- Tehillim / Psalms 18 | ספר תהילים יח ----

Hebrews 10:26-31

10:26 For if we go on sinning willfully after receiving the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins, 10:27 but a terrifying expectation of judgment and the fury of a fire which will consume the adversaries. 10:28 Anyone who has set aside the Law of Moses dies without mercy on the testimony of two or three witnesses. 10:29 How much severer punishment do you think he will deserve who has trampled under foot the Son of God, and has regarded as unclean the blood of the covenant by which he was sanctified, and has insulted the Spirit of grace? 10:30 For we know Him who said, 'Vengeance is Mine, I will repay.' And again, 'The Lord will judge His people.' 10:31 It is a terrifying thing to fall into the hands of the living God. (NASB)

26Εκουσίως γὰρ ἁμαρτανόντων ἡμῶν μετὰ τὸ λαβεῖν τὴν ἐπίγνωσιν τῆς ἀληθείας, οὐκέτι περὶ ἁμαρτιῶν ἀπολείπεται θυσία, 27φοβερὰ δέ τις ἐκδοχὴ κρίσεως καὶ πυρὸς ζῆλος ἐσθίειν μέλλοντος τοὺς ὑπεναντίους. 28ἀθετήσας τις νόμον Μωϋσέως χωρὶς οἰκτιρμῶν ἐπὶ δυσὶν ἢ τρισὶν μάρτυσιν ἀποθνήσκει: 29πόσῷ δοκεῖτε χείρονος ἀξιωθήσεται τιμωρίας ὁ τὸν υἱὸν τοῦ θεοῦ καταπατήσας, καὶ τὸ αἰμα τῆς διαθήκης κοινὸν ἡγησάμενος ἐν ῷ ἡγιάσθη, καὶ τὸ πνεῦμα τῆς χάριτος ἐνυβρίσας; 30οἴδαμεν γὰρ τὸν εἰπόντα, Ἐμοὶ ἐκδίκησις, ἐςῶς θεοῦ ζῶντος.

Believing in Yeshua (the salvation of God) has always been coupled with listening and obeying the word of the Lord. Outside of Yeshua, there is no salvation, no redemption, no deliverance from sin, there is nothing left but the curse. If we willfully walk and live in sin, there is only the expectation of judgment. David said in Tehillim / Psalms 18:23, בַּרָּרָ מָעָוֹרָיָ (MASB) He kept himself from "his iniquity." Only with the Lord's help, and persevering to seek the kingdom of God, walking in His ways, and seeking Yeshua for help is victory made possible. Scripture says in Devarim / Deuteronomy 30 to "… love the Lord your God, by obeying His voice, and by holding fast to Him; for this is your life and the length of your days, …" Truly, the Lord God Almighty and Yeshua His Son are the length of our days. What an awesome God we serve! Let's pray!

Part b:

כו עם-חָסִיד הִתחַסַּד עם-גָּבַר הַמִים הִהַמָּם: כז עם-נַבַר הִתְבַר חַתִבָּר ווּ David continues saying to the Lord ועם-עקש תתפתל: 18:25 With the kind You show Yourself kind; With the blameless You show Yourself blameless; 18:26 With the pure You show Yourself pure, And with the crooked You show Yourself astute. (NASB) The Scriptures say that with the kind, the blameless, and the pure, the Lord shows Himself to be kind, blameless, and pure, and with the crooked the Lord shows himself to be astute. Here the word translated "crooked" (עקש) means "stubborn, obstinate, adamant, intractable, perversive, willful, bigoted, bulldog, bullish, contrary, contumelious; perverted" and the word הַתְפַתַּל, from the root word פתל, means "be twisted, bent, curved" is written in the Hiphil verbal pattern to have the meaning "be twisted, bent, be perverted, struggle, or evasive, wriggle, writhe (in pain)." This verse says that the Lord will cause trouble for those who are crooked or perverse. Does God send bad things to the wicked? I have heard it taught that only good things come from the Lord, not bad things following by the reasoning "how could I trust a God who sends bad things to me?" Is this judgmental of the Lord God Almighty? Thinking in this way, is one conforming the Lord unto one's own likeness? In Tehillim / Psalms 18:26-27 (25-26) the Scripture states that He will show kindness to those who are kind, blameless to those who are blameless, and pure to those who are pure. What would God show to those who are not kind, blameless, and pure? What about to those who say they are His children (I believe in Jesus) but do not exhibit kindness, blamelessness, and purity? Does God bring bad things into our lives for the purpose of bringing us back to Him? When bad things do happen to us, if we question God rather than examining our lives, are we missing the mark? Consider the historical account from Parashat Ki Tisa (Shemot / Exodus 30:11-34:35) the Scriptures say פרשת כי תשא ספר שמות פרק לב : פסוק יד וַיָּנָקם יְהוָה עַל-הָרָעָה אֲשֶׁר דִבֶּר לַעֵשוֹת לְעַמוֹ 32:14 So the Lord changed His mind about the harm which He said He would do to His people. (NASB) The reason God changed His mind is because of who he is according to Shemot / Exodus 34:6-7, עַל-פָּנָיו | עַל-פָּנָיו וויַעֲבֹר יְהוָה | עַל-פָניו וויַעַבר יָהוָה | אַספר שמות פרק לד פסוק ו-ז, ו וַיִּקְרָא יְהֹוֶה | יְהֹוֶה אֵל רַחוּם וְחַנּוּן אֶרֶךְ אַפַּיִם וְרַב-חֶסָד וָאֱמֶת: ז נֹצֵר חֶסֶד לָאֲלָפִים נֹשֵׂא עָוֹן וָפֶשַׁע וְחַטָּאָה וְנַקֵּה לֹא : יַנקָה פּקד | עון אבות על-בַנים ועל-בָנים ועל-בָנים על-שׁלשים ועל-רבּעים: 34:6 Then the Lord passed by in front of him and proclaimed, 'The Lord, the Lord God, compassionate and gracious, slow to anger, and abounding in lovingkindness and truth; 34:7 who keeps lovingkindness for thousands, who forgives iniquity, transgression and sin; yet He will by no means leave the guilty unpunished, visiting the iniquity of fathers on the children and on the grandchildren to the third and fourth generations.' (NASB) The reason for the Lord's repenting and turning from His wrath is found within the word a which is most often translated as "steadfast love" or "lovingkindness" in the English translations. According to the Scriptures, the word Chesed (707) is most often connected in relation to God's covenant with His people. Brown, Driver, and Briggs lexicon define Chesed as "favor, grace, charity, kindness, benevolence, graciousness, mercy, prayerful, benignity." Another way to think about Chesed (הָסָר) is within the context of the covenant; God's "Covenant Love" that He has for His people. It was this covenant love that the Lord God decided to enter into even after the people's sin of idolatry at the mountain of Sinai. So when we read Tehillim / Psalms 18:25, showing kindness to those who are kind, the word קסיד from the root קסיד suggests that the one who is kind, is doing so as having a covenant relationship with God. It is because of the covenant grace that we have in the Lord that kindness proceeds from each one of us; the covenant relationship with God is transforming. What is being indicated here is God expects faithfulness on our part in His Covenant with His people, that is paralleled to the Lord's faithfulness to Abraham and the covenant that He made with Abraham in Parashat Lech Lecha (Bereshit / Genesis 12-17) where God promises Abraham that His covenant will be an everlasting covenant for Abraham's offspring (descendent's, seed, etc). Therefore, it was because of God's covenant with Abraham that the He extended His grace (,,) to the people at Sinai and made them His people. Similarly, in the book of Jonah, it is by His grace (,,,) that the people of Nineveh were forgiven and He turned from His wrath. It is also by His grace that he brought Yeshua into this world to make atonement for our sins. As we study the Scriptures, we learn that throughout Israel's history God extends his grace (,,) because of the covenant that He entered into with Abraham, and with all of Israel at the mountain of Sinai. The emphasis on the character of God in Shemot / Exodus 34 verses 6-7 reveals God's mercy and grace (707 Chesed) towards His chosen people. As a result of these things, the Lord proceeds to give the Torah to the people and establish His covenant with them exactly as He had promised 400 years prior to Abraham. The Aramaic Targum states כו עם אברהם דאשתכח חסיד קדמך אסגיתא למעבד חסדא עם זרעיה יצחק דהוה שלים בדחלתך אשלימתא מימר רעותך עימיה: כז עם יעקב דהוה בריר דהליך בברירותא קדמך בחרתא בנוי מן כל עממיא ואפרשתא זרעיה מן כל פסילא ועם פרעה וזרעיה ומצראי דחשיבו מחשבן בישן על עמך ישראל בילבלתנון ובמחשבתהון: 18:26 With Abraham, who was found pious in your presence, you showed much mercy; with his seed, Isaac, who was complete in fear of you, you completed your favorable word. 18:27 With Jacob, who was pure in your presence, you chose his sons from all the Gentiles, and separated his seed from all that is unfit; but with Pharaoh and his seed, and the Egyptians who thought evil thoughts against your people, you confounded them in their thoughts. (EMC) The Rabbis parallel the patriarchs with piety (הסיד, "follower, adherent; pious, kind") Abraham exhibited kindness in the presence of the Lord, and Isaac had the fear of God in him. On the other hand, the rabbis say, according to the Aramaic Targum, that Jacob was pure in

God's presence, however, reading the narrative on Jacob's life, he did many things that were not so nice cheating his brother out of his inheritance and the things he did to Laban, etc. The Aramaic Targum then parallels this to how God treated Pharaoh and all the gentiles separating Israel for a people to himself. These things of being kind, blameless, and pure are paraphrased in the lives of the patriarchs and how God dealt with Pharaoh and the gentile nations. The Septuagint (LXX) states the following, 18:25 μετὰ ὑσίου ὑσιωθήση καὶ μετὰ ἀνδρὸς ἀθώου ἀθῶος ἔσῃ 18:26 καὶ μετὰ ἐκλεκτοῦ ἐκλεκτὸς ἔσῃ καὶ μετὰ στρεβλοῦ διαστρέψεις 18:25 With the holy thou wilt be holy; and with the innocent man thou wilt be innocent. 18:26 And with the excellent man thou wilt be excellent; and with the perverse thou wilt shew frowardness. (LXX) Here the rabbis translate the Hebrew text הסיד to refer to "holiness" that being holy, God will be holy, and to the innocent, God will be innocent. Note that the rabbis translate the word ποίτ using the Greek word ὑσίου which means "sacred" and is translated into English as "holy." This suggests that the man who walks in holiness walks a sacred life, a life that is holy and separate unto God. The one who does this the Lord will show holiness and sacredness back to him. Therefore, walking in God's ways, to be kind to others (whether friend or foe), being blameless, and living pure lives, will result in the Lord God Almighty showing Himself to be kind, blameless, and pure. This should be reason for us to examine our own lives each day, what we see, what we listen to, what we say, how we treat others, and what is going on in our thought life, because all of these things are visible before the Lord in heaven. The most important of all of these things is to seek the Lord for His help, ask in the name of Yeshua the Messiah, by the power of the Holy Spirit. In doing this we must humble ourselves and seek His guidance. The reason we are to humble ourselves and seek Him is found in David's words in Tehillim / Psalms 18:28, למות תּשָׁפּיל: 18:27 כח כי-אתה עם-עני תושיע ועינים רַמות תּשָׁפּיל: For You save an afflicted people, But haughty eyes You abase. (NASB) The Lord saves those who are afflicted and who seek Him (כִּי-אֲהָה עֵם-עַנִי תוֹשִׁיע) and the proud are described as having "haughty eyes" (כִּי-אֲהַה עַם-עַנִי רמות) God will cause them to become "weaker" (הְשָׁפּיל) here the word is translated as abase, but its meaning says "become lower, become weaker, to humiliate." If we do not humble ourselves before men and before the Lord, we will be subjected to the Lord working humbleness in our lives meaning that He will bring situations into our lives to help us realize that He is in control, He is to be praised, and He is the One whom we are to seek daily.

כִּי-אַתַּה תַּאִיר נֵרִי יִהוָה אֱלֹהֵי יֵגִיהַ חָשׁכִי: ל כִּי-בָךָ אַרָץ גִדוּד וּבָאלֹהֵי וּבָאלֹהַי David continues saying כט : אַדַלָּג-שוּר 18:28 For You light my lamp; The Lord my God illumines my darkness. 18:29 For by You I can run upon a troop; And by my God I can leap over a wall. (NASB) Strange thing is that reading the Hebrew text the Scripture appears to say that David is able "jump over a bull" (אָרָלָג-שׁוּר) with God's help. On the other hand, the English translation says "leap over a wall." What does it mean to jump or leap a bull? In Crete, there is a Bull-Leaping Fresco known as the "Knossos." The Bull was a central theme in the Minoan civilization, with bull heads and bull horns used as symbols in the Knossos palace. The Minoan fresco and Minoan ceramics depict the bull-leaping ritual were both male and female jumped over bulls by grasping their horns. In the Mesopotamian - Sumerian "Epic of Gilgamesh" depicts Gilgamesh killing Enkidu the Bull of Heaven. This was an act of defiance to the gods. Note that bulls were depicted as messengers of God in the ancient culture. Killing the messenger was synonymous with defying the one who sent the messenger. (i.e. Just like the examples given in the parables Yeshua told on the steward and the vineyard.) From the earliest times, the bull is depicted as lunar in Mesopotamia (i.e. its horns representing the crescent moon), (Information taken from Jules Cashford, The Moon: Myth and Image 2003, begins the section "Bull and cow" pp 102). The bull was also known as a sacred animal in Egypt and in the late Hellenistic and Roman syncretic cult of Mithras. The question before though on Tehillim / Psalms 18:28 (29) is whether David was really referring to "jumping a bull" (אדלג-שור) or was he referring to jumping a wall as all English translations of the Scriptures suggest? The Aramaic Targum translates the verse as ל מטול דבמימרך אסגי משריין ובמימר אלהי אכבוש כרכין תקיפין: 18:30 For by your word I will pass through armies; and by the word Copyright © 2013 MATSATI.COM Ministry 21 of my God I will subdue mighty citadels. (EMC) and the Septuagint translates the verse as 18:29 ὅτι ἐν σοὶ ῥυσθήσομαι ἀπὸ πειρατηρίου καὶ ἐν τῷ θεῷ μου ὑπερβήσομαι τεῖχος 18:29 For by thee shall I be delivered from a troop; and by my God I will pass over a wall. (LXX) The rabbis of 200-250 BC translate the verse to say "I will pass over a wall." The rabbis of the late first and second centuries translate as "I will subdue mighty citadels." Interestingly, examining Brown Drivers and Briggs Lexicon, the word T will subdue noun does have the meaning of wall. The Aramaic translation of wall is for and in fact there are some Scriptural examples on the use of the word T will as "wall" in the Tanach found in Bereshit / Genesis 49:22, 2 Samuel 22:30, and Jeremiah 5:10. Let's look at these verses:

ספר בראשית פרק מט

כב בֵּן פּרָת יוֹסֵף בֵּן פּרָת עֲלֵי-עָיִן בָּנוֹת צָעֲדָה עֲלֵי-שׁוּר: 49:22 'Joseph is a fruitful bough, A fruitful bough by a spring; Its branches run over a wall. (NASB)

ספר שמואל ב פרק כב

ל כִּי בְכָה אָרוּץ גְּדוּד בֵּאלהֵי אֲדַלֶּג-שׁוּר: 22:30 'For by You I can run upon a troop; By my God I can leap over a wall. (NASB)

ספר ירמיה פרק ה

י עֲלוּ בְשָׁרוֹתֶיהָ וְשֵׁחֵתוּ וְכָלָה אַל-תַּעֲשׂוּ הָסִירוּ נְטִישׁוֹתֶיהָ כִּי לוֹא לַיהוָה הֵמָּה: 5:10 'Go up through her vine rows and destroy, But do not execute a complete destruction; Strip away her branches, For they are not the Lord's. (NASB)

Based on these examples, the use of the word שור is attested in these Scriptures examples from Bereshit / Genesis 49:22, 2 Samuel 22:30, and Jeremiah 5:10. Therefore, David is speaking of the Lord saying כט כט 18:28 For You light my lamp; The Lord my God illumines my darkness. 18:29 For by You I can run upon a troop; And by my God I can leap over a wall. (NASB) The Lord shows us the way in which we should walk, gives us the strength to defeat our enemies, and the ability to leap over what we perceive to be a wall blocking our way.

David continues stating לא הָאֵל תָּמִים דַּרְכּוֹ אִמְרַת יְהֹוָה צְרוּפָה מָגַן הוּא לְכֹל | הַחוֹסִים בּוֹ: לב כִּי מִי מוּאַזּ הָמִים דַּרְכִּי: לא הָאֵל תָּמִים דַּרְכּי: אַמָר הָאָרוּהָ מִבּלְעֲדֵי יְהֹוָה וּמִי-צוּר זוּלָתִי אֱלֹהֵינוּ: לג הָאֵל הַמְאַזְרֵנִי חָיָל וַיִּתַן תָּמִים דַּרְכִּי: blameless; The word of the Lord is tried; He is a shield to all who take refuge in Him. 18:31 For who is God, but the Lord? And who is a rock, except our God, 18:32 The God who girds me with strength And makes my way blameless? (NASB) Here David appears to be reiterating a part of Tehillim / Psalms 18:1-3, the Lord is his rock, and gives him strength, and makes his way blameless. Examining the Aramaic Targum and the Septuagint, it is interesting to note how the rabbis say that by the Word of God, In His Memra (במימר) we can pass through armies and conquer mighty citadels. That God's way is perfect, his oracles have been tried in fire, and he is a protector to them that hope in Him. Let's look at these texts:

Aramaic Targum

ל מטול דבמימרך אסגי משריין ובמימר אלהי אכבוש כרכין תקיפין: לא אלהא דכוונן דכיונן אורחתיה אורחתיה אוריתא דיהוה בחירא תריס הוא לכל דמתרחצין עלוי במימריה: לב ארום על ניסא וורחתיה אוריתא דיהוה בחירא עמך דישתארון יודון כל עממיא אומיא ולישניא ויימרון לית ופורקנא דתעביד למשיחך ולשיורי עמך דישתארון יודון כי ישראל יימרון לית דתקיף אלא אלהנא:

18:30 For by your word I will pass through armies; and by the word of my God I will subdue mighty citadels. 18:31 God [is he] whose ways are true; the Torah of the Lord is pure; he is a shield to all who trust in him. 18:32 For because of the miracle and deliverance that you will perform for your Messiah, and for the remnants of your people who will remain, all the Gentiles, nations, and tongues will confess and say, There is no God but the Lord, for there is none besides you; and your people will say, There is none mighty except our God. (EMC)

Septuagint (Greek)

18:30 ὁ θεός μου ἄμωμος ἡ ὁδὸς αὐτοῦ τὰ λόγια κυρίου πεπυρωμένα ὑπερασπιστής ἐστιν πάντων τῶν ἐλπιζόντων ἐπ' αὐτόν 18:31 ὅτι τίς θεὸς πλὴν τοῦ κυρίου καὶ τίς θεὸς πλὴν τοῦ θεοῦ ἡμῶν 18:32 ὁ θεὸς ὁ περιζωννύων με δύναμιν καὶ ἔθετο ἄμωμον τὴν ὁδόν μου

18:30 As for my God, his way is perfect: the oracles of the Lord are tried in the fire; he is a protector of all them that hope in him. 18:31 For who is God but the Lord? and who is a God except our God? 18:32 It is God that girds me with strength, and has made my way blameless: (LXX)

According to the Masoretic text, we read : לא הַאָל תַמִים בַּוֹ: הוא לְכֹל הַחוֹסִים בוֹ : יִם אַלוהַ מִבּלְעַבי יְהוָה וּמִי-צוּר זוּלָתִי אֱלהֵינוּ: לג הָאֵל הַמְאַזְרֵנִי חָיָל וַיִּתֵן תָּמִים דַּרְכִי: 18:30 As for God, His way is blameless; The word of the Lord is tried; He is a shield to all who take refuge in Him. 18:31 For who is God, but the Lord? And who is a rock, except our God, 18:32 The God who girds me with strength And makes my way blameless? (NASB) The Lord is described as being a rock, blameless, He has been tried, and that He is a shield. What does it mean that the Lord God is a shield? For us today the shield no longer plays a significant part in our lives. There is a disconnect in our culture because battles now are fought at a great distance, with missiles and rapid-firing guns, against which soldiers to protect themselves cover themselves in the ground or behind very heavily armored vehicles. But in the days when David wrote his psalm, hand to hand combat was the primary means for attacking your enemy. Fighting was done at close range, sometimes foot touching foot, the sword of one clashing against that of the other. Two men would struggle together that would not end until one of the two was bathed in his own blood. In such a situation, the shield was one's life. In such battles, for some, going without a shield meant certain death, especially if the enemy shot arrows to your position. Therefore, among the nations of antiquity, the shield was the main item for protection in fighting, and even to this day there are tribes in Africa that use the shield for protection. The shield caught the arrow; it broke the blow of the lance, and repelled the stroke of the sword. When thousands and thousands of men in Jerusalem were handling the shield themselves, they owed their lives to it, and raised the song of praise in the outer courts of Zion, and gloried in the Lord God Almighty as "the shield of their confidence." Thinking on these things, the people of that day felt in a way we can never fully know, what it means to rejoice in God as in one's Shield. The shield was a cover for the body which, was handled by the man himself who was sent into battle. For a right handed man, the shield was grasped by the left hand and held before the arm; In case of an assault one involuntarily raises his arm, and at the risk of having it wounded, tries to cover his face and his heart with it. Keeping all of these things in mind, the Scriptures say "The Lord is my Shield" and does not say, that God protects us from afar. These Scriptures suggest that He does this without effort on our part. Note how the Aramaic Targum says "For by Your Word I will pass through armies," indicating that the Lord is doing all by the power of His Word. The wording in Scripture as "The Lord is my Shield," is the language of faith. In battle, one has faith that their shield will hold up to the attack. With this parallelism, the use of the Lord as our shield come from the sense that God is close at hand, that our faith lays hold on Him, that we use Him as a defense against the assailant, and thus by faith, in His Messiah, we know and feel that we are covered with His presence. This does not mean that we can "use" God but that we can trust and believe that He will protect us, similar to the words in Tehillim / Psalms 18:28, :כח כי-אהַה עם-עַני תוֹשׁיע ועינים רַמוֹת השָׁפּיל 18:27 For You save an afflicted people, But haughty eyes You abase. (NASB) The Lord saves those who are afflicted and who seek Him (כִּי-אָקָה) עם-עני תושיע) The Aramaic Targum on Tehillim / Psalms 18:32 states that God will perform a miracle and deliverance from His Messiah for the remnants of His people who remain and "all the Gentiles, nations, and tongues will confess and say, There is no God but the Lord, for there is none besides you; and your people will say, There is none mighty except our God." In a time of danger a mother stands before her child, so as to cover her baby with her own body, and therefore it is said that mother is a shield to her child. In the same way, God is the shield of the little ones who as yet do not know Him. The interesting point is that it is not the imagery of a mother that we understand the Lord being our shield, it is in the imagery of the man who handles the shield himself and saved his life by it. The shield is also paralleled to the wing of an eagle, it belongs to the body of the warrior, a part of his arm, and his armor. The Lord God is a Shield to those who trust in Him, to those who believe, to those who in times of distress and danger know the never failing use of faith, and who by reason of this faith understand that God Himself gives direction to their arm and to their very footsteps. The Lord therefore is our Shield against contagious disease, against the forces of nature, and against even death itself. Our God is a Shield against disease and pestilence, and against flood and fire. Can you see how all of these things are connected together in the Lord God who loves and cares for us? In addition to this, God is our shield in the struggle to save our soul, in the struggle for our souls, we must stretch out our hands in faith and seek Him, His ways and His Messiah Yeshua. Now thinking on the shield and armor of a warrior, there is also something known as the "escutcheon," meaning "shield on which a coat of arms is pictured." The coat of arms is a picture, an image by which a person is recognized in battle. The escutcheon is a sign of personal recognition to those who know him, the escutcheon tells others who it is that is hiding behind the shield. The Shield therefore expresses the person, and becomes the personification of the warrior himself. Having God as our shield, we know Him because of who He is, His presence, He is the one who delivered Israel from bondage in Egypt, He holds the forces of nature in His hand, He has the ultimate power and majesty over all, and He is the One who works in our lives each day. Believing in God our Shield is to believe in the Savior of the World.

David continues saying מִשַׁוֶה רַגִלֵי כָּאַיָלוֹת ועַל בָּמֹתֵי יַעֵמִידֵנִי: לה מִלַמֵּד יַדֵי לַמְלָחָמָה וְנְחֲתָה לד ַקָּשֶׁת-נְחוּשָׁה זְרוֹעֹתָי: לו וַתִּתֶּן-לִי מָגַן יִשְׁעֶּד וִימִינְדָ תִסְעָדַנִי וְעַנְוָתְדָ תַרְבֵּנִי: לז תַּרְחִיב צַעֲדִי תַחְתָּי וְלא מָעֲדו : קרָסָלָי: 18:33 He makes my feet like hinds' feet, And sets me upon my high places. 18:34 He trains my hands for battle, So that my arms can bend a bow of bronze. 18:35 You have also given me the shield of Your salvation, And Your right hand upholds me; And Your gentleness makes me great. 18:36 You enlarge my steps under me, And my feet have not slipped. (NASB) What does it mean that God has given us the Shield of His Salvation? When David was thinking of Salvation, what was he thinking? When we think about Salvation today, what is our understanding of this? Is our understanding the same as David's? In Tehillim / Psalms 18:33-36, David says that God gives him feet that can run fast (hind's feet) and sets him upon a high place. A high place has the advantage of seeing everyone who is approaching. He also says that God trains his hands for battle, strong, and the Lord enlarges his steps so his feet do not slip. Studying the shield imagery previously, and seeing David's use of shield referring to God's Salvation; in heaven for you and I, we are kept by the power of God through faith for salvation. The Lord God Almighty is acting to help, keep, and train. The Aramaic Targum says לג אלהא דמזריז לי קמור בחילא ומתקן שלים אורחי: לד דמשוי ריגלי קלילין היך אילאתא ועל בית תוקפי יקיימינני: לה מליף אידי למעבד קרבא ומתקיף היך קשת כרכומי אדרעי דרעי: לו ויהבת לי תקוף ופורקו וימינד תסייענ<נ>י ובמימרד אסגעתני: לז אפתית אסגעת פסיעתי באתרי ולא :איזדעזע רכובתי 18:34 Who makes my feet like hinds'; and he will sustain me in my stronghold. 18:35 Who teaches my hands to do battle, and who makes my arms as strong as a bronze bow. 18:36 And you have given me strength and redemption; and your right hand will help me; and by your word you have multiplied me. 18:37 You have broadened my steps in my place, and my knee has not buckled. (EMC) The rabbis say the Lord has given David strength and redemption, that the right hand of God has helped him and the word has multiplied him. Note how the rabbis connect the Shield of Salvation to the Strength and Redemption of God. Redemption is the purchase back of something that had been lost, by the payment of a ransom. The Greek word for redemption is written as apolutrosis (stem: $\lambda \dot{\nu} \rho \sigma v$) a word occurring nine times in Scripture, and always with the idea of a ransom or price paid (see Matthew 20:28 and Mark 10:45). There are instances in the LXX (Septuagint) of the use of the word lutron (λύτροις) in man's relation to man (Vayikra / Leviticus 19:20, 25:51, Shemot / Exodus 21:30, Bamidbar / Numbers 35:31-32, Isaiah 45:13, and Mishley / Proverbs 6:35), and in the same sense of man's relation to God (Bamidbar / Numbers 3:49 and 18:15). Do you think the rabbis connection of the "Shield of God's Salvation" to "Strength and Redemption" is in the sense of redemption from sin or between men? The LXX (Greek translation) states the following, 18:33 ὁ καταρτιζόμενος τοὺς πόδας μου ὡς ἐλάφου καὶ ἐπὶ τὰ ὑψηλὰ ἱστῶν με 18:34 διδάσκων χεῖράς μου εἰς πόλεμον καὶ ἔθου τόξον χαλκοῦν τοὺς βραχίονάς μου 18:35 καὶ ἔδωκάς μοι ὑπερασπισμὸν σωτηρίας μου καὶ ἡ δεξιά σου ἀντελάβετό μου καὶ ἡ παιδεία σου ἀνώρθωσέν με εἰς τέλος καὶ ἡ παιδεία σου αὐτή με διδάξει 18:36 ἐπλάτυνας τὰ διαβήματά μου ὑποκάτω μου καὶ οὐκ ἠσθένησαν τὰ ἴχνη μου 18:33 who strengthens my feet as hart's feet, and sets me upon high places. 18:34 He instructs my hands for war: and thou hast made my arms as a brazen bow. 18:35 And thou hast made me secure in my salvation: and thy right hand has helped me, and thy correction has upheld me to the end; yea, thy correction itself shall instruct me. 18:36 Thou has made room for my goings under me, and by footsteps did not fail. (LXX) Here, the rabbis say that the Lord makes David secure in his salvation, that God's right hand has helped him and that God's correction has upheld him to the end, and that Gods correction itself has instructed him. This suggests that the Shield of Salvation is in fact related to the Salvation of God from Sin. The Lord is correcting David and God's correction has caused him to walk securely in the ways of the Lord. This is exactly what happens to us today in Yeshua the Messiah. By faith in God's Messiah, we are the children of God, and being a child of God, the Scriptures say in Hebrews 12:6 For the LORD disciplines those he loves, and he punishes each one he accepts as his child. (NASB) Here he is describing his victory over his enemies. He overtook them, consumed them, shattered them, they fell under his feet and cant rise, God girded him with strength for battle, the Lord caused his enemies to flee, David destroyed those who hated him, they cried for help but none were there to help and the Lord God did not answer their cry. Both the Aramaic and Greek translations parallel the Hebrew text. The Aramaic Targum says לה ארדוף סנאי בעלי דבבי ושיציתינון ולא תבית ואדבקינון ולא איתוב עד דגמרתינון: לט אגמרינון ולא יכילו יכלין למיקם ונפלו קטילין תחות פרסת ריגליי: מ וזריזתא לי חילא היך קמור למעבד קרבא תברתא עממין דקיימין לאבאשא לי חמטתנון תחותי: מא ובעלי דבבי תברתא קדמי יהביתינון מחזרי קדל וסנאי אשיצינון: מב בען סעיד ולית להון פריק מצלן קדם יהוה ולא מקבל צלותהון: מג ורוששתינון ודוששתינון היך גרגישתא דארעא על אנפי זעפא והיך סיין אשקקי בעטית אינון הינון: 18:38 I will pursue my enemies; [now] have I destroyed them, and I did not return until I finished them off. 18:39 I will destroy them, and they are unable to rise; and the slain have fallen under the soles of my feet.

18:40 And you have girded me with strength as a belt to do battle; you have defeated beneath me the Gentiles who rise up to do me harm. 18:41 And my foes you have broken in my presence; you have made them turn tail; [thus] my enemies I will destroy. 18:42 They seek help, but they have no redeemer; they pray in the presence of the Lord, but he does not accept their prayer. 18:43 I have crushed them like clods of earth before the storm-wind; and like the mud of the streets I have trodden them. (EMC) The Septuagint says, 18:37 καταδιώξω τοὺς ἐχθρούς μου καὶ καταλήμψομαι αὐτοὺς καὶ οὐκ ἀποστραφήσομαι ἕως ἂν ἐκλίπωσιν 18:38 έκθλίψω αὐτούς καὶ οὐ μὴ δύνωνται στῆναι πεσοῦνται ὑπὸ τοὺς πόδας μου 18:39 καὶ περιέζωσάς με δύναμιν εἰς πόλεμον συνεπόδισας πάντας τοὺς ἐπανιστανομένους ἐπ' ἐμὲ ὑποκάτω μου 18:40 καὶ τοὺς ἐχθρούς μου έδωκάς μοι νῶτον καὶ τοὺς μισοῦντάς με ἐξωλέθρευσας 18:41 ἐκέκραξαν καὶ οὐκ ἦν ὁ σώζων πρὸς κύριον καὶ οὐκ εἰσήκουσεν αὐτῶν 18:42 καὶ λεπτυνῶ αὐτοὺς ὡς χοῦν κατὰ πρόσωπον ἀνέμου ὡς πηλὸν πλατειῶν λεανῶ αὐτούς 18:37 I will pursue mine enemies, and overtake them; and I will not turn back until they are consumed. 18:38 I will dash them to pieces and they shall not be able to stand: they shall fall under my feet. 18:39 For thou hast girded me with strength for war: thou hast beaten down under me all that rose up against me. 18:40 And thou has made mine enemies turn their backs before me; and thou hast destroyed them that hated me. 18:41 They cried, but there was no deliverer: even to the Lord, but he hearkened not to them. 18:42 I will grind them as the mud of the streets: and I will beat them small as dust before the wind. (LXX) The interesting point of this section of Scripture is the question of how these verses relate to Yeshua's words to us in Matthew 5:43-48? Does this comparison show a transition between the way the Lord operates today with regard to the Tanach (Old Testament) and the Apostolic Writings (New Testament)? Let's read Yeshua's words in Matthew Chapter 5.

Matthew 5:43-48

5:43 'You have heard that it was said, 'You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy.' 5:44 'But I say to you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, 5:45 so that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven; for He causes His sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sends rain on the righteous and the unrighteous. 5:46 'For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not even the tax collectors do the same? 5:47 'If you greet only your brothers, what more are you doing than others Do not even the Gentiles do the same? 5:48 'Therefore you are to be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect. (NASB)

⁴³Ηκούσατε ὅτι ἐρρέθη, Ἀγαπήσεις τὸν πλησίον σου καὶ μισήσεις τὸν ἐχθρόν σου. ⁴⁴ἐγὼ δὲ λέγω ὑμῖν, ἀγαπᾶτε τοὺς ἐχθροὺς ὑμῶν καὶ προσεύχεσθε ὑπὲρ τῶν διωκόντων ὑμᾶς, ⁴⁵ὅπως γένησθε υἱοὶ τοῦ πατρὸς ὑμῶν τοῦ ἐν οὐρανοῖς, ὅτι τὸν ἥλιον αὐτοῦ ἀνατέλλει ἐπὶ πονηροὺς καὶ ἀγαθοὺς καὶ βρέχει ἐπὶ δικαίους καὶ ἀδίκους. ⁴⁶ἐὰν γὰρ ἀγαπήσητε τοὺς ἀγαπῶντας ὑμᾶς, τίνα μισθὸν ἔχετε; οὐχὶ καὶ οἱ τελῶναι τὸ αὐτὸ ποιοῦσιν; ⁴⁷καὶ ἐὰν ἀσπάσησθε τοὺς ἀδελφοὺς ὑμῶν μόνον, τί περισσὸν ποιεῖτε; οὐχὶ καὶ οἱ ἐθνικοὶ τὸ αὐτὸ ποιοῦσιν; ⁴⁸Εσεσθε οὖν ὑμεῖς τέλειοι ὡς ὁ πατὴρ ὑμῶν ὁ οὐράνιος τέλειός ἐστιν.

In Tehillim / Psalms 18:37-42 we read David praising God for the destruction of his enemies. In Matthew 5:43-48, Yeshua tells us that we have heard that it was "said." Note Yeshua says "that it was said" and not "that it is written." Did Yeshua say here that the Law says to hate your enemy? Does the Torah tell us to hate our enemies? Studying the Torah (Law), no where does it say that one is to hate their enemies. In fact, this statement cannot be found in the Mishnah either (the oral law that was passed by memorization and written down in the 3rd century CE by Judah ha-Nasi). The saying "You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy" must have been a statement that was common in the midst of the occupying army of Rome in Israel in the first century. Yeshua said "love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you." The reason is so that we may be the sons of our Father who is in heaven. Today, studying these verses, is it wrong to thank God and to praise His Name for having victory over our enemies, in their death? What if we lived in Syria today and were innocent people living in the midst of the Muslim war? If we were attacked, and the enemy was destroyed, would it be wrong to thank God for their destruction?

David continues saying, הַפּלְטני מריבי עֵם תָּשִׁימני לְרֹאשׁ גוֹים עם לֹא-יֵדְעָתִי יְעָבְדוּנִי: מה מד : אזן ישמעו לי בני-נכר יכחשו-לי: מו בני-נכר יבלו ויחרגו ממסגרותיהם 18:43 You have delivered me from the contentions of the people; You have placed me as head of the nations; A people whom I have not known serve me. 18:44 As soon as they hear, they obey me; Foreigners submit to me. 18:45 Foreigners fade away, And come trembling out of their fortresses. (NASB) Notice in Tehillim / Psalms 18:43 states "A people whom I have not known serve me" using the world יעבדוני from the root word עבד meaning "to work, to labor, to serve" provides us with a picture of slavery, forced labor, or servitude. The Rabbis translate this saying מד תשזבינני מפלוגת מפלגותא עממיא תנטרינני מניתא יתי במזלי מזיין בריש עממיא עמא דלא חכימית יפלחונני: מה לשמע אודן ישתמעון לי בני עממיא נוכראין יכדבון קדמיי: מו בני עממיא נוכראין יסופון ויטלטלון מבירנתהון: 18:44 You will deliver me from the discords of the Gentiles; you will keep me by my destiny a benefactor at the head of the Gentiles; a people that I did not know shall worship me. 18:45 At the hearing of the ear, they will obey me; the sons of the peoples will desert in my presence. 18:46 The sons of the peoples above will perish, and will go into exile from their palaces. (EMC) using the word יפלחונני that is translated to mean "to worship me." The Septuagint says 18:43 $\dot{\rho}$ ύση με έξ ἀντιλογιῶν λαοῦ καταστήσεις με εἰς κεφαλὴν έθνῶν λαός ὃν οὐκ ἔγνων ἐδούλευσέν μοι 18:44 εἰς ἀκοὴν ὠτίου ὑπήκουσέν μοι υἱοὶ ἀλλότριοι ἐψεύσαντό μοι 18:45 υίοι ἀλλότριοι ἐπαλαιώθησαν και ἐχώλαναν ἀπὸ τῶν τρίβων αὐτῶν 18:43 Deliver me from the gain sayings of the people: thou shalt make me head of the Gentiles: a people whom I knew not served me, 18:44 at the hearing of the ear they obeyed me: the strange children lied to me. 18:45 The strange children waxed old, and fell away from their paths through lameness. (LXX) the Septuagint agrees with both the Hebrew text and the Aramaic targum. This Psalm of David (Tehillim / Psalms 18) is a bit unpleasant thinking on how David praises God for the destruction of his enemies or of having the ability to slav his enemies in light of what Yeshua said in Matthew 5:43-48. Studying the Psalms, some psalms are soothing, such as Tehillim / Psalm 23. Others like Tehillim / Psalm 91 are comforting. There are soul-stirring psalms which inspire us to worship and praise such as Tehillim / Psalm 103. Whereas, other psalms are troubling, such as here in Tehillim / P alms 18 and David thanking God for the destruction of his enemies. Tehillim / Psalm 109 is another example where there psalter is calling upon God to destroy his enemies in the most horrible ways. Other Psalms contain similar prayers for the punishment of evildoers, for example from Tehillim / Psalms 69:27-28 that says "Do Thou add iniquity to their iniquity, and may they not come into Thy righteousness. May they be blotted out of the book of life, and may they not be recorded with the righteous." Here one is asking God to even blot his enemies out of the book of life. In Tehillim / Psalm 137 we find a cry of vengeance against the Babylonians. Moshe said in Bamidbar / Numbers 10:35 Then it came about when the ark set out that Moses said, 'Rise up, O Lord! And let Your enemies be scattered, And let those who hate You flee before You.' (NASB) The prophet Jeremiah also spoke words of imprecation (invoking evil) which parallel the prayers of David and others in the psalms. For example, Jeremiah 18:19 Do give heed to me, O Lord, And listen to what my opponents are saying! 18:20 Should good be repaid with evil? For they have dug a pit for me. Remember how I stood before You To speak good on their behalf, So as to turn away Your wrath from them. 18:21 Therefore, give their children over to famine And deliver them up to the power of the sword; And let their wives become childless and widowed. Let their men also be smitten to death, Their young men struck down by the sword in battle. 18:22 May an outcry be heard from their houses, When You suddenly bring raiders upon them; For they have dug a pit to capture me And hidden snares for my feet. 18:23 Yet You, O Lord, know All their deadly designs against me; Do not forgive their iniquity Or blot out their sin from Your sight. But may they be overthrown before You; Deal with them in the time of Your anger! (NASB) Do these prayers that call for God to destroy one's enemies, run contradictory to Yeshua's words in Matthew 5:43-48? Is this simply a matter of God's revelation in Yeshua the Messiah for today as compared to God's revelation to those before Yeshua came? Are these simply the passionate plea of David and others for God's help against their enemies?

The imprecation psalms (psalms that seem to call upon God to invoke evil) are not merely the passionate pleas of one man, whether spiritually or fleshly motivated, these psalms were used in worship before God in Israel. Could you imagine coming together to worship and singing a psalm like Tehillim / Psalm 109? Ancient Israel did and so we should look and think very carefully on these passages to learn its message to us. How does thanking God for the destruction of our enemies apply to us today? Is there a time for praying for the salvation of our enemies and a time for praying for their destruction? When praying for our own salvation from harm, are we asking in a round about way for the destruction of the enemy? Think about those who are in Syria or Israel with the constant thread of bombs and missiles. The righteousness of the psalter shows us that he is first looking (seeking) God's help. It is to the God of Israel to whom these prayers were addressed and His Spirit who inspired them. Therefore, these psalms should be taking seriously with regard to who God is and who we are as His children.

David concludes the Psalm saying הָאָל הַנּוֹתֵן נְקָמוֹת הָאָליָהֵי וְיָרוּם אֲלוֹהֵי יִשְׁעִי: מח הָאָל הַנּוֹתֵן נְקַמוֹת הַאָיֵלֵנִי: נ עַל-כֵּן אוֹדְךָ בַגוֹיִם יְהוָהָיִ לִי וַיַּדְבֵּר עַמִּים תַּחְתָי: מט מְפַלְטִי מֵאיְכָי אַף מִן-קַמֵי תְּרוֹמְמֵנִי מֵאישׁ חָמָס תַּצִילֵנִי: נ עַל-כֵּן אוֹדְךָ בַגוֹיִם יְהוֹת לִי וַיַּדְבֵּר עַמִּים תַּחְתָי: מט מְפַלְטִי מֵאיְכָי אַף מִן-קַמֵי תְּרוֹמְמֵנִי מֵאישׁ חָמָס תַּצִילֵנִי: נ עַל-כֵּן אוֹדְךָ בַגוֹיִם יִי לִי ווּיַדְבָר עַמִּים תַּחְתָי: מט מְפַלְטִי מֵאיְכָי אַף מִן-קַמֵי תְּרוֹמְמֵנִי מֵאישׁ חָמָס תַּצִילֵנִי: נ לי ווּיַדְבָר עַמִּים תַּחְתָי: מט מְפַלְטִי מַאיְכָי אַר מון-קַמַי מָרוֹקמֵנִי מָאישׁ חָמָס תַּצִילֵנִי: נ ווינד, גא מַגְדָל מַיָּארָ מַט מְפָרָטָי מַאיָביין אַי ווינד, אוֹמַרָה: נא מַגדָּל מַר מַאידָין יִירוּיַלָם ווּשָּרָר מַיָּרָים אווּער מַלְכּוֹ ווּיָדָשָּה חָסָר לְלָתוּ גיי ווינד, גא מַגדָּל מַר מַיַאָרָים וּיַרָּרָעוֹים וּיָרָר מָיָרָי ווּינד, גא מַגדָּל מַרָר מַר מַיָּאָרָים ווּיַיָּר מָאיָדָים ווּיַרָּר מָעוֹב פּמוּנוּ מוּש 18:46 The Lord lives, and blessed be my rock; And exalted be the God of my salvation, 18:47 The God who executes vengeance for me, And subdues peoples under me. 18:48 He delivers me from my enemies; Surely You lift me above those who rise up against me; You rescue me from the violent man. 18:49 Therefore I will give thanks to You among the nations, O Lord, And I will sing praises to Your name. 18:50 He gives great deliverance to His king, And shows lovingkindness to His anointed, To David and his descendants forever. (NASB) The Scripture says "God executes vengeance for me, And subdues peoples under me," how is this the case if David is the one who is subduing the nations according to the previous text? (Tehillim / Psalms 18:37-42) Studying these Scriptures, there is one reference from the Apostolic Writings, Romans 15:9 quotes from Tehillim / Psalms 18:49. Let's read Romans 15:7-13:

Romans 15:7-13

15:7 Therefore, accept one another, just as Christ also accepted us to the glory of God. 15:8 For I say that Christ has become a servant to the circumcision on behalf of the truth of God to confirm the promises given to the fathers, 15:9 and for the Gentiles to glorify God for His mercy; as it is written, 'Therefore I will give praise to You among the Gentiles, And I will sing to Your name.' 15:10 Again he says, 'Rejoice, O Gentiles, with His people.' 15:11 And again, 'Praise the Lord all you Gentiles, And let all the peoples praise Him.' 15:12 Again Isaiah says, 'There shall come the root of Jesse, And He who arises to rule over the Gentiles, In Him shall the Gentiles hope.' 15:13 Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that you will abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit. (NASB)

Here, the Apostle Paul uses Tehillim / Psalms 18 to say 15:9 and for the Gentiles to glorify God for His mercy; as it is written, 'Therefore I will give praise to You among the Gentiles, And I will sing to Your Name.' In the context of Tehillim / Psalms 18, David is praising God for the destruction of the Gentiles, but Paul uses this verse to speak of the mercy of God in His Son so Gentiles will glorify God for His mercy. In John 3:3, Yeshua says "amein amein" (Ἀμὴν ἀμὴν) "truly truly" I say to you unless one is born from above (ἄνωθεν) he is not able to behold the kingdom (βασιλείαν) of God. The principle of "life from above" is revealed in God's covenant and the process in which God blesses His people. The covenant was to bring the people to God and to teach them to trust Him, to delight in Him, and to be one with Him and to walk in His ways. This is the reason and the purpose that David seeks the Lord above throughout all of his days according to the Psalms. Being born from above reveals to us that God is actively working in our lives to change us from the inside out because of His great love for us. It is written in the Scriptures לאהבה אָלהֶיך לשמע וּלְדָבְקָה-בוֹ כִּי הוּא חֵיֵיך וָאֹרֶך יֵמֵיך "... love the Lord your God, by obeying His voice, and by holding fast to Him; for this is your life and the length of your days, ..." Jeremiah 31:2 says מֵרָחוֹק יָהוֶה נָרָאָה לִי קסד (אָהָבָתּיך חָסָד) "I love you with an everlasting love and in chased (חָסָד, mercy/ grace) I draw you to me." According to Jeremiah, God the Father draws us to Himself. Yeshua said in John 6:44 οὐδεὶς δύναται ἐλθεῖν πρός με ἐὰν μὴ ὁ πατὴρ ὁ πέμψας με ἑλκύσῃ αὐτόν, κἀγὼ ἀναστήσω αὐτὸν ἐν τῇ έσχάτη ἡμέρα. 'No one can come to Me unless the Father who sent Me draws him; and I will raise him up on the last day. (NASB) In God's mercy the non-Jew will give praise to the God of Israel. Becoming born new, God makes a place in our hearts through which He works His will in our lives. As we walk in the fear ירָאָה) of the Lord, we are to pray for those who persecute us, pray for our enemies, and love those who hate us. This is very difficult to do without God's help. The Torah says אָשֶׁהַבָּה אֶלהֶיך לְשָׁמֹעַ בְּקֹלוֹ וּלְדָבְקָה-בוֹ כִּי הוּא חֵיֶיך וָאֹרֶך יָמֵיך (... love the Lord your God, by obeying His voice, and by holding fast to Him; for this is your life and the length of your days, ... " In this Hebrew text it says "לְשָׁמֹעַ בְּקֹלוֹ" meaning "to hear His voice" and the English translation says "by obeying His voice" and "וֹלְדָבְקָה-בוֹ" meaning "to be devoted in Him" where the English translation says "by holding fast to Him." The Torah of God does not call us to invoke evil upon our enemies. We are called to seek God, to seek His Messiah, His Salvation, and to listen to His voice which synonymous to obeying His voice and being devoted to Him (synonymous with holding fast to Him). We hear the Word of God to believe by faith (Romans 10:17) and we hold fast to the Word of God because He is the length of our days and He gives us life. Without Yeshua there is no Salvation, no Redemption, no Deliverance from sin, there is nothing left but the sting of the enemy. David throughout Tehillim / Psalms 18 sought the Salvation of God just as he said in Tehillim / Psalms 18:46 The Lord lives, and blessed be my rock; And exalted be the God of my salvation, (NASB). In order to see the Kingdom of God, receive Redemption, and the Forgiveness of sins, ask Yeshua, God's Messiah to be Lord of your life. Let's pray!

Heavenly Father,

Thank you for helping us to understand that it is only by Your great salvation, Your Mercy, Your Grace, and by Your enabling that we are able to stand before you! The Apostle Paul said that destruction is reserved for those who do not know God and who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Yeshua. Help us to understand what it means to "obey the gospel of Yeshua" and to live by the power of Your Spirit. Standing in You and in Your Son Yeshua we are made righteous and will not be moved. We thank you Lord for sending us Your Son Yeshua who paid the covenant price for the forgiveness of our sins. We believe that in Your Son Yeshua, we have a firm foundation, we are unmovable, and have the hope of eternal life. Help us to trust in You Lord as we seek You and Your presence each day. We believe in the Righteous work Yeshua did in His life and upon the cross to make atonement for our sins. Help us to live and dedicated our lives to You, fill us with Your presence Lord and thank You for revealing these truths to our hearts. We praise Your Holy Name and give You all of the honor, and the glory, and the praise forever and ever.

In Yeshua's (Jesus') Name I pray! Amen!

Be Blessed in Yeshua, Christ our Messiah!
