The Requirements of Good Leadership

In this week's Torah portion, we read the following in Bereshit / Genesis 44:26-32, 26 וַיֹּאמֶר לֹא נוֹכַל לָרֶדֶת אִם־יֵשׁ אֶחָיִנוּ הַקָּטָן אִתָּנוּ וְיָרֶ- We answered, 'We cannot go down; only if our youngest brother is with us can we go down, for we may not show our faces to the man unless our youngest brother is with us.' 27 וַיֹּאמֶר עֲבָדָךְ אָבִי אֵלָינוּ אַתֶּם יֹדְעֵהֶם כִּי שְׁנַיִם יָלְדָהּ- Your servant my father said to us, 'As you know, my wife bore me two sons. 28 וַיֵּצֵא הָאֶחָד מֵאִתִּי וְאָמַר אֵד טָרַף טָרַף וְלֹא רָאִיתִיו עַד־הַנְּהָה But one is gone from me, and I said: Alas, he was torn by a beast! And I have not seen him since. 29 וְלִקְחֹתֶם גַּם־אֶת־זֶה מֵעַם פָּנָי וְקָרְהוּ אֶסֶן If you take this one from me, too, and he meets with disaster, you will send my white head down to Sheol in sorrow.' 30 וְעַתָּה כְּבֹאִי אֶל־עֲבָדָךְ אָבִי וְהַנְּעַר אִיגָנוּ אִתָּנוּ וְנִפְשׁוּ קִשּׁוּרָה Now, if I come to your servant my father and the boy is not with us—since his own life is so bound up with his— 31 וְהָיָה כִּרְאוֹתָיו when he sees that the boy is not with us, he will die, and your servants will send the white head of your servant our father down to Sheol in grief.

כִּי עֲבָדְךָ עָרַב אֶת־הַנֶּעֱרַר מֵעַם אָבִי לְאִמֹּר אִם־לֹא אָבִיאֲנֹו אֵלָיְךָ וְחָטָא- 32
 תִּי לְאָבִי כָּל־הַיָּמִים. Now your servant has pledged himself for the boy to my father, saying, 'If I do not bring him back to you, I shall stand guilty before my father forever.' 33
 וְעַתָּה יִשְׁבֶּגְנָא עֲבָדְךָ תַּחַת הַנֶּעֱרַר עֶבֶד. 33 Therefore, please let your servant remain as a slave to my lord instead of the boy, and let the boy go back with his brothers. 34
 כִּי־אֵיךָ אֶעֱלֶה אֶל־אָבִי וְהַנֶּעֱרַר אֵינְנוּ אִתִּי פֶן אָרְאֶה בְּרָע. 34 For how can I go back to my father unless the boy is with me? Let me not be witness to the woe that would overtake my father!” The differences in the attitude and behavior of his brothers for their younger brother, the one who was loved more than they were, has significantly changed. Notice how Judah states that he has bound his life to Benjamin (בְּנִימִין = “Son of the right side”), he says that he has pledged himself for the boy to guarantee his safety. Judah functions as a savior for his brother. The commentary Rabbeinu Bahya on Bereshit / Genesis 44:32:1-3 states, “for your servant has guaranteed the safety of the lad.” I have undertaken to be surety for him in a manner which is irrevocable and not subject to any redemption by substitution. If I fail to honor the terms of my guarantee all my brothers will remain within the family circle whereas I will be condemned to remain outside.” Notice the significance of these words Judah is speaking, his claim to save Benjamin is so great, that if he fails, he would have sinned against his father and against God for all time (Bereshit / Genesis 43:9, וְחָטָאתִי, (לְאָבִי כָּל הַיָּמִים). Could Judah be trying to make up for his past sins with his Brother Benjamin? Rabbeinu Bahya says Judah included both his biological father Jacob as well as his Father in heaven in this statement. He was basically saying that if he did not offer his own life for the boy’s life, he would be guilty of committing a wrong in both worlds. These words draw into context the power of the redeemer, the one who lays his own life down on behalf of the one he loves. There is a parallel here to what Yeshua the Messiah did on our behalf. Recently I have a conversation with someone who converted to Orthodox Judaism, he stated if a Jewish commentator does not say something in the way he believes (a presupposition), it is rejected as a valid interpretation of Scripture. (i.e. Rashi vs. Radak) In this case however, Rashi agrees in his commentary on Bereshit / Genesis 44:32 Part 1. Rashi states “כִּי עֲבָדְךָ”

— Should you ask why I enter into the contest (champion his cause) more strongly than my other brothers — then I tell you: I have more to lose; they all stand outside the matter (are less concerned with it than I am), but I have placed myself under a firm bond to be an outcast in both worlds.” Judah spoke of being a guarantee for another person, and of giving life for a life. This is what Yeshua did for us! Note the significance of Judah’s words, that his guarantee for Benjamin is related to both worlds (this present world and the heavenly world [Olam Haba]). His liability for his brother was to be cast out of both worlds if he did not follow through with his oath to his father. This means that his punishment included not just this world but also punishment in the World to Come. The life of Joseph demonstrates God’s sovereign hand in the lives of mankind. The words of Judah also speak of the Lord’s sovereign hand working in the lives of his brothers. Though the world seems to follow a sinful course around us, God is secretly working out His purposes in the midst of it. This is one of the most important points we learn from the story of Joseph and his brothers. Joseph had been kidnapped and betrayed, sold into Egypt as a slave, falsely accused of attempted adultery and imprisoned in a dungeon. His life seemed to be at an end, however, Joseph continued to remain faithful to the God of his fathers. Even though everything had tumbled down around him, He kept looking to the Lord and believing that He was working through the chaos. He never fell into depression or despondency because he always believed that he was right where God had placed him.

In this week’s reading, Joseph was chosen by God from the time of his birth to become a great leader and Savior for all peoples? Based on his character (and life history) was he qualified for this job? In your own life, do you feel that you have been born for a certain mission or role or do you see it as something that is evolving? These are all very important questions as they are related to this week’s Torah portion, Parashat Vayigash in regards to leadership and what it means to be a good leader. In the Talmud Bavli Berakhot 55a, we read the following, “R. Judah said: Three things shorten a man’s days and years: being given a Sefer Torah to read and refusing to read it; being given a cup for benediction and refusing to say it; and taking on airs of authority. To be given a Sefer Torah to read from and refuse, as it is written: For this is your life and the length of your days (Devarim / Deuteronomy 30:20). To be given a cup for benediction and refuse, as it is written (Bereshit / Genesis 12:3): I will bless them that bless you. To assume airs of authority: as R. Hama bar Hanina said: why did Joseph die before his brothers? Because he took on an air of authority.” What do you think the rabbis meant by the phrase, “putting on the airs of authority?” Why is this equated with refusing to read from the Torah scroll or to bless a cup of wine? The phrase “to put on airs” or “to give oneself airs” is a figurative way to say one acts better than he really is, or to pretend to be good or to be superior. The idea here is that the one who takes upon himself authority as a leader, one may be tempted as the Talmud says, to put on airs, or to feel superior to others. (Not to mention the added stress in life due to leadership position.) This may lead to pride in life and a lack of studying the Scriptures, and to not bless others as a result of the authority one has been given. The concept of “superiority” has no place in the hearts of leaders. The Talmud Bavli Berekhot 55a appears to place leaders and those in authority in a negative light as a result of pride. The Talmud Bavli Yoma 22b states, “Rav Nehilai bar Idi said in the name of Samuel: As soon as a man is appointed administrator of a community he becomes rich – First it is written: And he [Saul] counted them by means of pebbles. Then in the end: And he [Saul] counted by means of sheep. (1 Samuel 15:5).” Comparing Yoma 22a to Berekhot 55a, these comments appear to present “authority” in a positive light. It is interesting how the rabbis use king Saul as the example in Yoma 22a, where a reference to Saul may be related to men being failed leaders. In light of the rabbis comments on leadership and authority, how should one behave as a leader? This is related to the Torah portion in the sense of Joseph testing the faith of his brothers and observing their abilities as leaders. The conclusion is, true humility involves studying God’s Word and laying down of our lives for others as being the true meaning of leadership. Let’s discuss this further in this week’s Torah study.

This week we are looking at the Scriptures from Bereshit / Genesis 44:18-45:5.

Bereshit / Genesis 44:18-45:5

44:18 Then Judah approached him, and said, ‘Oh my lord, may your servant please speak a word in my lord's ears, and do not be angry with your servant; for you are equal to Pharaoh. 44:19 'My lord asked his servants, saying, 'Have you a father or a brother?' 44:20 'We said to my lord, 'We have an old father and a little child of his old age. Now his brother is dead, so he alone is left of his mother; and his father loves him.' 44:21 'Then you said to your servants, 'Bring him down to me that I may set my eyes on him.' 44:22 'But we said to my lord, 'The lad cannot leave his father, for if he should leave his father, his father would die.' 44:23 'You said to your servants, however, 'Unless your youngest brother comes down with you, you will not see my face again.' 44:24 'Thus it came about when we went up to your servant my father; we told him the words of my lord. 44:25 'Our father said, 'Go back, buy us a little food.' 44:26 'But we said, 'We cannot go down. If our youngest brother is with us, then we will go down; for we cannot see the man's face unless our youngest brother is with us.' 44:27 'Your servant my father said to us, 'You know that my wife bore me two sons; 44:28 and the one went out from me, and I said, 'Surely he is torn in pieces,' and I have not seen him since. 44:29 'If you take this one also from me, and harm befalls him, you will bring my gray hair down to Sheol in sorrow.' 44:30 'Now, therefore, when I come to your servant my father, and the lad is not with us, since his life is bound up in the lad's life, 44:31 when he sees that the lad is not with us, he will die. Thus your servants will bring the gray hair of your servant our father down to Sheol in sorrow. 44:32 'For your servant became surety for the lad to my father, saying, 'If I do not bring him back to you, then let me bear the blame before my father forever.' 44:33 'Now, therefore, please let your servant remain instead of the lad a slave to my lord, and let the lad go up with his brothers. 44:34 'For how shall I go up to my father if the lad is not with me for fear that I see the evil that would overtake my father?' 45:1 Then Joseph could not control himself before all those who stood by him, and he cried, 'Have everyone go out from me.' So there was no man with him when Joseph made himself known to his brothers. 45:2 He wept so loudly that the Egyptians heard it, and the household of Pharaoh heard of it. 45:3 Then Joseph said to his brothers, 'I am Joseph! Is my father still alive?' But his brothers could not answer him, for they were dismayed at his presence. 45:4 Then Joseph said to his brothers, 'Please come closer to me.' And they came closer. And he said, 'I am your brother Joseph, whom you sold into Egypt. 45:5 'Now do not be grieved or angry with yourselves, because you sold me here, for God sent me before you to preserve life.

The most significant part of the reading for this week are Judah's words to Joseph from Bereshit / Genesis 44:31-34, which states the following, לא וְהָיָה כִּרְאוֹתָיו כִּי-אֵין הַנֶּעֱר וּמֵת וְהוֹרִידוּ עִבְדֶּיךָ אֶת-שֵׂיבַת עִבְדְּךָ, אָבִינוּ בְּיָגוֹן שְׂאֵלָה: לֵב כִּי עִבְדְּךָ עָרַב אֶת-הַנֶּעֱר מֵעַם אָבִי לְאֹמֶר אִם-לֹא אָבִינָנוּ אֵלֶיךָ וְחָטַאתִי לְאָבִי כָּל-הַיָּמִים: לֵג וְעַתָּה יִשָּׁב-נָא עִבְדְּךָ תַּחַת הַנֶּעֱר עֶבֶד לְאֲדֹנָי וְהִנֵּעַר יַעַל עִם-אָחָיו: לֵד כִּי-אֵיךְ אֶעֱלֶה אֶל-אָבִי וְהִנֵּעַר אֵינְנוּ אִתִּי פֶן אֲרָאָה בְּרַע אֲשֶׁר יִמָּצָא אֶת-אָבִי: 44:31 when he sees that the lad is not with us, he will die. Thus your servants will bring the gray hair of your servant our father down to Sheol in sorrow. 44:32 'For your servant became surety for the lad to my father, saying, 'If I do not bring him back to you, then let me bear the blame before my father forever.' 44:33 'Now, therefore, please let your servant remain instead of the lad a slave to my lord, and let the lad go up with his brothers. 44:34 'For how shall I go up to my father if the lad is not with me for fear that I see the evil that would overtake my father?' (NASB) Judah approached Joseph and spoke to him about his youngest brother. He laid his life down as a servant to Joseph in order to secure the life of his brother because he was concerned for the life of his father Jacob. Judah humbled himself and sought the welfare of others. This aspect of Judah's behavior was absent from what we read in the previous Torah portion. Thirty years of thinking about what they did to their brother Joseph has had an impact on the way they thought and behaved towards one another. The rabbis, according to the Tosefta on the Talmud Bavli Berekhot 4:16, 272 have much to say concerning leadership and Judah who took it upon himself to protect his youngest brother and his father Jacob.

The Tosefta on the Talmud Bavli Berekhot 4:16

[Then] he (i.e. Rabbi Tarfon) said to them (i.e. his students), "I will ask [you another question]." They said to him, "Teach us our master." He said to them, "Why did [the tribe of] Yehudah merit the kingship [of Israel]?" They said to him, "Because [Yehudah] admitted [that he impregnated] Tamar." It happened [once] with four elders, that they were sitting in the gatehouse of Rabbi Yehoshua. [They were] Elazar Ben Matya, Chaninah Ben Chachinai, Shimon Ben Azzai, and Shimon Hateimani. And they were involved [in discussing] what Rabbi Tarfon taught to them, "Why did [the tribe of] Yehudah merit the kingship [of Israel]?" "Because [Yehudah] admitted [that he impregnated] Tamar." They have added [another source to that explanation] on their own. "[It says in the book of Iyov], '... that which the wise related from their fathers and did not withhold. To them alone the earth was given...' (Job 15:18-19)" He (i.e. Rabbi Tarfon) said to them (i.e. to the four elders), "Do they give reward for a transgression? But rather what is [the real] reason why [the tribe of] Yehudah merited the kingship of Israel?" [The four elders said back to Rabbi Tarfon,] "Because he (i.e. Yehudah) saved his brother (i.e. Yosef) from death, as it is said, 'Yehudah said to his brothers, "What benefit [will we have] if we kill our brother?"' (Genesis 37:26) and it is written, 'Let us go and sell him to the Ishmaelites...' (Genesis 37:27)" He (i.e. Rabbi Tarfon) said [back] to them (i.e. the four elders), "It is enough that [the act of] saving [him] should [serve] as forgiveness for the [act of] selling [him to the Ishmaelites]. But rather what is [the real] reason why [the tribe of] Yehudah merited the kingship of Israel?" [The four elders said back to Rabbi Tarfon,] "Because of [Yehudah's] humil- ity, as it is said, 'And now your servant (i.e. Yehudah) will become a slave to my master (i.e. Yosef) instead of the boy (i.e. Binyamin).' (Genesis 44:33) Also [the only reason that] Shaul merited the kingship [of Israel] was due to [his] humility, as it is said, '... may be my father will turn his attention away from the donkeys and will start to worry about us.' (I Samuel 9:5) [Since Shaul said "us" and not "me"] he considered his servant as [important as] himself, but Shmuel did not do so, but rather [he said], 'Your father stopped worrying about the donkeys and is worried about you, saying "What will happen to my son?"' (I Samuel 10:2) And when he (i.e. Shaul) runs away from [accepting his newly appointed role of] leadership what does it say? 'And they have asked God, "Is the man even here?" and God said, "Here he is hiding by the vessels."' (I Samuel 10:22) He (i.e. Rabbi Tarfon) said [back] to them (i.e. the four elders), "Is not he (i.e. Yehudah) a cosigner? And in the end [it is the responsibility] of a cosigner to fulfill his pledge. But rather what is [the real] reason why [the tribe of] Yehudah merited the kingship of Israel?" They said to him, "Teach us our master." He said to them, "[The reason the tribe of Yehudah merited the kingship of Israel is] because they sanctified God's name on the sea. When [all of] the tribes came and stood by the sea, this one said, 'I will go down [into the water first]' and this one said, 'I will go down [into the water first].' The tribe of Yehudah jumped up and went in first and sanctified God's name [by doing so]. And regarding that moment it says [in Tehillim], 'Save me God, because the water is up to my soul.' (Psalms 69:2) And it also says, 'When Yisrael was going out of Egypt, the children of Yakov from the nation of a foreign tongue, Yehudah was His sanctifier...' (Psalms 114:1-2) Since Yehudah sanctified God's name on the sea, therefore '... Yisrael his subjects.' (ibid.)" (אמר להם אשאל אמרו לו) [למדנו] רבינו אמר להם מפני מה זכה יהודה למלכות אמרו

The Tosefta (תוספתא) is Aramaic and is translated as "supplement" or "addition" as it is a compilation on the interpretation of the Jewish oral law (Mishnah) from the late 2nd century. The Tosefta offers additional aggadic and midrashic material which contributes to the Mishnah in the interpretation of Jewish law, or in attributing in whose name a law was stated. According to the Tosefta on the Talmud Bavli Berekhot 4:16, the rabbis open with the question on what it was that caused Judah to be such a great leader and merited his kingship? They open with Judah having admitted that he had impregnated Tamar. This impregnation was a transgression, a sin. The belief is a true leader admits his faults and his sins; he does not attempt to hide what he has done wrong. The rabbis respond saying, “He (i.e. Rabbi Tarfon) said to them (i.e. to the four elders), “Do they give reward for a transgression? But rather what is [the real] reason why [the tribe of] Yehudah merited the kingship of Israel?” [The four elders said back to Rabbi Tarfon,] “Because he (i.e. Yehudah) saved his brother (i.e. Yosef) from death, as it is said, ‘Yehudah said to his brothers, “What benefit [will we have] if we kill our brother?’” (Genesis 37:26) and it is written, ‘Let us go and sell him to the Ishmaelites...’ (Genesis 37:27)” The idea here is that it was for his having saved Joseph from his brothers and from death that he merited kingship. The rabbis question whether this was sufficient for the forgiveness of selling Joseph into slavery, because it was Judah who suggested earning money from the sale of their brother into slavery. The rabbis continue saying what was the real reason for his earning kingship? They say, “[The four elders said back to Rabbi Tarfon,] “Because of [Yehudah’s] humility, as it is said, ‘And now your servant (i.e. Yehudah) will become a slave to my master (i.e. Yosef) instead of the boy (i.e. Binyamin).’ (Genesis 44:33)” The primary reason for Judah being given the kingship was due to his humility and selflessness towards his brothers. The Tosefta interprets the reason Judah merited the kingship to have gone even further back in history, making reference to Tehillim / Psalms 114:1-2 which states the following, 114:1 When Israel went forth from Egypt, The house of Jacob from a people of strange language, 114:2 Judah became His sanctuary, Israel, His dominion. 114:3 The sea looked and fled; The Jordan turned back. (NASB, אֲבִיבְצֵאת יִשְׂרָאֵל מִמִּצְרַיִם בֵּית יַעֲקֹב מֵעַם לֵעָז: ב הַיְתָה יְהוּדָה, (לְקַדְשׁוֹ יִשְׂרָאֵל מִמִּשְׁלוֹתָיו: ג הַיָּם רָאָה וַיִּגַּס הַיַּרְדֵּן יָסַב לְאַחֲזֹר: The interpretation on these Scriptures is in support of Judah having laid his life down on behalf of the people. Judah had faith and humility was great enough to even merit the dividing of the red sea in the minds of the rabbis.

The significant points that we can take from the rabbis and this week's Torah portion are in relation to the qualities of being a leader, especially a spiritual leader, is to live selflessly. Selflessness is in the sense of being humble, honest, and consistently thinking upon and have concern for the welfare of others as opposed to one's self. One major concern is the importance of correctly teaching the word of God (as opposed to teaching believing in only a theology or doctrine) and to live the example (Ephesians 4:11, 1 Timothy 3:2, 5:17, Titus 1:9, and Hebrews 3:17). According to Acts 6:1-6, the apostles were devoted to prayer and the ministry of the word of God. The qualifications of a good leader are found in 1 Timothy 3:8-13, one must not be an addict (3:3), not greedy or seeking dishonest gain (3:3), blameless (3:2, Titus 1:6), the husband of one wife (6:2), and able to manage his children and household (6:4-5). These qualifications are focusing upon the moral character of the person who is to be a leader, he is to be mature and above reproach. Were these the things Joseph was looking for in his brothers?

In addition, a leader is to be dignified and not double tongued (i.e. saying one thing and then doing another). He is not to be a drunkard (addicted to much wine) and to be sound in faith and life (6:9). Paul's language of being "blameless" would disqualify all of Joseph's brothers, since they were all complicit in Joseph being sold into slavery (all except Benjamin). Moreover, what we can conclude is that leaders should have the ability of discernment, having a maturity in faith and not a maturity in the sense of only being able to repeat a church doctrine. The point is to be seasoned in the Scriptures, being able to understand Scripture, and apply the Scriptures to any situation in life. This is important because all of these things call for our obedience to God's Word as we live our lives for God's glory.

Note that with God's mercy comes His blessings in our lives for those who would obey His Word. The ungodly, those who disobey his commands, the wicked, we are told their ways turn "A fruitful land into a salt waste" (Tehillim / Psalms 107:34) and the reason is because of wickedness pollutes a holy land and those who dwell in it. The righteous on the other hand the descriptions given in the Psalms are those of newness of life and even of resurrection in the sense that life comes from a deserted and dry (dead) land. The Lord says that He will cause springs of water to flow and the hungry will dwell in the land, plant fields and vineyards and the Lord will cause the land to produce much fruit and great prosperity will come to the people who walk in God's ways! The Aramaic Targum on Tehillim / Psalms 107:32-38 states, לב ומרוממין יתיה בכנשת עמא בית ישראל ובסנהדרין דחכימיא ישבחון יתיה: לג על דרא דיואל בר פתואל אתנבי ואמר כד מרדו בית ישראל ביומי דיואל נבייא אייתי בצורתא בעלמא שווי נהרוותא היך מדברא ומפקנות מיא היך צהותא: לד ארעא דישראל דעבדא פירי צדא היך סדום דאתהפיכת מן בישות יתבין בה: לה כד תבו לאוריתא שוי מדברא היך אריתא דמיא וארע ציהייא צדיא למפקנות מיא: לו ואשרי תמן כפינים ואתקינו קרתא מייתבא: לז וזרעו חקלין ונציבו ונסיבו כרמיא ועבדו פרי אבא: לח וב- 107:32 And they exalt him in the assembly of the people, the house of Israel; and in the Sanhedrin of the wise they will praise him. 107:33 Concerning the generation of Joel son of Pethuel he prophesied and said: "When the house of Israel rebelled in the days of Joel the prophet, he brought a drought into the world; he made the rivers like the desert, and the sources of water like thirst." 107:34. The land of Israel that produces fruit became a waste like Sodom, which was overthrown because of the evil of its inhabitants. 107:35 When they returned to the Torah, he made the desert like a channel of water, and the parched land [became] sources of water. 107:36 And he made the hungry dwell there, and they set up an inhabited city. 107:37 And they sowed fields and planted vineyards, and they yielded fruit of produce. 107:38 And he blessed them and they multiplied greatly, and their livestock will not diminish. (EMC) The rabbis parallel these things to Joel the son of Pethuel, speaking of a prophetic message against the people of the land due to the faithlessness of the people and their sins. The people were unrepentant, they did not seek to walk in God's ways, they desired to walk in their own ways, and as a result the land became a desert waste, like Sodom. Note that in both the MT and the Targum translations, the Scriptures say "And he made the hungry dwell there," suggesting the Lord placed a hungry people in the land. Note this sounds similar to what is written in Parashat Ki Tavo, Devarim / Deuteronomy 28:48 therefore you shall serve your enemies whom the LORD will send against you, in hunger, in thirst, in nakedness, and in the lack of all things; and He will put an iron yoke on your neck until He has destroyed you. (NASB) From this Torah context, it sounds as if the Lord is describing the hunger, thirst, and nakedness as in personal possessions and sustenance. The Description in the Psalm states however that these people the Lord planted will plant fields and the land will produce fruit and sources of water will appear to water the land. This sounds like a description of a land that is filled with righteous people. These people who are hungry seem to be in need for and desire the presence of the Lord and His Holy Words. The people are starving for the Lord's word and His presence, similar to what Amos says in Amos 8:11 "Behold, days are coming," declares the Lord GOD, "When I will send a famine on the land, Not a famine for bread or a thirst for water, But rather for hearing the words of the LORD. (NASB) Do you thirst and hunger for the presence of God in your life? Do you hunger and thirst for His words?

These qualities of leadership involve studying God's Word for the purpose of applying His truth to our lives, and to have concern for the welfare of others as opposed to ones's self. Good leadership appears to be the significance of the stories about Joseph and his brothers. The reason these stories were written in the Torah was to show us how no matter what the circumstances, the Lord is working in the background for good, to save lives, and to bring His truth into the hearts of all men. In conclusion, let's read from the Mishnah Pirkei Avot 5:17-18.

Mishnah Pirkei Avot 5:17-18

כָּל הַמְזִכֶּה אֶת הָרַבִּים, אֵין חַטָּא בָּא עַל יָדוֹ. וְכֹל הַמְחַטֵּיא אֶת הָרַבִּים, אֵין מִסְפִּיקִין בְּיָדוֹ לַעֲשׂוֹת תְּשׁוּבָה. מֹשֶׁה זָכָה וְזָכָה אֶת הָרַבִּים, זְכוּת הָרַבִּים תְּלוּי בּוֹ, שְׁנֵאמַר (דְּבָרִים ל"ג) צְדָקַת ה' עָשָׂה וּמִשְׁפָּטָיו עִם יִשְׂרָאֵל. יִרְבְּעַם חַטָּא וְהִחַטֵּיא אֶת הָרַבִּים, חַטָּא הָרַבִּים תְּלוּי בּוֹ, שְׁנֵאמַר (מַלְכִים א טו) עַל חַטָּאוֹת יִרְבְּעַם (בֶּן נְבֹט) אֲשֶׁר חַטָּא וְאֲשֶׁר יִשְׂרָאֵל. Anyone who brings merit to the many, sin does not result from him. And anyone who brings the many to sin is not given enough [time] to repent. Moshe -- who was meritorious and brought merit to the many; the merit of the many is appended to him, as it is stated (Deuteronomy 33:21), "He fulfilled the righteousness of God and His statutes with Israel." Jeroboam -- who sinned and caused the many to sin; the sin of the many is appended to him, as it is stated (I Kings 15:30), "for the sins of Jeroboam that he sinned and that he caused Israel to sin.” כָּל מִי שֵׁיִשׁ בְּיָדוֹ שְׁלֹשָׁה דְבָרִים הִלְלוּ, מִתְלַמְּדֵי וְשָׁל אֲבֵרָהֶם אָבִינוּ. וְשְׁלֹשָׁה דְבָרִים אֲחֵרִים, מִתְלַמְּדֵי וְשָׁל בְּלָעַם הָרָשָׁע. עֵינַי טוֹבָה, וְרוּחַ גְּבוּהָה, וְנַפְשׁ שְׂפָלָה, מִתְלַמְּדֵי וְשָׁל אֲבֵרָהֶם אָבִינוּ. עֵינַי רָעָה, וְרוּחַ גְּבוּהָה, וְנַפְשׁ רַחֲבָה, מִתְלַמְּדֵי וְשָׁל בְּלָעַם הָרָשָׁע. מֵה בֵּין תְּלַמְּדֵי וְשָׁל אֲבֵרָהֶם אָבִינוּ לְתַלְמִידֵי וְשָׁל בְּלָעַם הָרָשָׁע. תְּלַמְּדֵי וְשָׁל אֲבֵרָהֶם אָבִינוּ, אוֹכְלֵי בְּעוֹלָם הַזֶּה וְנוֹחְלֵי בְּעוֹלָם הַבָּא, שְׁנֵאמַר (מִשְׁלֵי ח) לְהִנְחִיל אֶהְבִּי יֵשׁ, וְאַצְרַתִּיהֶם אֲמֵלֵא. אֲבָל תְּלַמְּדֵי וְשָׁל בְּלָעַם הָרָשָׁע יוֹרְשֵׁי גֵיהֶנֶם וְיוֹרְדֵי לְבָאָר שְׁחַת, שְׁנֵאמַר (תְּהִלִּים נה) וְאַתָּה אֱלֹהִים תּוֹרִידֵם לְבָאָר שְׁחַת, אֲנֹשֵׁי דְמִים וּמְרָמָה לֹא יִחְצֹו יְמֵיהֶם, וְאֲנִי אֲבִטַח בְּךָ: Anyone who has these three things is from the students of Abraham, our father, and [anyone who has] three other things is from the students of Bilaam the evildoer: [one who has] a good eye, a humble spirit and a small appetite -- is from the students of Abraham, our father. [One who has] an evil eye, a haughty spirit and a broad appetite - is from the students of Bilaam the evildoer. What [difference] is there between the students of Abraham, our father, and the students of Bilaam the evildoer? The students of Abraham, our father, eat in this world and possess the next world, as it is stated (Proverbs 8:21), “There is what for those that love Me to inherit, and their treasures will I fill.” But the students of Bilaam the evildoer inherit Gehinnom (Purgatory) and go down to the pit of destruction, as it is stated (Psalms 55:24), “And You, God, will bring them down to the pit of destruction; the people of blood and deceit, they will not live out half their days; and I will trust in You.”

The Mishnah Pirkei Avot 5:17-18 speaks of one who brings righteousness to many as opposed to one who brings many to sin. The biblical comparison is to Moshe and Jeroboam, Moshe brought many to righteousness, Jeroboam brought many to sin. The rabbis say that those who teach righteousness to others, are the students of Abraham, and those who teach others to sin, are the students of Bilaam. The teacher of righteousness inherits the kingdom of Heaven, and the teacher of sin inherits Gehinnom (Hell). These descriptions of two types of people are related to leadership and the importance of studying God's Word for the purpose of applying His truth to our lives, and to have concern for the welfare of others as opposed to one's self. Leadership is what these stories about Joseph and his brothers are all about. The reason these stories were written in the Torah was to show us how no matter what the circumstances, the Lord is working in the background for good, to save lives, and to bring His truth into the hearts of all men. The Lord can do this with or without you. It is easy to see how the leaders of our country are corrupt and unrighteous. Which side of leadership are you serving today?
