

Introduction - Repentance Series Part 6

- open with the Lord God of Israel being known and understood in the Tanach as "our Father" who loves us and provides for us and in doing so offers us mercy and grace.
- The Talmud Baveli Sota 14a states the Torah opens and closes with the grace of God.
- Modern theologians teach the word has gone through some kind of transmutation

OT ↔ NT
(works) (grace)

- Psalm 19, the Torah is restorative to the soul... How?
- the word chesed (חֶסֶד) being translated as grace (NT) and lovingkindness (OT).
- scripture examples of variant English translations on Exodus 34:6 when there is no textual variation in Ginsburg's marginal Mesorah.
- conclude with Judaism's understanding of Grace and the Torah!
